You should enjoy the moment, dream big, have it all, get up before the sun, track your water consumption, go on date nights, and be the best. It's so easy to feel overwhelmed by the mixed messages of what it means to live well. Kendra Adachi, the creator of the Lazy Genius movement, invites you to live well by your own definition and equips you to be a genius about what matters and lazy about what doesn't. Everything from your morning routine to napping without guilt falls into place with Kendra's thirteen Lazy Genius principles, including: Decide once, Start small, Ask the Magic Question, Go in the right order, Schedule rest, Discover a better way to approach your relationships, work, and piles of mail, Be who you are without the complication of everyone else's shoulds, Do what matters, skip the rest, and be a person again.
