Emotion in the Tudor Court Bradley J. Irish, 2018-01-15 Deploying literary analysis theories of emotion from the sciences and humanities and an archival account of Tudor history Emotion in the Tudor Court examines how literature both reflects and constructs the emotional dynamics of life in the Renaissance court In it Bradley J Irish argues that emotionality is a foundational framework through which historical subjects embody and engage their world and thus can serve as a fundamental lens of social and textual analysis Spanning the sixteenth century Emotion in the Tudor Court explores Cardinal Thomas Wolsey and Henrician satire Henry Howard Earl of Surrey and elegy Sir Philip Sidney and Elizabethan pageantry and Robert Devereux Earl of Essex and factional literature It demonstrates how the dynamics of disgust envy rejection and dread as they are understood in the modern affective sciences can be seen to guide literary production in the early modern court By combining Renaissance concepts of emotion with modern research in the social and natural sciences Emotion in the Tudor Court takes a transdisciplinary approach to yield fascinating and robust ways to illuminate both literary studies and cultural history

Allegorical Quests from Dequileville to Spenser Marco Nievergelt, 2012 An examination of sixteenth century quest narratives focussing on their conscious use of a medieval tradition to hold a mirror up to contemporary culture Offers the first full study of the allegorical knightly quest tradition from the Middle Ages to the Renaissance Richly satisfying as impressive in the detail of its scholarship as in the elegance of its critical formulations It seamlessly moves between different literary traditions and across conventional period boundaries In Dr Nievergelt s treatment of this theme the successive retellings of the tale of the knight s quest come to stand as an emblem of shifting values and norms both religious and worldly and of our repeated failures to realise those ideals Dr Alex Davis Department of English University of St Andrews The literary motif of the allegorical knightly quest appears repeatedly in the literature of the late medieval early modern period notably in Spenser but has hitherto been little examined Here in his examination of a number of sixteenth century English allegorical chivalric quest narratives focussing on Spenser s Faerie Queene but including important lesser known works such as Stephen Bateman s Travayled Pylgrime and William Goodyear s Voyage of the Wandering Knight the author argues that the tradition begins with the French writer Guillaume de Deguileville His seminal Plerinage de la vie humaine was composed c 1331 1355 it was widely adapted translated rewritten and printed over the next centuries Dr Nievergelt goes on to demonstrate how this essentially medieval literary form could be adapted to articulate reflections on changing patterns of identity society and religion during the early modern period and how it becomes a vehicle of self exploration and self fashioning during a period of profound cultural crisis Dr Marco Nievergelt is Lecturer Maître Assitant and SNF Swiss National Science Foundation Research Fellow in the English Department at the Université de Lausanne
