Marek, 2021-12-12 Muzio was a case apart you cannot classify her for in the end you have been so emotionally destroyed by her performance you did not even know anymore what kind of instrument she had So spoke Lucrezia Bori the beloved soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Bori was echoing the opinion of many of Claudia Muzio's contemporaries and successors such as Eva Turner Rosa Ponselle and Mafalda Favero who wrote Actually she Favero admitted with her total candor it took me a long time to find my own interpretation La traviata for I was

haunted by Claudia Muzio in this role When she sang it at the Colon in Buenos Aires in 1933 I went to each rehearsal worshipping her and it took a superhuman effort for me to finally obtain my personal approach I recall a performance of Muzio's in Refice's Cecilia an opera she created in Rome in 1934 which deals with the saint's martyrdom She was so sublime in it that I went backstage to express my admiration at the end and impulsively dropped to my knees Now really my child she said with those sad eyes which haunted me What are you doing Her Norma was also an unforgettable creation She had the quality I consider so essential in an artist to make the public suffer along with her Sometimes we hear artists described as She was born a hundred years too late but Claudia Muzio was born too soon She was a great singing actress whose stage portrayals produced the hysterical kinds of responses cited above Most reviews mention her stage work first not failing to praise her singing It is from her late recordings from 1934-35 when she was ill that she is remembered today Muzio had a distinctive vocal timbre and an unparalleled command of dynamics and phrasing that once heard is never forgotten Indeed she was called La Unica in South America where she was the Teatro Colón's brightest star for fifteen years Muzio made her debut as the first Italian Tosca at the Metropolitan Opera in 1916 at the age of 26 with Enrico Caruso and Antonio Scotti She went on to sing with all the great artists of her time in a world wide career of over twenty five years Claudia Muzio sang over a thousand performances of major dramatic operatic repertory including 131 Aidas 146 Traviatas 81 Trovatores and 129 Toscas This figure does not include concerts and by all accounts Claudia Muzio was also a great recitalist Lina Cavalieri Paul Fryer, Olga Usova, 2014-12-24 A prominent star in both pre Revolutionary Russia and New York Lina Cavalieri described as the most beautiful woman in the world was one of the most frequently photographed personalities of her time The cabaret performer courtesan and international star is documented in this her first English language biography Researched from Russian archive sources the book details her career from her early experiences in cafe chantant and variety theatre in Paris London and St Petersburg through a highly successful operatic career in which she sang in many of the world's leading opera houses with such celebrities as Caruso and Ruffo In 1914 Cavalieri became the first great opera singer to appear in silent movies making her debut in Manon Lescaut and continuing with a series of successful films Her life was ended by an Allied air raid in World War II The book includes excerpts from period reviews programmes posters and many previously unseen photographs Appendices include a bibliography filmography discography and chronology of stage performances dates venues work cast conductor Music, Longing and Belonging Magdalena Waligórska-Huhle, 2014-10-16 With contributions from musicologists historians sociologists anthropologists and literary scholars this book provides an interdisciplinary perspective on how different modes of musical sociability ranging from opera performances to collective singing and internet fan communities inspire imagined communities that not only transcend national borders but also challenge the boundaries between the self and the other While the relationship between music and nationhood has been widely r ARSC Journal, 1997 The Record Collector James F.
