Bullen, 2014-06-06 Writing and Victorianism asks the fundamental question what is Victorianism and offers a number of answers taken from methods and approaches which have been developed over the last ten years This collection of essays written by both new and established scholars from Britain and the U S A develops many of the themes of nineteenth century studies which have lately come to the fore touching upon issues such as drugs class power and gender Some essays reflect the interaction of word and image in the nineteenth century and the notion of the city as spectacle others look at Victorian science finding a connection between writing and the growth of psychology and psychiatry on the one hand and with the power of scientific materialism on the other As well as key figures such as Dickens Tennyson and Wilde a host of new names are introduced including working class writers attempting to define themselves and writers in the Periodical press who once anonymous exercised a great influence over Victorian politics taste and social ideals From these observations there emerges a need for self definition in Victorian writing History ancestry and the past all play their part in figuring the present in the nineteenth century and many of these studies foreground the problem of literary social and psychological identity The Amber Gods, and Other Stories Harriet Elizabeth Prescott Spofford,1989 A widely held vision of nineteenth century American women is of lives lived in naive domestic peace the girls of Little Women making do until father comes home from the war Nothing could be less true of Harriet Prescott Spofford s stories In fact her editor at the Atlantic Monthly at first refused to believe that an unworldly woman from New England had written them Her style though ornate by our 20th century standards adds to its atmosphere like heavy Baroque furniture in a large and creepy house The title story presents a self centered and captivating woman who ruthlessly steals her orphan cousin s lover In Circumstance a pioneer woman returning home through the woods at night is caught by a panther her husband who has come to save her can only watch from the ground as she sings for her life pinned in a tree A train engineer hallucinates again and again that he is running over his wife And Mrs Craven who s a bit weak in the head mindlessly repeats Three men went down cellar and only two came up These stories combine elements of the best ghost stories timing detail and character with just enough chill to make you think twice about turning out your lights at night The Gems of Istarra Gail E.

Thomas,2015-07-10 One hundred years ago in the Purple Hills of Luesonia seven gems were stolen from the crown of a crystal statue of the goddess Istarra Each gemstone born on Luesonia was alive and could hold within their crystal hearts great magical power If used together for good great things could happen If the gems were used for evil Luesonia would become a dark world Many years later Kajis an evil warlord found one of the seven gems the green gem Shagara As soon as he possessed Shagara he desired the other six gems for their magical powers Kajis sent two Bduds to kidnap the Spectra Clan from the Purple Hills and enslave them in his castle dungeon From the members of the clan he chose twins ten year olds Danu and Cronus for their unique gifts of magic to locate and retrieve the other six gemstones If the twins chose not to go on the quest Kajis threatened to kill all the members of their clan Danu and Cronus experience exciting adventures on the gem quest Along the way they meet up with several willing accomplices human and alien to help them gather the remaining gemstones before the day of the full moons Danu and Cronus and their new friends know they cannot allow Kajis to possess the gems of Istarra Backpacker ,1999-06 Backpacker brings the outdoors straight to the reader s doorstep inspiring and enabling them to go more places and enjoy nature more often The authority on active adventure Backpacker is the world s first GPS enabled magazine and the only magazine whose editors personally test the hiking trails camping gear and survival tips they publish Backpacker s Editors Choice Awards an industry honor recognizing design feature and product innovation has become the gold standard against which all other outdoor industry awards are measured Anxieties of Empire and the Fiction of Intrigue Yumna Siddiqi,2008 Focusing on late nineteenth and twentieth century stories of detection policing and espionage by British and South Asian writers Yumna Siddiqi presents an original and compelling exploration of the cultural anxieties created by imperialism She suggests that while colonial writers use narratives of intrigue to endorse imperial rule postcolonial writers turn the generic conventions and topography of the fiction of intrigue on its head launching a critique of imperial power that makes the repressive and emancipatory impulses of postcolonial modernity visible Siddiqi devotes the first part of her book to the colonial fiction of Arthur Conan Doyle and John Buchan in which the British regime's preoccupation with maintaining power found its voice The rationalization of difference pronouncedly expressed through the genre's strategies of representation and narrative resolution helped to reinforce domination and in some cases allay fears concerning the loss of colonial power In the second part Siddiqi argues that late twentieth century South Asian writers also underscore the state's insecurities but unlike British imperial writers they take a critical view of the state's authoritarian tendencies Such writers as Amitav Ghosh Michael Ondaatje Arundhati Roy and Salman Rushdie use the conventions of detective and spy fiction in creative ways to explore the coercive actions of the postcolonial state and the power dynamics of a postcolonial New Empire Drawing on the work of leading theorists of imperialism such as Edward Said Frantz Fanon and the Subaltern Studies historians Siddiqi reveals how British writers express the anxious workings of a will to maintain imperial power in their writing She also illuminates the ways South Asian writers portray the paradoxes of postcolonial modernity and trace the ruses and uses of reason in a world where the modern marks a horizon not only of hope but also of economic military and ecological disaster

Romance and Power in the Hollywood Eastern Nalini Natarajan,2020-11-07 This book develops the idea of the Eastern as an analytically significant genre of film Positioned in counterpoint to the Western the famed cowboy genre of the American frontier the Eastern encompasses films that depict the eastern and southern frontiers of Euro American expansion Examining six films in particular Gunga Din 1939 Lawrence of Arabia 1962 Heat and Dust 1983 A Passage to India 1984 Indochine 1992 and The English Patient 1996 the author explores the duality of the Eastern as both aggressive and seductive depicting conquest and romance at the same time In juxtaposing these two elements the book seeks to reveal the double process by which the Eastern both diminishes the East and Global South and reinforces ignorance about these regions histories and complexity thereby setting the stage for ever escalating political aggression

Dissenters and Mavericks Margery Sabin,2002-10-24 Dissenters and Mavericks reinvigorates the interdisciplinary study of literature history and politics through an approach to reading that allows the voices heard in writing a chance to talk back to exert pressure on the presuppositions and preferences of a wide range of readers Offering fresh and provocative interpretations of both well known and unfamiliar texts from colonial writers such as Horace Walpole and Edmund Burke to twentieth century Indian writers such as Nirad Chaudhuri V S Naipaul and Pankaj Mishra the book proposes a controversial challenge to prevailing academic methodology in the field of postcolonial studies

Hidden Rivalries in Victorian Fiction Jerome Meckier,2021-10-21 Victorian fiction has been read and analyzed from a wide range of perspectives in the past century But how did the novelists themselves read and respond to each other s creations when they first appeared Jerome Meckier answers that intriguing question in this ground breaking study of what he terms the Victorian realism wars Meckier argues that nineteenth century British fiction should be seen as a network of intersecting reactions and counteractions in which the novelists rethought and rewrote each other s novels as a way of enhancing their own credibility In an increasingly relative world thanks to the triumph of a scientific secularity the goal of the novelist was to establish his or her own credentials as a realist hence a reliable social critic by undercutting someone else s usually Charles Dickens s Trollope Mrs Gaskell and especially George Eliot attempted to make room for themselves in the 1850s and 1860s by pushing Dickens aside Wilkie Collins tried a different form of parodic revaluation he strove to outdo Dickens at the kind of novel Dickens thought he did best the kind his other rivals tried to cancel tone down or repair ostensibly for being too melodramatic but actually for expressing too negative a world view For his part Dickens determined to remain inimitable replied to all of his rivals by redoing them as spiritedly as they had reused his characters and situations to make their own statements and to discredit his Thus Meckier redefines Victorian realism as the bravura assertion by a major novelist or one soon to be that he or she was a better realist than Dickens By suggesting the ways Victorian novelist read and rewrote each other s work this innovative study alters present day perceptions of such double purpose novels as Felix Holt Bleak House Middlemarch North and South Hard Times The Woman in White and The Mystery of Edwin Drood

Dickens to Hardy 1837-1884 Julian Wolfreys, 2007-06-27 This authoritative survey examines how the Victorian middle classes perceived themselves through analyses of the literature of the period Asking how the middle classes distinguished themselves from their forbears Julian Wolfreys reads in detail major novels by Charles Dickens Elizabeth Gaskell Wilkie Collins George Eliot Thomas Hardy Wolfreys explores the novelists constructions of modernity national identity and their understanding of becoming historical in distinction from that of previous generations He offers illuminating close readings of texts and examines narratives set in a recent past in order to investigate the role of cultural memory in the making of identity Also featuring a helpful Chronology and an Annotated Bibliography to aid further study this stimulating guide encourages readers to reassess the work of key writers of the nineteenth century

Wilkie Collins, Medicine and the Gothic Laurence Talairach-Vielmas, 2009-09-01 This book examines how Wilkie Collins s interest in medical matters developed in his writing through exploration of his revisions of the late eighteenth century Gothic novel from his first sensation novels to his last novels of the 1880s Throughout his career Collins made changes in the prototypical Gothic scenario The aristocratic villains victimized maidens and medieval castles of classic Gothic tales were reworked and adapted to thrill his Victorian readership With the advances of neuroscience and the development of criminology as a significant backdrop to most of his novels Collins drew upon contemporary anxieties and increasingly used the medical to propel his criminal plots While the prototypical castles were turned into modern medical institutions his heroines no longer feared ghosts but the scientist s knife This study hence underlines the way in which Collins s Gothic revisions increasingly tackled medical questions using the medical terrain to capitalize on the readers fears It also demonstrates how Wilkie Collins s fiction reworks Gothic themes and presents them through the prism of contemporary scientific medical and psychological discourses from debates revolving around mental physiology to those dealing with heredity and transmission The book s structure is chronological covering a selection of texts in each chapter with a balance between discussion of the more canonical of Collins's texts such as The Woman in White, The Moonstone and Armada and some of his more neglected writings The Silent Battle Alice Muriel Williamson, 1909
