Rules And Conventions Literature Philosophy Social Theory:

Rules and Conventions Mette Hjort, 1992 The essays in Rules and Conventions are of extremely high quality The concepts are central to aesthetics and the arts of interpretation moral and political philosophy philosophy of language and social theory Each contributor focuses intensely on the concepts of rules and conventions and provides original analyses of the concepts in relation to a variety of topics Cumulatively they provide systematic perspectives on the cross disciplinary importance of rules and conventions Douglas Kellner University of Texas at Austin Between Literature and Science Peter Swirski, 2000 In Between Literature and Science Peter Swirski examines the true intellectual scope of Edgar Allan Poe and Stanislaw Lem Using a genuinely interdisciplinary approach he shows that they propose far reaching hypotheses in aesthetics epistemology cognitive science philosophy of science literary studies and pragmatics as well as in cosmology artificial intelligence and futurology Swirski argues that previous studies of their science fiction works in neglecting these broader philosophical and scientific ambitions have misrepresented Poe and Lem's artistic achievements

Peirce, Signs, and Meaning Floyd Merrell, 1997-05-24 C S Peirce was the founder of pragmatism and a pioneer in the field of semiotics His work investigated the problem of meaning which is the core aspect of semiosis as well as a significant issue in many academic fields Floyd Merrell demonstrates throughout Peirce Signs and Meaning that Peirce's views remain dynamically relevant to the analysis of subsequent work in the philosophy of language Merrell discusses Peirce's thought in relation to that of early twentieth century philosophers such as Frege Russell and Quine and contemporaries such as Goodman Putnam Davidson and Rorty In doing so Merrell demonstrates how quests for meaning inevitably fall victim to vagueness in pursuit of generality and how vagueness manifests an inevitable tinge of inconsistency just as generalities always remain incomplete He suggests that vagueness and incompleteness generality overdetermination and underdetermination and Peirce's phenomenological categories of Firstness Secondness and Thirdness must be incorporated into notions of sign structure for a proper treatment of meaning He also argues that the twentieth century search for meaning has placed overbearing stress on language while ignoring nonlinguistic sign modes and means Peirce Signs and Meaning is an important sequel to Merrell's trilogy Signs Becoming Signs Semiosis in the Postmodern Age and Signs Grow This book is not only a significant contribution to the field of semiotics it has much to offer scholars in literature philosophy linguistics cultural studies and other academic disciplines in which meaning is a central concern

Small Nation, Global Cinema Mette Hjort, Investigates the relationship between globalization and the New Danish Cinema Encyclopedia of Literature and Science Pamela Gossin, 2002-08-30 Science and literature have always been strange bedfellows Like puzzle pieces they fit because they're different Some of the greatest works of world literature have been inspired by the marvels of the scientific world Scientists have written works of the imagination Even formal scientific writings have been known to employ rhetoric There is a tendency to think of literature and the humanities in general as having little to do with science Yet scholars have conducted fruitful studies of the history and philosophy of science With the rise of technology scholars have also applied scientific analysis to the study of literature and the creative process The intersection of scientific and humanistic inquiry is finally being mapped This volume includes more than 650 A Z entries on topics and themes in science and literature significant writers key scientists seminal works and important theories and methodologies This reference defines the rapidly emerging interdisciplinary field of literature and science An introductory essay traces the history of the field its growing reputation and the current state of research Broad in scope the volume covers world literature from its beginnings to the present day and illuminates the role of science in literature and literary studies A wide range of experts contributed entries to this volume each of which concludes with a brief bibliography The entire volume closes with a list of works for further reading

Wittgenstein and Democratic Politics Lotar Rasiński, Anat Biletzki, Leszek Koczanowicz, Alois Pichler, Thomas Wallgren, 2024-10-28 This volume demonstrates how Wittgenstein's philosophy can illuminate our understanding of politics and open new ways of conceptualizing democratic theory and practice Its focus is on language reason and communication as central to identifying present confusions in our understanding of democracy The book seeks to engage Wittgenstein's philosophical insights aiming to go beyond the dichotomous oppositions and conceptual entanglements pervading existing frameworks of social and political theories of democracy Its key topic is the irreplaceable role of dialogue in civic democratic engagement as a condition for the understanding of self and others and hence for political life in which reason has a role Indeed it presents concrete examples of how Wittgenstein can be constructively applied to current political discourse Part I of the volume focuses on the general idea of applying Wittgenstein's philosophy to political and democratic theory and explains the deep and intrinsic relation between Wittgenstein's thought and politics Part II discusses Wittgenstein's concrete concepts as illuminating for understanding selected aspects of democratic politics Part III deals with a possible exchange between Wittgenstein and other political thinkers especially Hannah Arendt Wittgenstein and Democratic Politics will appeal to researchers and advanced students working on Wittgenstein's philosophy political philosophy and democratic theory

Memory in Culture A. Erll, 2016-04-30 This book questions the sociocultural dimensions of remembering It offers an overview of the history and theory of memory studies through the lens of sociology political science anthropology psychology literature art and media studies documenting current international and interdisciplinary memory research in an unprecedented way

Poetics of Cinema David Bordwell, 2012-11-12 Bringing together twenty five years of work on what he has called the historical poetics of cinema David Bordwell presents an extended analysis of a key question for film studies how are films made in particular historical contexts in order to achieve certain effects For Bordwell films are made things existing within historical contexts and aim to create determinate effects Beginning with this central thesis Bordwell works out a full understanding of how films channel and recast cultural influences for their cinematic purposes With more than five hundred film stills Poetics of Cinema is a must have for any student of cinema

Growing Explanations M. Norton

Wise,2004-11-24 For much of the twentieth century scientists sought to explain objects and processes by reducing them to their components nuclei into protons and neutrons proteins into amino acids and so on but over the past forty years there has been a marked turn toward explaining phenomena by building them up rather than breaking them down This collection reflects on the history and significance of this turn toward growing explanations from the bottom up The essays show how this strategy based on a widespread appreciation for complexity even in apparently simple processes and on the capacity of computers to simulate such complexity has played out in a broad array of sciences They describe how scientists are reordering knowledge to emphasize growth change and contingency and in so doing are revealing even phenomena long considered elementary like particles and genes as emergent properties of dynamic processes Written by leading historians and philosophers of science these essays examine the range of subjects people and goals involved in changing the character of scientific analysis over the last several decades They highlight the alternatives that fields as diverse as string theory fuzzy logic artificial life and immunology bring to the forms of explanation that have traditionally defined scientific modernity A number of the essays deal with the mathematical and physical sciences addressing concerns with hybridity and the materials of the everyday world Other essays focus on the life sciences where questions such as What is life and What is an organism are undergoing radical re evaluation Together these essays mark the contours of an ongoing revolution in scientific explanation Contributors David Aubin Amy Dahan Dalmedico Richard Doyle Claus Emmeche Peter Galison Stefan Helmreich Ann Johnson Evelyn Fox Keller Ilana L wy Claude Rosental Alfred Tauber     The Creation of Art Berys Gaut,Paisley

Livingston,2003-03-17 Although creativity from Plato onwards has been recognized as a topic in philosophy it has been overshadowed by investigations of the meanings and values of works of art In this collection of essays a distinguished roster of philosophers of art redress this trend The subjects discussed include the nature of creativity and the process of artistic creation the role that creative making should play in our understanding and evaluation of art relations between concepts of creation and creativity and ideas of tradition metaphor genius imagination and genre This is an important collection that will be eagerly sought by philosophers of art as well as theorists in art history cinema studies and literary criticism

Babysitting the Reader Mieke K. T. Desmet,2007 Contexts and approaches The bibliographical data Case study formula fiction series Case study classic girl fiction Case study award winning books     Translation in Systems Theo Hermans,2014-04-08 The notion of systems has helped revolutionize translation studies since the 1970s As a key part of many descriptive approaches it has broken with the prescriptive focus on what translation should be encouraging researchers to ask what translation does in specific cultural settings From his privileged position as a direct participant in these developments Theo Hermans explains how contemporary descriptive approaches came about what the basic ideas were and how those ideas have evolved over time His discussion addresses the fundamental problems of translation norms equivalence polysystems and social systems covering not only the work of Lev Holmes Even Zohar Toury Lefevere Lambert

Van Leuven Zwart Dhulst and others but also giving special attention to recent contributions derived from Pierre Bourdieu and Niklas Luhmann An added focus on practical questions of how to investigate translation problems of definition description assessment of readerships etc makes this book essential reading for graduate students and indeed any researchers in the field Hermans account of descriptive translation studies is both informed and critical At the same time he demonstrates the strength of the basic concepts which have shown considerable vitality in their evolution and adaptation to the debates of the present day The Canon and the Archive Wadda C. Ríos-Font,2004 Ríos-Font re reads nineteenth and twentieth century Spanish texts and authors that have tested the boundary between high and low repositioning them within Spanish critical tradition Through these self reflexive readings the book explores how the definition of literature has changed in more than two centuries of modernity in Spain and the institutional and cultural negotiations behind this change Jacket

Knowledge and Commitment Douwe W. Fokkema,Elrud Ibsch,2000-04-15 The authors present a new perspective on a wide range of issues in the study of literature and culture Some of the topics discussed such as interpretation canon formation and literary historiography belong to the traditional domain of literary studies Others cultural identity convention systems theory and empirical methods originate in the social sciences and are now being integrated into the humanities By referring to the work of authors as widely apart as Hayden White Edward Said Fredric Jameson Michel Foucault Jacques Derrida Reinhart Koselleck Pierre Bourdieu Niklas Luhmann Siegfried Schmidt Norbert Groeben and many others the full complexity of the field of literary studies becomes apparent The authors argue for a distinction between analysis of literary systems on the one hand and critical intervention on the other By distinguishing between research and criticism between knowledge and commitment they offer new ways for literary studies as well as for cultural critique Crisis Cinema in the Middle East Shohini Chaudhuri,2022-06-16 In recent years the Arab world and Iran have been afflicted by cataclysmic events among them brutal state crackdowns of revolutions Yet filmmakers have persisted in their desire to tell their stories against the odds in creative acts that attest to their imagination courage and resilience In this book Shohini Chaudhuri examines a broad range of films made during the tumultuous period since 2009 ranging from internationally award winning festival favourites such as For Sama 2019 Capernaum 2018 and Taxi Tehran 2015 to lesser known films from the region While freedom of expression is often understood through the lens of state censorship she reveals the different types of obstacles that filmmakers face and their strategies for overcoming them so that those constraints are transformed into creative opportunities Using her original interviews with filmmakers such as Waad al Kateab Yasmin Fedda Larissa Sansour Mani Haghighi and Ossama Mohammed she identifies nine creative strategies for producing work under conditions of crisis Chaudhuri argues that creativity is indelibly shaped by constraints whether these are externally imposed by existing materials funding and socio political conditions or self imposed constraints through choices of genre or acceptance of rules and responsibilities She shows that the range of creative strategies emanating from the region is much wider than allegory and becoming ever more direct She thus opens up new lines of inquiry into cinematic creativity in sites of conflict and crisis in the Middle East and beyond

Will the Circle Be Unbroken? John L. Hare, 2020-04-03 First published in 2002 This work examines eight Virginia novels against the background of the political and social concerns of the Jacksonian years in which they were written arguing that the authors used familial processes as a metaphor to discuss issues that they regarded as critical Each chapter focuses on a single novel Swallow Barn Kentuckian in New York Cavaliers of Virginia Horse Shoe Robinson George Balcombe The Partisan Leader and Knights of the Horseshoe and examines its connections to the social and political tensions of the time of its publication generational progress sectional unity executive authority class relations the nature of the ideal leader relations among sections and states socialist and perfectionist communities and westward expansion

Chicago Hustle and Flow Geoff Harkness, 2014-09-01 On September 4 2012 Joseph Coleman an eighteen year old aspiring gangsta rapper was gunned down in the Englewood neighborhood of Chicago Police immediately began investigating the connections between Coleman s murder and an online war of words and music he was having with another Chicago rapper in a rival gang In Chicago Hustle and Flow Geoff Harkness points out how common this type of incident can be when rap groups form as extensions of gangs Gangs and rap music he argues can be a deadly combination Set in one of the largest underground music scenes in the nation this book takes readers into the heart of gangsta rap culture in Chicago From the electric buzz of nightclubs to the sights and sounds of bedroom recording studios Harkness presents gripping accounts of the lives beliefs and ambitions of the gang members and rappers with whom he spent six years A music genre obsessed with authenticity gangsta rap promised those from crime infested neighborhoods a ticket out of poverty But while firsthand experiences with gangs and crime gave rappers a leg up it also meant carrying weapons and traveling collectively for protection Street gangs serve as a fan base and provide protection to rappers who bring in income and help to recruit for the gang In examining this symbiotic relationship Chicago Hustle and Flow ultimately illustrates how class stratification creates and maintains inequalities even at the level of a local rap music scene

Living with Concepts Andrew Brandel, Marco Motta, 2021-06-15 This volume examines an often taken for granted concept that of the concept itself How do we picture what concepts are what they do how they arise in the course of everyday life Challenging conventional approaches that treat concepts as mere tools at our disposal for analysis or as straightforwardly equivalent to signs to be deciphered the anthropologists and philosophers in this volume turn instead to the ways concepts are already intrinsically embedded in our forms of life and how they constitute the very substrate of our existence as humans who lead lives in language Attending to our ordinary lives with concepts requires not an ascent from the rough ground of reality into the skies of theory but rather acceptance of the fact that thinking is congenital to living with and through concepts The volume offers a critical and timely intervention into both contemporary philosophy and anthropological theory by unsettling the distinction between thought and reality that continues to be too often assumed and showing how the supposed need to grasp reality may be replaced by an acknowledgement that we are in its grip Contributors Jocelyn Benoist Andrew Brandel Michael Cordey Veena Das Rasmus Dyring and Thomas Schwarz Wentzer Michael D Jackson Michael Lambek Sandra Laugier Marco Motta Michael J Puett and Lotte Buch Segal      Strange Multiplicity James Tully,1995-09-07 In the inaugural set of Seeley Lectures the distinguished political philosopher James Tully addresses the demands for cultural recognition that constitute the major conflicts of today supranational associations nationalism and federalism linguistic and ethnic minorities feminism multiculturalism and aboriginal self government Neither modern nor post modern constitutionalism can adjudicate such claims justly However by surveying 400 years of constitutional practice with special attention to the American aboriginal peoples Tully develops a new philosophy of constitutionalism based on dialogues of conciliation which he argues have the capacity to mediate contemporary conflicts and bring peace to the twenty first century Strange Multiplicity brings profound historical critical and philosophical perspectives to our most pressing contemporary conflicts and provides an authoritative guide to constitutional possibilities in a multicultural age      Margaret Cavendish and the Exiles of the Mind Anna Battigelli,2021-10-21 Margaret Cavendish duchess of Newcastle 1623 1673 led a dramatic life that brought her into contact with kings queens and the leading thinkers of her day The English civil wars forced her into exile accompanying Queen Henrietta Maria and her court to Paris From this vantage point she began writing voluminously responding to the events and major intellectual movements of the mid seventeenth century Cavendish published twenty three volumes in her lifetime including plays romances poetry letters biography and natural philosophy In them she explored the political scientific and philosophical ideas of her day While previous biographers of Cavendish have focused almost exclusively on her eccentric public behavior Anna Battigelli is the first to explore in depth her intellectual life She dismisses the myth of Cavendish as an isolated and lonely thinker arguing that the role of exile was a rhetorical stance one that allowed Cavendish to address and even criticize her world She like others writing during the period after the English civil wars focused squarely on the problem of finding the proper relationship between mind and world This volume presents Cavendish s writing self the self she treasured above all others
