A Stranger in the House of God John Koessler, 2009-08-30 Growing up the son of agnostics John Koessler

saw a Catholic church on one end of the street and a Baptist on the other In the no man s land between the two this curious outside wondered about the God they worshipped and began a lifelong search to comprehend the grace and mystery of God A Stranger in the House of God addresses fundamental questions and struggles faced by spiritual seekers and mature believers Like a contemporary Pilgrim s Progress it traces the author s journey and explores his experiences with both charismatic and evangelical Christianity It also describes his transformation from religious outsider to ordained pastor John Koessler provides a poignant and often humorous window into the interior of the soul as he describes his journey from doubt and struggle with the church to personal faith A Collection of Confessions of Faith, Catechisms, Directories, Books of Discipline, &c. of Publick Authority in the Church of Scotland. ... Church of Scotland,1719 Who Do You Say That I Am? Calvin E. Shenk,2006-04-07 Out of long involvement with adherents of many religions Shenk dares to assert that one can be profoundly respectful of people of other faith traditions and still retain the integrity of one s own faith from the Foreword by Wilbert R Shenk Can we respect other religions and still view Christ as normative for all Yes says Calvin Shenk Professor Emeritus of Religion at Eastern Mennonite University How Answers are not simple However biblical perspectives on religions provide reliable starting points for the journey And placing Christ at the center of the quest yields clarity amid complexity For Christians candid commitment to the uniqueness of Christ is to be accomplished by the integrity of Christ This leads to loving witness that includes truly dialoguing with persons committed to other religions Who Do You Say That I Am assesses contemporary theologies of religious pluralism as well as several of the world s major religions yet remains accessible to all thoughtful Christians The Myth of a Christian Nation Gregory A. Boyd,2009-05-18 The church was established to serve the world with Christ like love not to rule the world It is called to look like a corporate Jesus dying on the cross for those who crucified him not a religious version of Caesar It is called to manifest the kingdom of the cross in contrast to the kingdom of the sword Whenever the church has succeeded in gaining what most American evangelicals are now trying to get political power it has been disastrous both for the church and the culture Whenever the church picks up the sword it lays down the cross The present activity of the religious right is destroying the heart and soul of the evangelical church and destroying its unique witness to the world The church is to have a political voice but we are to have it the way Jesus had it by manifesting an alternative to the political power over way of doing life We are to transform the world by being willing to suffer for others exercising power under not by getting our way in society exercising power over Say and seal, by the author of 'The wide, wide world'. Copyright ed Susan Bogert Warner,1870 Who Do You Say That I Am? Gribble, Richard, CSC,2020 Answers a central question of Jesus s ministry looking at how Jesus and his various roles have been understood by Christians through the centuries Richard Baxter's Catholick Theologie : Plain, Pure, Peaceable : for Pacification of the Dogmatical Word-warriours, ... Richard Baxter,1675 Catechizing Upon the Heidelbergh Catechisme of the Reformed Christian Religion ... Petrus de Witte,1670 Who Do You Say That I Am? Michael Root,James J.

Buckley,2014-09-03 No question is more central to Christian living preaching and theology than Jesus question to his disciples Who do you say that I am Some would have it that pastors and theologians biblical exegetes and historians dogmatic and moral theologians Catholic and Evangelical have more differences than similarities in the way Christians with such diverse vocations respond to Jesus question And there is little doubt that there sometimes seem to be unbridgeable gulfs between the way historians and believers Internet gossipers and preachers classical christological debates and present day praying and pastoral care implicitly or explicitly address the Lord s question But the authors here address these and other issues in ways that are remarkably convergent as if a Catholic and Evangelical theology for proclaiming and following Jesus today has emerged or is indeed emerging Works Not Hitherto Published Thomas Taylor,1653
