Human Heart, Cosmic Heart Thomas Cowan, 2016-10-22 This book is life changing for those trying to understand their own bodies or those of loved ones and it s truly transformative in the hands of medical professionals especially young doctors Foreword Reviews Thomas Cowan was a 20 year old Duke grad bright skeptical and already disillusioned with industrial capitalism when he joined the Peace Corps in the mid 1970s for a two year tour in Swaziland There he encountered the work of Rudolf Steiner and Weston A Price two men whose ideas would fascinate and challenge him for decades to come Both drawn to the art of healing and repelled by the way medicine was and continues to be practiced in the United States Cowan returned from Swaziland went to medical school and established a practice in New Hampshire and later San Francisco For years as he raised his three children suffered the setback of divorce and struggled with a heart condition he remained intrigued by the work of Price and Steiner and in particular with Steiner s provocative claim that the heart is not a pump Determined to practice medicine in a way that promoted healing rather than compounded ailments Cowan dedicated himself to understanding whether Steiner s claim could possibly be true And if Steiner was correct what then is the heart What is its true role in the human body In this deeply personal rigorous and riveting account Dr Cowan offers up a daring claim Not only was Steiner correct that the heart is not a pump but our understanding of heart disease with its origins in the blood vessels is completely wrong And this gross misunderstanding with its attendant medications and risky surgeries is the reason heart disease remains the most common cause of death worldwide In Human Heart Cosmic Heart Dr Thomas Cowan presents a new way of understanding the body s most central organ He offers a new

The Quest of Heart Rakesh Madhotra,2020-12-30 About The Book Every human being who sets sail in the ship of reality and dreams sways constantly in the endeavour to cross the sea of life Sometimes they move towards their destinations and sometimes away from it Rahul struggling between losing and gaining finds himself lost in the search of love

In search of love he goes away from himself He never in his wildest dreams had imagined such chaos Later this journey of Rahul turns out to be a wonderful experience About The Author Rakesh Madhotra born in Delhi was initially educated at Ludlow Castle School in Delhi He kept his creativity alive through writing and direction He directed acclaimed telefilms like Dishayein and Mulaqaat He also directed telefilms for B R Chopra Films      The Daily Quest Fox Lehjika,2018-12-15 Life on earth is a dichotomic gamble Either we live or we die If we die the equation is solved But if we are alive there are two possibilities either we are happy or we are unhappy If we are happy there are little things to worry about and few questions to ask If we are unhappy there two possibilities either we get to work to reverse our misfortune or we bow to the challenge If we give up trying we can just sit and wait for the nature to take care of us and relegate life concerns until eventually death comes If we are resilient and keep fighting for a better life there are two possibilities either we choose to be constructive or we engage in destructive schemes In either situation we find ourselves faced with many questions and few or no answers Some questions raising hope some others striking fear and uncertainty If we find answers some solve our problem with no collateral damage to ourselves and to others some other go the other way In both cases these answers can be like medication curing some patients and hurting others and sometime bringing both cure and harm at the same time In some instances we intend to do good just to end up with harmful results In some other cases ill intentions result in something good In all these situations one thing remains a constant that is nothing is certain and there is no guarantee that the next hour will find us in physical mental and emotional shape to face the next challenges or seize new opportunities The search for such certainty is elusive which makes it a Daily Quest On the one hand were there a onetime answer to these concerns a onetime price could be paid and the problem could be settled once and for all But just as these life pressing questions spawn at the time we wake up and follow us for the rest of the day they need to be answered on daily basis and the likely answers require a sustained daily exercise involving our body mind and heart The purpose of this book is not to offer answers to the many life s questions Rather this essay presents and describes the natural and powerful but often overlooked tools the nature has afforded us and which we need in our Daily Quest These gears are the Power of concentrated thought the power of critical thinking and the power of prayer They are intrinsically related to our physical body our mind and our emotions Above all they are the links that connect us to our Inner Power our God from within To a certain extent we all practice Concentration Meditation and Prayer but not in a way to harness their tremendous transformative qualities The author strongly believes that by systematizing the use of these tools in our daily life we can enhance our ability to appreciate the dissonances of life and meet our challenges and opportunities with happiness and success Therefore this book will make sense to the reader only to the extent that s he tries first hand the exercises here explained Every effort is a step in a good direction The Quest is an individual and a daily undertaking If you can be your own master      Resolute Lance J. Cunha,2016-04-09 One man s resolute determination to live On New Year s Day 2014 retired international banker and consultant Lance Cunha and a young
