Quest For The Liberated Christian:

A Quest for the Liberated Christian Examined on the Basis of a Mission, a Man and a Movement as Agents of Liberation Mary Hall, 1975      Quest for the Living God Elizabeth A. Johnson, 2011-07-21 Since the middle of the twentieth century writes Elizabeth Johnson there has been a renaissance of new insights into God in the Christian tradition On different continents under pressure from historical events and social conditions people of faith have glimpsed the living God in fresh ways It is not that a wholly different God is discovered from the One believed in by previous generations Christian faith does not believe in a new God but finding itself in new situations seeks the presence of God there Aspects long forgotten are brought into new relationships with current events and the depths of divine compassion are appreciated in ways not previously imagined This book sets out the fruit of these discoveries The first chapter describes Johnson's point of departure and the rules of engagement with each succeeding chapter distilling a discrete idea of God Featured are transcendental political liberation feminist black Hispanic interreligious and ecological theologies ending with the particular Christian idea of the one God as Trinity      The Final Quest Rick Joyner, 1996-03-01 This is the account Rick Joyner gives of a vision he experienced over the course of a year in which he claims to have viewed the unfolding of the last battle between light and darkness This is the complete vision including parts not previously seen      Sino-Christian Theology Pan-Chiu Lai, 2010 Sino-Christian theology usually refers to an intellectual movement emerged in Mainland China since the late 1980s The present volume aims to provide a self-explaining sketch of the historical development of this theological as well as cultural movement In addition to the analyses on the theoretical issues involved and the articulations of the prospect concrete examples are also offered to illustrate the characteristics of the movement      Jesus and the Quest for Meaning Thomas H. West, A new approach to introducing theology As God's self-communication to humans Jesus is the key to the human search for meaning argues Thomas West He therefore introduces the practice of theology through Christology From the question of personal meaning and self-constitution and their relationship to transcendent meaning and value he proceeds to discuss the figure and import of Jesus and then the ethical imperative engendered through encounter with him Fresh and clear West's book is an invitation to grapple with one's religious commitments especially in light of recent insights in biblical studies and Continental feminist and liberation theologies This new text will prove an engaging and effective introduction to theological thinking for both undergraduates and Christian adults      Intercultural Perceptions and Prospects of World Christianity Richard Friedli, Jan A. B. Jongeneel, Klaus Koschorke, 2010 Studies in the Intercultural History of Christianity published by Peter Lang since 1975 is nowadays the largest series in the wide field of missiology intercultural theology and comparative religion theology The present editors decided to celebrate the publication of no less than one hundred and fifty volumes by evaluating and rethinking intercultural theology This book is meant to encourage Christian theology to be done more thoroughly adequately and effectively in the contemporary global and local setting On the one hand the volume offers new insights into the nature of doing biblical studies church history and systematic and practical theology as well as comparative theology in an intercultural way On the other hand it argues for accomplishing interdisciplinary studies in the fields of theology and religion

From Migrants to Missionaries Benjamin Simon, 2010 The denominational plurality in continental Europe keeps growing The churches of African origin are of increasing number Seeking for a new identity in their new home the concept of Diaspora and the question for legal issues get important for their identity To what extent is their identity determined rather by seclusion or openness Are the churches missionizing amongst Germans and are there ecumenical relations What are the characteristics of such a new identity How does it develop By analyzing three different types of churches of African origin in the German context especially by examining their sermons the author demonstrates how those churches develop in a missionary direction and how they can become ecumenical partners

Jesus Imandars and Christ Bhaktas Jonas Adelin Jørgensen, 2008 The massive changes of Christianity during the 20th century raise the perennial question about its identity in a new radical form The author addresses the question of identity and asks how globalisation religious pluralism and the polycentric nature of Christianity affect Christian self identification and theological reflection First religious life and theological reflection among believers in Jesus from Muslim and Hindu background in South Asia is presented in two empirical studies Secondly the findings are analysed and interpreted within a broad theoretical framework drawing on models for syncretistic processes from history of religions cultural anthropology and Christian theology Finally the study concludes with a systematic theological perspective on the interreligious hermeneutics underlying the changes of Christianity and discusses how interreligious hermeneutics might inform missiology as well as Christian theologies of religions and how this might challenge our understanding of the church's nature and mission In conclusion it is argued that a global polycentric Christianity can be interpreted as fellowship created by the Spirit and centred on Christ
