Ruin Revived:

Building the Buddhist Revival Gregory Adam Scott, 2020-02-28 Between 1850 and 1966 tens of thousands of Buddhist sacred sites in China were destroyed victims of targeted destruction accidental damage or simply neglect During the same period however many of these sites were reconstructed a process that involved both rebuilding material structures and reviving religious communities The conventionally accepted narrative of Chinese Buddhism during the modern era is that it underwent a revival initiated by innovative monastics and laypersons leaders who reinvented Buddhist traditions to meet the challenges of modernity Gregory Adam Scott shows however that over time it became increasingly difficult for reconstruction leaders to resist the interests of state actors who sought to refashion monastery sites as cultural monuments rather than as living religious communities These sites were then intended to serve as symbols of Chinese history and cultural heritage while their function as a frame for religious life was increasingly pushed aside As a result the power to determine whether and how a monastery would be reconstructed and the types of activities that would be reinstated or newly introduced began to shift from religious leaders and communities to state agencies that had a radically different set of motivations and values Building the Buddhist Revival explores the history of Chinese Buddhist monastery reconstruction from the end of the Imperial period through the first seventeen years of the People's Republic Over this century of history the nature and significance of reconstructing Buddhist monasteries changes drastically mirroring broader changes in Chinese society Yet this book argues that change has always been in the nature of religious communities such as Buddhist monasteries and that reconstruction rather than a return to the past represents innovative and adaptive change In this way it helps us understand the broader significance of the Buddhist revival in China during this era as a creative reconstruction of religion upon longstanding foundations

Revival: A Last Vintage (1950) George Edward Bateman Saintsbury, 2018-05-08 The Editors of the Saintsbury Memorial Volume have been encouraged by the welcome which that book received to make a final gathering of George Saintsbury's writings From a score of different sources they have chosen essays and papers that have lain uncollected with their themes ranging from Captain Marryat to Erasmus

from Rosetti to Xenophon from Swinburne to Balzac's early pot boilers Included is an entrancing study of the literary associations of the city of Bath and the editors have followed Saintsbury's own example by collecting a Scrap Book more than thirty shorter notes and jeux d'esprit on all kinds of subjects wigs sensation novelists Drummond and Ben Jonson George Sand compulsory Greek at Oxford Shakespeare and Welsh Laurence Sterne tittle tattle Marcel Proust and much else in true Saintsburian vein The Present testimony, and original Christian witness revived, Realm of Unknowing Mark Rudman, 2012-01-01 Powerful meditations on the nature and limits of human understanding Our Actors and Actresses Charles Eyre Pascoe, 1880 Memories of the Future Siri Hustvedt, 2019-03-19 Longlisted for the 2020 Andrew Carnegie Medals for Excellence A provocative exuberant novel about time memory desire and the imagination from the internationally bestselling and prizewinning author of The Blazing World Memories of the Future tells the story of a young Midwestern woman's first year in New York City in the late 1970s and her obsession with her mysterious neighbor Lucy Brite As she listens to Lucy through the thin walls of her dilapidated building S H aka Minnesota transcribes her neighbor's bizarre and increasingly ominous monologues in a notebook along with sundry other adventures until one frightening night when Lucy bursts into her apartment on a rescue mission Forty years later S H now a veteran author discovers her old notebook as well as early drafts of a never completed novel while moving her aging mother from one facility to another Ingeniously juxtaposing the various texts S H measures what she remembers against what she wrote that year and has since forgotten to create a dialogue between selves across decades The encounter both collapses time and reframes its meanings in the present Elaborately structured intellectually rigorous urgently paced poignant and often wildly funny Memories of the Future brings together themes that have made Hustvedt among the most celebrated novelists working today the fallibility of memory gender mutability the violence of patriarchy the vagaries of perception the ambiguous borders between sensation and thought sanity and madness and our dependence on primal drives such as sex love hunger and rage The Persian Revival Talinn Grigor, 2021-07-08 One of the most heated scholarly controversies of the early twentieth century the Orient or Rome debate turned on whether art historians should trace the origin of all Western and especially Gothic architecture to Roman ingenuity or to the Indo Germanic Geist Focusing on the discourses around this debate Talinn Grigor considers the Persian Revival movement in light of imperial strategies of power and identity in British India and in Qajar Pahlavi Iran The Persian Revival examines Europe's discovery of ancient Iran first in literature and then in art history Tracing Western visual discourse about ancient Iran from 1699 on Grigor parses the invention and use of a revivalist architectural style from the Afsharid and Zand successors to the Safavid throne and the rise of the Parsi industrialists as cosmopolitan subjects of British India Drawing on a wide range of Persian revival narratives bound to architectural history Grigor foregrounds the complexities and magnitude of artistic appropriations of Western art history in order to grapple with colonial ambivalence and imperial aspirations She argues that while Western imperialism was instrumental in shaping high art as mercantile bourgeois ethos it was also a project that destabilized the hegemony of a Eurocentric historiography of taste An important reconsideration of the Persian Revival this book will be of vital interest to art and architectural historians and intellectual historians particularly those working in the areas of international modernism Iranian studies and historiography

Ruins Dora Apel, 2015-06-23 Once the manufacturing powerhouse of the nation Detroit has become emblematic of failing cities everywhere the paradigmatic city of ruins and the epicenter of an explosive growth in images of urban decay In Beautiful Terrible Ruins art historian Dora Apel explores a wide array of these images ranging from photography advertising and television to documentaries video games and zombie and disaster films Apel shows how Detroit has become pivotal to an expanding network of ruin imagery imagery ultimately driven by a pervasive and growing cultural pessimism a loss of faith in progress and a deepening fear that worse times are coming The images of Detroit's decay speak to the overarching anxieties of our era increasing poverty declining wages and social services inadequate health care unemployment homelessness and ecological disaster in short the failure of capitalism Apel reveals how through the aesthetic distancing of representation the haunted beauty and fascination of ruin imagery embodied by Detroit's abandoned downtown skyscrapers empty urban spaces decaying factories and derelict neighborhoods help us to cope with our fears But Apel warns that these images while pleasurable have little explanatory power lulling us into seeing Detroit's deterioration as either inevitable or the city's own fault and absolving the real agents of decline corporate disinvestment and globalization Beautiful Terrible Ruins helps us understand the ways that the pleasure and the horror of urban decay hold us in thrall Revival: Egyptian Antiquities in the Nile Valley (1932) James Baikie, 2018-03-29 This book is confined to offering a description of objects of Egyptian architecture and art in the larger sense though occasionally the importance of some exceptionally notable smaller specimen of art or craftsmanship may warrant its inclusion Babylon, Its Revival and Final Desolation Benjamin Wills Newton, 1859
