Journalistic Authority Matt Carlson, 2017-05-23 When we encounter a news story why do we accept its version of events Why do we even recognize it as news A complicated set of cultural structural and technological relationships inform this interaction and Journalistic Authority provides a relational theory for explaining how journalists attain authority The book argues that authority is not a thing to be possessed or lost but a relationship arising in the connections between those laying claim to being an authority and those who assent to it Matt Carlson examines the practices journalists use to legitimate their work professional orientation development of specific news forms and the personal narratives they circulate to support a privileged social place He then considers journalists relationships with the audiences sources technologies and critics that shape journalistic authority in the contemporary media environment Carlson argues that journalistic authority is always the product of complex and variable relationships Journalistic Authority weaves together journalists relationships with their audiences sources technologies and critics to present a new model for understanding journalism while advocating for practices we need in an age of fake news and shifting norms

Theology of The Womb Christy Angelle Bauman, 2019-12-06 If it is true that God is a male then His Divinity or Deity is expressed in His masculinity Yet I am a woman and there are parts of my body such as my breasts my vagina and my womb that are telling a story about God that I have never learned or understood This is an exploration of the significance of a womb that must shed and bleed before it can create How will we engage our body which cyclically bleeds most of our life and can build and birth a human soul How will we honor the living womb that lives and sometimes dies within us This is a book about the theology found in the cycle of the womb which births both life and death Every day each one of us is invited to create and every day we make a decision knowing that from our creation can come death or life Women s voices have been silenced for a long time as society and the church has quieted their bodies Will we courageously choose to listen to the sound of your voice the song of your womb and speak for the world to hear educational history Question Authority Mark Kingwell,2024-11-05 Philosopher Mark Kingwell thinks about thinking for yourself in an era of radical know it all ism Question authority the popular 1960s slogan commanded Think for yourself But what started as a counter cultural catchphrase playful in logic but serious in intent has become a practical paradox Yesterday s social critics are the tone policing tyrants of today while those who claim colourblindness see no need to engage with critical theory at all The resulting crisis of authority made worse by rival political factions and chaotic public discourse has exposed cracks in every facet of shared social life Politics academia journalism medicine religion science every kind of institutional claim is now routinely subject to objection investigation and outright disbelief A recurring feature of this comprehensive distrust of authority is the firm often unshakeable belief in personal righteousness and superiority what Mark Kingwell calls our addiction to conviction In this critical survey of the predicament of contemporary authority Kingwell draws on philosophical argument personal reflection and details from the headlines in an attempt to reclaim the democratic spirit of questioning authority and thinking for oneself Defending a program of compassionate skepticism Question Authority is a fascinating survey of the role of individual humility in public life and illuminates how we might each do our part in the infinite project of justice

Authority Is Relational Charles Bingham,2009-01-01 Written in an accessible and personal style this innovative study of authority in education examines scenarios of authority in ways that problematize augment and redefine prevalent ideas of how it works Usually seen as a thing that people have the author suggests that authority should be understood instead as a relation that happens between people which gets enacted in circuits where each participant has a role to play those circuits can include teachers students the books they read as well as former teachers and former students Drawing on ideas from psychoanalysis hermeneutics philosophy of language and the work of Jacques Derrida and Paulo Freire the book offers a useful new understanding of authority in education

Jumping Sundays Nick Bollinger,2022-08-11 On a Sunday afternoon in the spring of 1969 thousands of people defied Auckland city bylaws and came to party in Albert Park A rock band played on the rotunda Some people held hands some danced alone some sat under trees with guitars flutes and bongos and made music of their own They wore kaftans ponchos and leather fringed jerkins floppy hats headbands beads and flowers Poetry and political diatribes were delivered from a podium improvised from an upturned tea chest There were bikies balloons bubbles sack races and a lolly scramble lots of dogs and a pet possum Someone brought a canoe and paddled it around the fountain until it capsized As the afternoon wore on there were joss sticks skyrockets and what some will have recognised as the musky smell of marijuana From the PrologueIn Jumping Sundays award winning writer and broadcaster Nick Bollinger tells the story of beards and bombs freaks and firebrands self destruction and self realisation during a turbulent period in New Zealand s history and culture

Timeless Learning Ira Socol,Pam Moran,Chad Ratliff,2018-06-29 Reinvent public schools with proven innovative practices Our homes communities and the world itself need the natural assets our children bring with them as learners and which they often lose over time on the assembly line that pervades most of the public education system today We see no actions as more important in school than developing supporting and reinforcing children s sense of agency the value of their voices and their potential to influence their own communities In Timeless Learning an award winning team of leaders Chief Technology Officer Ira Socol Superintendent Pam Moran and Lab Schools Principal Chad Ratliff demonstrate how you can implement innovative practices that have shown remarkable success The authors use progressive design principles to inform pathways to disrupt traditions of education today and show you how to make innovations real that will have a timeless and meaningful impact on students keeping alive the natural curiosity and passion for learning with which children enter school Discover the power of project based and student designed learning Find out what maker learning entails Launch connected and interactive digital learning Benefit from the authors opening up learning space and time Using examples from their own successful district as well as others around the country the authors create a deep map of the processes necessary to move from schools in which content driven adult determined teaching has been the traditional norm to new learning spaces and communities in which context driven child determined learning is the progressive norm

Turn a Blind Eye: -A Mother's True Story- Pushed to Perform, an Adolescent Nightmare Karen Montgomery,2005-06-01 How do youngsters cope with the pressures of competitive endeavors What are their deepest fears Why do many talented kids feel like failures regardless of their successes Learn the shocking truth how some teens deal with mounting insecurities Discover the repercussions that can happen when parents are blinded to performance pressures facing youngsters particularly when entering chaotic adolescence My narrative is a heartfelt sometimes humorous journal detailing the nurturing of my daughter from birth through her turbulent adolescent years The intensity of her stormy evolution was inflamed by nine years in highly competitive professional dance environments and resulted in her self destructive acting out behavior It s a retrospective chronicle providing an insightful glimpse of what may await unsuspecting parents with youngsters in competitive activities What happened to us can happen to any well intentioned family with children who are pushed to perform in academics the arts or athletics navigate their neighborhoods life opportunities and encounters with the law In this pioneering analysis of the intersection of race place and opportunity sociologist and criminal justice expert Carla Shedd illuminates how schools either reinforce or ameliorate the social inequalities that shape the worlds of these adolescents Shedd draws from an array of data and in depth interviews with Chicago youth to offer new insight into this understudied group Focusing on four public high schools with differing student bodies Shedd reveals how the predominantly low income African American students at one school encounter obstacles their more affluent white counterparts on the other side of the city do not face Teens often travel long distances to attend school which due to Chicago s segregated and highly unequal neighborhoods can involve crossing class race and gang lines As Shedd explains the disadvantaged teens who traverse these boundaries daily develop a keen perception of injustice or the recognition that their economic and educational opportunities are restricted by their place in the social hierarchy Adolescents worldviews are also influenced by encounters with law enforcement while traveling to school and during school hours Shedd tracks the rise of metal detectors surveillance cameras and pat downs at certain Chicago schools Along with police procedures like stop and frisk these prison like practices lead to distrust of authority and feelings of powerlessness among the adolescents who experience mistreatment either firsthand or vicariously Shedd finds that the racial composition of the student body profoundly shapes students perceptions of injustice The more diverse a school is the more likely its students of color will recognize whether they are subject to discriminatory treatment By contrast African American and Hispanic youth whose schools and neighborhoods are both highly segregated and highly policed are less likely to understand their individual and group disadvantage due to their lack of exposure to youth of differing backgrounds
