A Communication Universe Igor E. Klyukanov, 2010-09-02 A Communication Universe Manifestations of Meaning Stagings of Significance presents a new theoretical understanding of communication Igor E Klyukanov conceptualizes the process of communication in terms of space and time i e as a continuous process of meaningful spatiotemporal transformation He goes on to examine four fundamental transformations and the four theoretical perspectives on the nature of communication From the first perspective communication appears to be pure space then time comes into play more and more actively and from the fourth perspective communication appears to be pure time Following the fourth transformation communication is seen as returning back to the first stage where it again appears as pure space however now its reality contains all meanings created in the process of the previous transformations Based on these four transformations the process of communication is understood as a universe meaning whole entire turned into one

Public Relations As Relationship Management John A. Ledingham, Stephen D. Bruning, 2000 The emergence of relationship management as a paradigm for public relations scholarship and practice requires a close examination of just what is achieved by public relations its definition function and value and the benefits it generates Initiated by the editors interest in cross disciplinary exploration this volume evolved to its current form as a result of the need for a framework for understanding public relations and the potential impact of organization public relationships on the study practice and teaching of public relations Ledingham and Bruning include contributions that present state of the art research in relationship management applications of the relational perspective to various components of public relations and the implications of the approach to influence further research and practice The discussion conducted here is certain to influence and promote future theory and practice on the concept of relationship management      Communication Theories in
