Rugby Remembered Rugby Advertiser, Rugby Advertiser Staff, 2005      Rugby's Greatest Characters John Griffiths, 2014-03-20 There's an old joke about rugby players and oddballs. However, there certainly have been quite a few of them playing rugby in the history of the game. And not just oddballs, there's been pitbulls, quiet men, iron men, and unsung heroes. And you can meet them all in this quirky collection of the famous and infamous of the game. Characters include Wilfred Wooller who playing in the 30s was described as a juggernaut leaving a trail of prostrate figures in his wake. Then there was Gordon Brown, not the PM known as Broonie, but also as the baby-faced assassin when he first entered the Scottish team in 1696. Right up to Sir Clive Woodward who transformed the England side from amateur to professional, a man who knew his own mind but didn't seem to sure about anyone else's. Using extensive research, author John Griffiths wins bonus points for a funny, fascinating, remarkable collection of the good, the bad, and the ugly of the scrums, forwards, fly halves, flankers, and dummy passers. A great gift book for all rugby fans. John Griffiths is the author of six books on rugby and for many years co-edited Rothmans Rugby Yearbook and the IRB's Rugby Yearbook.      Lectures, Discussions, and Proceedings ... American Institute of Instruction. Meeting, 1904      London Midland Steam Days Remembered Kevin Derrick, 2017-03-15 A nostalgic look back at the days of steam in the London Midland Region.      The Intuitive Farmer: Inspiring Management Success Peter Nuthall, 2016-01-06 Successful farm management is based upon excellent decision making by the farm owner. In practice, most decisions are made intuitively rather than the result of careful data collection and analysis or analysing others' views and associated factors. Thus, the farmer's intuitive decisions have a major impact on the business practices, efficiency, profitability, and success of the farm. In the form of a character-driven novel, the author guides the reader through a series of lessons for farmers to improve their intuitive decision making. The story follows Ben, a New Zealand farmer, as an important member of a discussion group. The experimental programme is set up by a management researcher, Tom, to explore the best way to improve farmers' intuition. The farmer group has different characters in different situations, each one of which leads to interesting dilemmas and lessons. Each chapter addresses a different issue affecting farmers, such as risk management, benchmarking, budgeting and planning, negotiation skills, active listening, and farm ownership. By the end of the novel, the reader will have absorbed important farm management principles and practices through the activities and findings of the group. The Intuitive Farmer follows on from successful business management books such as The Goal, which communicate business ideas and strategies in novel form. This is the first such book applied to agricultural management practices, providing a dependable source for farmers, agricultural and farm management students, and people involved in agriculture industries. 5m Books.      Bred of Heaven Jasper Rees, 2011-08-04 Jasper Rees has always wanted to be Welsh. But despite Welsh grandparents and a Welsh surname, he is an Englishman by birth, upbringing, and temperament. In this singular, hilarious love letter to a glorious country so often misunderstood, Rees sets out to achieve his goal of becoming a

Welshman by learning to sing play work worship think and above all speak like one On the way he meets monks tenors and politicians and tries his hand at rugby and lambing all the while weaving together his personal story with Wales's rich history Culminating in a nail biting test of Rees's Welsh speaking skill at the National Eisteddfod this exuberant journey of self discovery celebrates the importance of national identity and the joy of belonging Roy Francis Tony Collins,2025-06-05

The remarkable story of one man's struggle to overcome racism and revolutionise rugby coaching In the 1950s and 1960s one man dominated rugby coaching like no other Roy Francis He led teams to championships and Wembley finals revolutionised the art of coaching and inspired his players to incredible achievements But even more amazingly for those times he was a Black man in a white world As the illegitimate child of a mixed race couple who gave him up for adoption his story recounts his upbringing in a Black family living in the Welsh coalfields a childhood shaped by memories of the 1919 Welsh race riots and foremost his gift for rugby Aged just seventeen Roy played for Wigan and despite facing racism became the first Black player to play for Great Britain in either rugby codes Roy Francis became Hull rugby league club coach in 1951 where he introduced video analysis sports psychology and personalised training revolutionary methods which turned a mediocre team into championship winners His crowning glory came when his Leeds team triumphed in the famous 1968 Watersplash Wembley Cup Final before he headed Down Under as North Sydney Bears club coach Through archives family members accounts and former players memories Roy Francis tells the story of a family's journey from slavery to sporting success and of a remarkable man who defied prejudice to reach the pinnacle of rugby as a player coach and leader Rugby Remembered David Parry-Jones,1988-01-01

Dragons and All Blacks Huw Richards,2012-04-20 The Bounce of the Century they called it A ball kicked across Cardiff Arms Park in the dying minutes of a match between two of international rugby s fiercest rivals The world s two greatest wingers waited as it bounced towards them knowing that whoever caught the ball would score and win the match for his country Dragons and All Blacks tells what happened when Wales played New Zealand in 1953 The story is written from contemporary accounts and the memories of the men who played that day including Bob Stuart and Bleddyn Williams for many of whom the match was the highlight of a career The book retells the stories of the two teams and the men who played for them and charts the events of their lives how they got to that meeting point in Cardiff in December 1953 and what has happened to them in the half century since Dragons and All Blacks examines the remarkable relationship between two countries on opposite sides of the world brought together by a mutual passion for rugby with few parallels elsewhere It shows how their rivalry has developed over a century from perhaps the greatest of all rugby matches in 1905 to the single point thriller of 2004 and looks to its future in the aftermath of the 2005 Welsh Grand Slam and Lions tour of New Zealand

Trying to Remember, Forced to Forget Judy Raphael Kletter,2001-03-12 Dear Reader I have spent the past 52 years forgetting and remembering one small part of one day of my life that has affected me for my entire life Memories are tucked away asleep in your mind waiting for some outside stimuli to awaken them But what happens to a memory when you have been told over and over it was just a bad dream yet you really really know it was not What happens to your mind what happens to your life What happens when the memory does awake and surfaces for a brief time and then returns to sleep waiting for the next stimuli My story my life my thoughts my insights are revealed in my book my autobiography The day was January 19 1948 the time was very early morning I was four years old I got out of bed to go to the bathroom and discovered my father s body hanging from a rope tied to a pipe over the toilet He had committed suicide I remember this very vividly even though my mother tried to convince me for the rest of my life that I never saw what happened My mother even went so far as to make imaginary visits to the hospital every week for five months bringing me a present each time and telling me it was from my father How could this have been he was dead I saw him hanging My mother was protecting me and protecting herself from a tragedy she only could deal with by denying its very existence And by doing so denying me the opportunity to grieve and put the tragedy behind me My young mind could not cope with this confusion so my response was hostility towards my mother hostility that must have been so intense my mother s only recourse was to have me institutionalized Most of my past tragedy has been asleep except for brief periods when my daughters each turned four years old and when I turned 43 the age my father ended his life When my mother died at age 88 the trauma once again awakened within me and this time I had this inner energy to discover all that I had either forgotten repressed did not know and or did not understand Please join me on my emotional journey to rediscover my past including the agonizing return to where I was institutionalized realizing and facing the fact that even after all these years I am a survivor of suicide and I have all the scars that go along with it I have been driven to tell my story a story I never shared with anybody until now The telling all began with my daughters Elisa and Jenny age 26 and 24 they never knew how their grandfather died I had never told them for fear that they would consider suicide in a moment of despair The only way I felt comfortable telling my story was through the written word Well the words just kept coming and coming and soon I had a book I still don't know where the energy came from but it did I like to think that my mother was guiding me Looking for answers about suicide I became involved with the American Association of Suicidology They encouraged me to tell my story at their annual conference in Los Angeles It was a very emotional experience but I learned and so did the psychologists psychiatrists and other survivors it was an eye opener few days Most importantly this book is dedicated to my mother whose love courage and strength even with her unnecessary denial and repression had conquered all I know my autobiography will be as rewarding a journey for you as it finally has been for me The American Association of Suicidology Publications Committee has placed my book on their recommended reading list Judy Raphael Kletter      New Directions in Sport History Duncan Stone, John Hughson, Rob Ellis, 2017-10-02 Emerging from the history from below movement sport history was marginalised for decades by those working within more traditional historical fields and institutions Although a degree of ignorance still exists sport history has now acquired a level of credibility through the dedicated work of professional historians And yet as this authority has been established changes to UK higher education funding the removal of direct state funding the Research Excellence Framework and tuition fees and academic publishing open access have the potential to damage or even end sports research This book examines sport history from a variety of perspectives Do mainstream historians need to engage or play with sports historians Has the postmodernist cultural turn in sports history been helpful to the sub discipline How can the teaching of sports studies be more innovative and inspiring How can oral history and sport history be utilised in the study of other branches of historical interest Although changes are required in dealing with the current political reality of UK higher education sport history still has a great deal to offer students future employers and the public alike This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport      The Fountain of Hope Douglas R.
