Rudolf Steiner's Gift to Education, the Waldorf Schools Francis Edmunds, 1975-01-01 Education as a Force for Social Change Rudolf Steiner, 1997-07 These dazzling radical lectures were given one month before the opening of the first Waldorf School following two years of intense preoccupation with the social situation in Germany as World War I ended and society sought to rebuild itself Well aware of the dangerous tendencies present in modern culture that undermine a true social life such as psychic torpor and boredom universal mechanization and a growing cynicism Steiner recognized that any solution must address not only economic and legal issues but also that of a free spiritual life Steiner also saw the need to properly nurture in children the virtues of imitation reverence and love at the appropriate stages of development in order to create mature adults who are inwardly prepared to fulfill the demands of a truly healthy society adults who are able to assume the responsibilities of freedom equality and brotherhood Relating these themes to an understanding of the human as a threefold being of thought feeling and volition and against the background of historical forces at work in human consciousness Steiner lays the ground for a profound revolution in the ways we think about education Also included here are three lectures on the social basis of education a lecture to public school teachers and a lecture to the workers of the Waldorf Astoria Cigarette Company after which they asked him to form a school for their children German sources Die Erziehungsfrage als soziale Frage GA 296 lectures 4 5 and 6 the Volkspädagogik lectures in Geisteswissenschaftliche Behandlung sozialer und pädagogischer Fragen GA 192 lectures 2 and 11 Neugestaltung des sozialen Organismus GA 330 331

Practical Advice to Teachers Rudolf Steiner, 2000-06 A seer sees more than meets the eye using the eyes of the soul along with the physical eyes As all seeing is a form of cognition higher seeing is the key to higher cognition or knowing For human beings the spiritual world is hidden deep within the disguise of the world available to the senses and deep within the human psyche and human consciousness enmeshed as it usually is in the physical senses cannot easily be aware of both worlds The human soul is the link between the physical sense imbued body and direct experience of the spirit because it has the latent ability to focus consciousness into any number of levels The ability to determine the focus of awareness is our great gift and our great challenge In this practical and accessible guidebook Dennis Klocek building on the alchemical tradition and the Western path of initiation developed by Rudolf Steiner shows how the soul's latent ability can be awakened by conscious acts of will and rhythmical practices The practices begin wherever we are in our everyday lives and take the seeker through the levels of concentration the ability to create and hold an inner image contemplation the ability to transform the image and make it dynamic and meditation the ability to reverse the image or think it backward into inner silence After presenting the practical exercises along with commentary that identify and lay out the steps Klocek shows us how the path can be followed through to an understanding of a seemingly impenetrable alchemical image of the soul's journey as he guides us up the Alchemical Mountain to heartfelt thinking Through such a journey it becomes possible for human beings to live as spiritual beings among other spiritual beings For those who are serious about developing faculties of higher knowing and seeing The Seer's Handbook is a unique practical and friendly handbook of exercises meditations and insightful commentary that will guide both beginners and more advanced students along the path to higher worlds

Human Values in Education Rudolf Steiner, 1971 The underlying thesis of these lectures volume XX in the Foundations of Waldorf Education series is that true education must be based on knowledge of the whole human being and that such knowledge cannot be attained without love On this basis Steiner presents his understanding of every aspect of child development bodily psychological and spiritual At the same time he shows that to prove worthy of their calling teachers must begin a process of inner development In Steiner's view it is human beings who give value and meaning to the world Modern education however is gradually undermining this meaning These lectures demonstrate that education can heal that lack of meaning and restore the meaning of humankind for the world Steiner also discusses the practical day to day operation of the school He talks about styles of teaching teacher conferences parent teacher meetings and how Waldorf education is related to the anthroposophic movement This book while serving as a good introduction to Steiner's ideas on education also represents the fruits of four years experience in the Waldorf school

The Education of the Child Rudolf Steiner, 1996-05 18 lectures in Dornach January 9 February 22 1920 CW 196 In the vast range of Rudolf Steiner's lectures jewels of all kinds lie hidden in plain sight awaiting only our discovery of them Such lectures contain a kind of wisdom not found anywhere else And sometimes as in What Is Necessary in These Urgent Times they also have a translucency and conviction that makes them transformational In early 1920 political economic social and spiritual chaos was everywhere The old world had fallen apart and would need to be rebuilt Anthroposophy too had to be remade Recognizing this Rudolf Steiner tirelessly working for the threefold social order establishing the first Waldorf school helping to create businesses and addressing the talented educated and idealistic young people who were beginning to turn toward Anthroposophy for answers In these lectures Steiner speaks in the new direct Michaelic way seeking the path to a new way of doing Anthroposophy Throughout the critical situation of the time he never lost his sense of humor or his compassion and equilibrium His tone is warm relaxed and intimate Rather than following a strictly predetermined path he speaks directly from the heart about what concerned him He stresses that the task of spiritual science is to awaken us to reality and to a true understanding of life that sees through illusions and understands the ever present potential of evil Speaking both esoterically and exoterically he returns repeatedly to the importance of community of meeting one another face to face heart to heart as individuals Thus rather than seeking power and control we are called to cultivate trust and receptivity This takes a spiritual transformation We must learn to live this present life in the context of our greater spiritual life which extends from before birth through earthly life and into the life after death that precedes our next birth At the same time we must come to know the Christ who is to be met only in community Selfishness egotism has no part in the new way When someone is alone Christ is not there You cannot find Christ without first feeling a connection to humanity as a whole You must seek Christ on the path that connects you with all humankind To be connected only with your own inner experiences leads you away from Christ Steiner deals with many other important themes as well including imperialism the initiate behind Shakespeare Bacon and James I makers of our modern age and well as fascinating initiatory remarks on reincarnation esoteric physiology and psychology Running throughout the talks is the earnest admonition to be true to the spirit and the call to come to our senses and not fall prey to self pity Now as it was then the world needs us to be awake spiritually and we need the world to be awake spiritually There is nowhere to hide What Is Necessary in These Urgent Times is a translation from German of Geistige und soziale Wandlungen in der Menschheitsentwicklung GA 196 Rudolf Steiner, Life and Work Peter Selg, 2014 It makes no sense to stop where Goethe stood Yet we cannot progress unless we absorb Goethe deeply and allow ourselves to be wholly inspired by the impulses he brought into the world This cannot be achieved as quickly as people today would like this to happen There is nothing for it anyone who was careless enough to live at the end of the nineteenth century must bear it Rudolf Steiner July 18 1891 The first chapter of this volume looks at Rudolf Steiner's years in Weimar beginning with his work at the Goethe Archives editing Goethe's scientific works It was in this capacity that Steiner was able to comprehend the great spiritual depth of Goethe's life and work which became the foundation for his own lifework This chapter also looks at his social circles and the writing and publication of his works Truth and Knowledge CW 3 and The Philosophy of Freedom CW 4 It also highlights his encounter with the work of Friedrich Nietzsche his visits to the Nietzsche Archives in Naumburg and the writing of his book Friedrich Nietzsche Fighter for Freedom CW 5 Rudolf Steiner's time in Weimar comes to a close with the creation of his second book on Goethe Goethe's World View CW 6 a fruit of his work at the Archives The second chapter focuses on Rudolf Steiner's time in Berlin where he worked as editor of a cultural periodical Magazin für Literatur and accepted a position as lecturer at the Workers School There he was able to grow into his capacity as a teacher and where although he encountered many ideological challenges his insight into historical development found wide appreciation among students The third chapter covers the turn of the century and Rudolf Steiner's inner transition to speaking and writing more openly of his esoteric observations on the evolution of consciousness the I and the training of cognition His decisive 1899 essay Individualism in Philosophy marked this impulse followed by invitations to lecture freely before the Theosophical Society where Rudolf Steiner presented the esoteric nature of Goethe's fairy tale and the content of what later became his own books Mystics after Modernism CW 7 and Christianity as Mystical Fact and the Mysteries of Antiquity CW 8 Rudolf Steiner Life and Work volume 2 is a translation from German of chapters 4 and 5 of Rudolf Steiner 1861 1925 Lebens und Werkgeschichte Band 1 1861 1914 Ita Wegman Institut 2012

Rudolf Steiner Colin Wilson, 2019-02-21 Of all the important thinkers of the twentieth century Rudolf Steiner 1861 1925 is perhaps the most difficult to come to grips with For the unprepared reader his work presents a series of formidable obstacles from the dauntingly abstract style to the often bizarre pronouncements on the nature of man and his cosmic destiny And yet Steiner was perhaps the most influential and charismatic occult philosopher of his generation and the movement he launched Anthroposophy with its educational agricultural and artistic applications still has many thousands of followers worldwide No one interested in esoteric thought can ignore Steiner but until now there has been no genuinely accessible introduction to his ideas This lucid and sympathetic account describes Steiner's development from shy scholar to the international figurehead of Anthroposophy his break with Madam Blavatsky's Theosophy his struggles to find a voice and the essence of his insights into the supersensible world

Rhythms of Learning Rudolf Steiner, 1998 Key lectures on children and education have been thoughtfully chosen from the vast amount of material by Steiner and presented in a context that makes them approachable and accessible In his many discussions and lectures Steiner shared his vision of an education that considers the spirit soul and physiology in children as they grow

What Is Anthroposophy? Rudolf Steiner, 2002-06 My life changed dramatically drastically and irrevocably on November 17 2005 That was my death day and re birthday The external event was surgical removal of a glioblastoma multiforme tumor phase iv from the left occipital parietal lobe of my cranium Though I was unconscious during surgery what I experienced was transcendent like being turned inside out and hovering in timelessness between this world and the life after life and returning to here and now changed forever What sounds like a cliché describes literally what I felt from the foreword This generous courageous and wise book offers a selfless glimpse behind the curtain of a journey with cancer from shock to inner rebirth and the gradual discovery of light in the darkness William Ward has written a personal account of his life following a fateful diagnosis of a brain tumor glioblastoma multiforme Phase IV cancer With no trace of self pity and rising above sentimentality he describes the landscape of his outer path through hospitals surgeons pain powerful drugs and the support of family friends and community At the same time with fearless honesty he invites the reader to accompany him on the inner path of inevitable regrets self examination fears and hopes in the face of a potentially terminal illness Until it happens to us we can never know for sure how we would respond as individuals to a catastrophic event in our lives but by telling the most personal of all stories William Ward shows us a way forward that goes well beyond our personal differences With compassion and humor Ward bears witness to the presence of living light in the darkest of human experiences demonstrating how if we face it the Dark Night of the Soul necessarily leads to awaking in the light of a new dawn Fierce hope shines through the final words of Traveling Light As we part here at the edge of Death Valley I feel like an old prospector handing over a weather stained chart You take this map sonny Where I'm goin I won't be needin it no more But while you're here on the earthly plane I want you to know there is water the water of life deep down right here Yonder atop Solomon's knob is the Mother Lode pay dirt pure gold the sun's tears The way up is steep Just keep putting one foot in front of the other Up on top you can see forever Goodbye God bless and good luck
