The Carpet Wars Christopher Kremmer, 2002 In 1990 Christopher Kremmer arrived in Afghanistan to interview the doomed communist president Dr Najibullah as rampaging factions of mujahideen massed on the outskirts of Kabul He found himself intrigued by the politics and culture of the land and his book provides revealing often first hand portraits of warlords such as Ahmad Shah Masood the Lion of Panjsher of Iraqi President Saddam Hussein and of Pakistan's President General Pervez Musharraf The real stories of the lands of the ancient silk route however are accessed through Kremmer's obsession with the carpets of the region

History of civilizations of Central Asia Adle, Chahryar, Baipakov, Karl M., Habib, Irfan, UNESCO, 2003-12-31 The period treated in this volume is highlighted by the slow retreat of nomadism and the progressive increase of sedentary polities owing to a fundamental change in military technology Furthermore this period certainly saw a growing contrast in the pace of economic and cultural progress between Central Asia and Europe The internal growth of the European economies and the influx of silver from the New World gave Atlantic Europe an increasingly important position in world trade and caused a major shift in inland Asian trade Thus 1850 marks the end of the total sway of pre modern culture as the extension of colonial dominance was accompanied by the influx of modern ideas
