Rudolf Writings From An Undound Europe

Robert Elsie

Rudolf Writings From An Undound Europe:

Rudolf Marian Pankowski, 1996 This novel set in the 1970s tells the story of the author a middle aged Polish professor who lives abroad but who earlier survived the Nazi concentration camps and Rudolf an old man In the 1930s Rudolf the son of Germans living in Poland rebelled against the expectations of both his parents and Polish society by leading an openly gay life in Paris Rudolf and the author meet by chance in Brussels and the novel unfolds as Rudolf attempts to convince the author and himself that his choices were good ones that his life and the memories he has of it were worth whatever he gave up for them

Tsing David Albahari, 1997 Much more than an ordinary postmodern text Tsing is a quiet and moving paean to the narrator's deceased father Beginning with a series of imagined vignettes involving a father and a daughter Albahari weaves both real and imagined narrative fragments together with considerable skill

Border State Emil Tode, 2000-05 At home in neither his native land nor his adopted country the unnamed narrator writes from a border state that transcends national boundaries his letter this novel is a precise description of that state of a consciousness forged by poverty and oppression Driven by the need to confess the narrator recounts the circumstances surrounding his murder of his wealth lover His confession serves as a painfully sharp rendering of what it means to straddle the lines between East and West rich and poor and light and dark From publisher description

Peltse Volodymyr Dibrova, 1996 Two novellas in which a Ukrainian writer tells how the Soviet system was sustained by individuals who never truly chose to support it but simply lacked the courage to oppose it Peltse portrays the formation of an average apparatchik Pentameron is on five scientists dreaming of escape but incapable of action

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2000

Mocking Desire Drago Jančar, 1998 A novel on New Orleans through the eyes of Gregor Gradnik a visiting Slovenian professor of creative writing at a university He leads a split life respectable academic during the day bar crawler at night

Library Journal, 1996

Tworki Marek Bińczyk, 2008-02-27 In Tworki a village just southwest of Warsaw there is a psychiatric hospital and in that hospital the patients and their caretakers are hidden from the war just outside their iron gates Our hero Jurek answers an ad in the paper for a job there and finds himself keeping the books alongside a knockout strawberry blonde named Sonia They and their group of friends vital young people like Marcel an initial rival for Jurek Olek Sonia's chosen love and Janka with whom Jurek becomes involved do their jobs picnic on the weekends and dance in the gardens on the grounds of the hospital Jurek speaks often of and even in verse whether he is talking to his friends or in letters to a distant and admiring cousin He and his friends live lives that defy the discord and destruction of the war in Europe striving to rediscover or save whatever beauty they can Much of this beauty is embodied by Sonia who is beloved of all the friends and patients at the asylum But the revitalizing spring they all hope will come for Poland is not to arrive this year Despite the relative safety of their odd surroundings the world and the war soon come for the friends Olek's absences are longer and unexplained Marcel is not what he seems and he and his wife mysteriously disappear she says to the gas And the perfection that Sonia embodies cannot ultimately be kept by the friends by the nation or even by Sonia herself Historical Dictionary of Kosovo Robert Elsie,2010-11-15 This second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Kosovo relates the history of Kosovo through a chronology an introductory essay an extensive bibliography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on significant persons places and events institutions and organizations and political economic social cultural and religious facets This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Kosovo Historical Dictionary of Albania Robert Elsie,2010 Albania is not well known by outsiders it was deliberately closed to the outside world during the communist era Now it has thankfully become free again its borders are open and it can be visited and it is increasingly integrating with the rest of Europe and beyond Unfortunately Albania has had its share of problems in the post communist era it s a land of destitution and despair thanks in part to the Albanian mafia which has turned the country into one of blood feuds kalashnikovs and eternal crises Yet Albania is in essence a European nation like any other Materada Fulvio Tomizza,Russell Scott Valentino,2000 Francesco Koslovic even his name straddles two cultures And during the spring of 1955 in the village of Materada on the Istrian Peninsula his two worlds are coming apart Materada the first volume of Fulvio Tomizza s celebrated Istrian Trilogy depicts the Istrian exodus of the hundreds of thousands who had once thrived in a rich ethnic mixture of Italians and Slavs Complicating Koslovic s own departure is his attempt to keep the land that he and his brother have worked all their lives A picture of a disappearing way of life a tale of feud and displacement and imbued with the tastes tales and songs of his native Istria Koslovic s story is a testament to the intertwined ethnic roots of Balkan history The Silk, the Shears and Marina; Or, About Biography Irena Vrkljan,1999-02-17 Winner of the Ksaver andor Gjalski Prize These are the first two volumes of the Croatian poet and novelist Irena Vrkljan s lyrical autobiography Although each novel illuminates the other they also stand alone as original and independent works of art In The Silk the Shears Vrkljan traces the symbolic and moral significance of her life and her vision of the fate of women in her mother s time and in her own Marina continues the intense analysis of the poetic self using the life of Marina Tsvetaeva to meditate on the processes behind biography Time Gifts Zoran Zivkovic,2000-08-22 Zoran Zivkovic weaves four mysterious encounters around philosophical questions at the core of human existence Provocative and original Time Gifts is a meditation on the nature of time and especially on the nature of those at its mercy The Fortress Meša Selimović,1999 The Fortress is one of the most significant and fascinating novels to come out of the former Yugoslavia Ahmet Shabo returns home to eighteenth century Sarajevo from the war in Russia numbed by the death in battle or suicide of nearly his entire military unit In time he overcomes the anguish of war only to find that he has emerged a reflective and contemplative man in a society that does not value and will not tolerate the subversive implications of these qualities 1993 Patt Leonard,Rebecca Routh,1996 Journal articles books book chapters book reviews dissertations and selected government publications on East Central Europe and the former Soviet Union published in the United States and Canada City of Ash Eugenijus Ališanka,2000 Although the title of this sensitive collection refers to Vilnius the capital of Lithuania City of Ash serves as a universal geography of the contemporary soul in an urban context Through his poetry Eugenijus Alisanka searches for personal and historical meaning within the framework of time recognizing both the demands of the self and the impossibility of avoiding what came before whether human or cultural

Home and the World in Slovak Writing Katarina Gephardt, Charles Sabatos, Ivana Taranenková, 2025-03-04 Literatures of small nations represent a minuscule portion of the global literary marketplace where books written in English outnumber translated works The struggle for visibility in relation to dominant languages and cultures is not new in Slovakia a nation of five million whose literary history has been shaped by the influence of more widely spoken languages including Hungarian Czech and Russian Home and the World in Slovak Writing brings Slovak literature out of this isolation to tell the story of how a nation's literature can survive and thrive despite a small domestic audience and relatively limited circulation in English translation The book demonstrates how historic events such as the post Stalin Thaw the Prague Spring and the Velvet Revolution moulded the Slovak canon and situates contemporary Slovak literature in broader regional and global contexts Through case studies of the transformations and adaptations of Slovak literature contributors examine the changing social roles of writers the tensions between tradition and innovation and the dynamic interactions between influences from the outside world and domestic sources of inspiration Home and the World in Slovak Writing maps the relationship between geopolitical destiny and literary production at a critical moment As relations between the East and the West are destabilized by war the question of cultural identity has again become a matter of national survival in Central Europe

The American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies Patt Leonard, Rebecca Routh, 1996 Journal articles books book chapters book reviews dissertations and selected government publications on East Central Europe and the former Soviet Union published in the United States and Canada

The Loss Владимир Маканин, 1998 A collection of stories by a Russian writer one of which is on a relationship between a prisoner of war and his captor while another looks at the way one man's fortune can become another man's misfortune

A Bohemian Youth Josef Hiršal, 1997 The story of a peasant family in 1930s Bohemia Czechoslovakia through the eyes of a village youth A portrait of country life offering details on such subjects as the manners of a Slovak servant girl and the way people eat in wartime
