The Ndebele Nation Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2009

Under Postcolonial Eyes Gail Fincham, Myrtle Hooper, 1996

The British Empire Jane Samson, 2001-06-22 The phenomenon of imperialism has never been under such intense scrutiny by such a wide range of academic disciplines as it is today From cultural studies to the history of science academics are engaged in a series of debates about empire which move far beyond traditional preoccupations with metropolitan strategy economics and rivalry Using primary and secondary documentary sources this reader negotiates the many trends and concerns in recent debates to provide a broad based comparative history of the British Empire Selected readings are presented within a chronological framework from the origins of empire to decolonization and beyond Samson adopts a theme of identity to explore different perspectives through the sources including metropolitan colonial and indigenous responses General and section introductions explore such issues as the role of economics and religion in imperial expansion and rule how indigenous and Creole populations constructed and expressed their own identities and what changes were wrought by the process of decolonization Bringing together a wide range of documentary evidence this volume allows the varied and vital debates on aspects of imperialism and identity to be seen in the context of the broad history of the British Empire

Victorian Time T. Ferguson, 2013-01-17 Victorian Time examines how literature of the era registers the psychological impact of the onset of a modern industrialized experience of time as time saving technologies such as steam powered machinery aimed at making economic life more efficient signalling the dawn of a new age of accelerated time

Jungian Perspectives on Rebirth and Renewal Elizabeth Brodersen, Michael Glock, 2016-11-25 Jungian Perspectives on Rebirth and Renewal brings together an international selection of contributors on the themes of rebirth and renewal With their emphasis on evolutionary ancestral memories creation myths and dreams the chapters in this collection explore the indigenous and primordial bases of these concepts Presented in eight parts the book elucidates the importance of indirect associative mythological thinking within Jungian psychology and the efficacy of working with images as symbols to access unconscious creative processes Part I begins with a comparative study of the significance of the phoenix as symbol including its image as Jung's family crest Part II focuses on Native American indigenous beliefs about the transformative power of nature Part III examines synchronistic symbols as liminal place space where the relationship between the psyche and place enables a co evolution of the psyche of the land Part IV presents Jung's travels in India and the spiritual influence of Indian indigenous beliefs had on his work Part V expands on the rebirth of the feminine as a dynamic independent force Part VI analyses ancestral memories evoked by the phoenix image exploring archetypal narratives of infancy Part VII focuses on eco psychological synchronistic carriers of death rebirth and renewal through mythic characterisations Finally part VIII explores the mythopoetic visionary dimensions of rebirth and renewal that give literary expression to indigenous people primordial psyche re navigated through popular literature The chapters both mirror and synchronise a rebirth of Jungian and non Jungian academic interest in indigenous peoples creation myths oral traditions and narrative dialogue as the primordial psyche worldwide and the book includes one chapter supplemented by an online video This collection will be inspiring reading for academics and students of analytical psychology Jungian and post Jungian studies and mythology as well as analytical psychologists Jungian analysts and Jungian psychotherapists To access the online video which accompanies Evangeline Rand s chapter please request a password at http://www.evangelinerand.com/life_threads_orissa_awakenings.html

The Biographical Dictionary of Scottish Women Elizabeth Ewan,Sue Innes,Sian Reynolds,Rose Pipes,2006 This single volume dictionary presents the lives of individual Scottish women from earliest times to the present Drawing on new scholarship and a wide network of professional and amateur historians it will throw light on the experience of women from every class and category in Scotland and among the worldwide Scottish diaspora The Biographical Dictionary of Scottish Women is written for the general reading public and for students of Scottish history and society It is scholarly in its approach to evidence and engaging in the manner of its presentation Each entry seeks to make sense of its subject in narrative terms telling a story rather than simply offering information The editors aim to make the book as enjoyable to read as it will be easy and valuable to consult It will be a unique and important contribution to the history of women and Scotland The publisher acknowledges support from the Scottish Arts Council and the Scottish Executive Equalities Unit towards the publication of this title DownloadsYou can access a full list of women featured in the BDSW here www.eup.ed.ac.uk/BookDownloads/BDSW1.docDownload a full list of works by women featured in the BDSW here www.eup.ed.ac.uk/BookDownloads/BDSW2.docThe Dictionary suffered from space constraints and sadly not all women originally considered could be included for the full original list click here www.eup.ed.ac.uk/BookDownloads/BDSW3.doc

Ariel,2000 Paperbound Books in Print ,1991 Books in Print Supplement ,1988 The Routledge History of Literature in English Ronald Carter,John McRae,2001 This is a guide to the main developments in the history of British and Irish literature charting some of the main features of literary language development and highlighting key language topics

Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1989 Bread and Circuses Patrick Brantlinger,2016-11-01 Lively and well written Bread and Circuses analyzes theories that have treated mass culture as either a symptom or a cause of social decadence Discussing many of the most influential and representative theories of mass culture it ranges widely from Greek and Roman origins through Marx Nietzsche Freud Ortega y Gasset T S Eliot and the theorists of the Frankfurt Institute down to Marshall McLuhan and Daniel Bell Brantlinger considers the many versions of negative classicism and shows how the belief in the historical inevitability of social decay a belief today perpetuated by the mass media themselves has become the dominant view of mass culture in our time While not defending mass culture in its present form Brantlinger argues that the view of culture implicit in negative classicism obscures the question of how the media can best be used to help achieve freedom and enlightenment on a truly democratic basis Fictions of State Patrick Brantlinger,1996 The economic foundations of modern nation states involved national debt public credit and paper money Brantlinger traces the emergence of modern imperial Great Britain from those foundations He analyzes the process whereby nationalism both the cause and the result of wars and imperial expansion multiplied national debt and produced crises of public credit resolved only through more nationalism and war During the first half of the eighteenth century conservatives attacked public credit as fetishistic and characterized national debt as alchemical From the 1850s the stabilizing theories of public credit authored by David Hume Adam Smith Henry Thornton and others helped initiate the first social science economics Echoes of Empire Kalypso Nicolaïdis, Berny Sebe, Gabrielle Maas,2014-12-23 How does our colonial past echo through today's global politics How have former empire builders sought vindication or atonement and formerly colonized states reversal or retribution This groundbreaking book presents a panoramic view of attitudes to empires past and present seen not only through the hard politics of international power structures but also through the nuances of memory historiography and national and minority cultural identities Bringing together leading historians political scientists and international relations scholars from across the globe Echoes of Empire emphasizes Europe's colonial legacy whilst also highlighting the importance of non European power centres Ottoman Russian Chinese Japanese in shaping world politics then and now Echoes of Empire bridges the divide between disciplines to trace the global routes travelled by objects ideas and people and forms a radically different notion of the term empire itself This will be an essential companion to courses on international relations and imperial history as well as a fascinating read for anyone interested in Western hegemony North South relations global power shifts and the longue duree The Colonial Rise of the Novel Firdous Azim,2002-03-11 In this challenging book Firdous Azim provides a feminist critique of orthodox accounts of the rise of the novel and exposes the underlying orientalist assumptions of the early English novel Whereas previous studies have emphasized the universality of the coherent and consistent subject which found expression in the novels of the eighteenth century Azim demonstrates how certain categories women and people of colour were silenced and excluded The Colonial Rise of the Novel makes an important and provocative contribution to post colonial and feminist criticism It will be essential reading for all teachers and students of English literature women's studies and post colonial criticism Contemporary Gothic Catherine Spooner,2006 Spooner traces the emergence of the Gothic subculture over the past few decades and examines the various aspects of contemporary society that revolve around the grotesque abject and artificial Orientalism Edward W. Said,1995 Now reissued with a substantial new afterword this highly acclaimed overview of Western attitudes towards the East has become one of the canonical texts of cultural studies Very exciting his case is not merely persuasive but conclusive John Leonard in The New York Times His most important book

Orientalism established a new benchmark for discussion of the West's skewed view of the Arab and Islamic world Simon Louvish in the New Statesman Society Edward Said speaks for interdisciplinarity as well as for monumental erudition The breadth of reading is astonishing Fred Inglis in The Times Higher Education Supplement A stimulating elegant yet pugnacious essay Observer Exciting for anyone interested in the history and power of ideas J H Plumb in The New York Times Book Review Beautifully patterned and passionately argued Nicholas Richardson in the New Statesman Society

Empire Boys: Adventures in a Man's World Joseph Bristow, 2015-08-27 Originally published in 1991 Focusing on boys' own literature this book examines the reasons why such a distinct type of combative masculinity developed during the heyday of the British Empire This book reveals the motives that produced this obsessive focus on boyhood In Victorian Britain many kinds of writing from the popular juvenile weeklies to parliamentary reports celebrated boys of all classes as the heroes of their day Fighting fit morally upright and proudly patriotic these adventurous young men were set forth on imperial missions civilizing a savage world Such noble heroes included the strapping lads who brought an end to cannibalism on Ballantyne's Coral Island who came into their own in the highly respectable Boys Own Paper and who eventually grew up into the men of Haggard's romances advancing into the Dark Continent The author here demonstrates why these young heroes have enjoyed a lasting appeal to readers of children's classics by Stevenson Kipling and Henty among many others He shows why the political intent of many of these stories has been obscured by traditional literary criticism a form of criticism itself moulded by ideals of empire and Englishness Throughout imperial boyhood is related to wide ranging debates about culture literacy realism and romance This is a book of interest to students of literature social history and education
