Empires and Exchanges in Eurasian Late Antiquity Nicola Di Cosmo,Michael Maas,2018-04-26 Empires and Exchanges in Eurasian Late Antiquity offers an integrated picture of Rome China Iran and the Steppes during a formative period of world history In the half millennium between 250 and 750 CE settled empires underwent deep structural changes while various nomadic peoples of the steppes Huns Avars Turks and others experienced significant interactions and movements that changed their societies cultures and economies This was a transformational era a time when Roman Persian and Chinese monarchs were mutually aware of court practices and when Christians and Buddhists criss crossed the Eurasian lands together with merchants and armies It was a time of greater circulation of ideas as well as material goods This volume provides a conceptual frame for locating these developments in the same space and time Without arguing for uniformity it illuminates the interconnections and networks that tied countless local cultural expressions to far reaching inter regional ones

Reconceiving Reproductive Health: Theological and Christian Ethical Reflections Manitza Kotzé,Nadia Marais,Nina Müller van Velden,Nadine Bowers du Toit,Mwawi N. Chilongozi,Hanzline R. Davids,Gideon R. Kotzé,Tayla Minnaar,Peter Nagel,Selina Palm,Jeremy Punt,Riaan Rheeder,Tanya van Wyk,Fralene van Zyl,2019-12-12 While reproduction is fairly often touched upon in theological and Christian ethical discussions reproductive health is not However reproductive health is a matter of theological and ethical concern Discussion pertaining to reproductive health includes a number of debates about for instance abortion and the termination of pregnancy reproductive loss childlessness infertility stillbirth miscarriage and adoption Additionally new reproductive possibilities made available by the development of reproductive technology have necessitated theological and ethical reflection on for example surrogacy post menopausal pregnancies litter births single mothers or fathers by choice in vitro fertilisation and the so called saviour siblings These new developments compel us to reconceive our notions of what reproductive health is or should be Many of these topics are receiving increasing attention in a variety of theological

publications The focus of this volume is unique however and to the best of our knowledge this is the first volume dealing not only with reproductive issues but also reflecting theologically and ethically on reproductive health It makes a contribution by providing a variety of perspectives from different theological fields on this theme and in many chapters focussing especially on the South African context These discussions are also part of urgent debates within churches which require developing life giving theological language and imaginative theological alternatives that may speak to experiences of matters relating to reproductive health The popular books TV series and films that touch upon these discussions including The Handmaid s Tale and Mother strengthen the perception that a more in depth theological and ethical discussion on the theme may be necessary particularly towards exploring stories and confessions from our faith tradition that may provide us with a timely opportunity to do the important work of theological reconceiving
