Rules Of The Wild A Novel Of Africa:

Rules of the Wild Francesca Marciano, 2009-07-29 A mesmerizing novel of love and nostalgia set in the vast spaces of contemporary East Africa Romantic often resonantly ironic moving and wise Rules of the Wild transports us to a landscape of unsurpassed beauty even as it gives us a sharp eyed portrait of a closely knit tribe of cultural outsiders the expatriates living in Kenya today Challenged by race by class and by a longing for home here are safari boys and samaritans reporters bent on their own fame travelers who care deeply about elephants but not at all about the people of Africa They all know each other They meet at dinner parties they sleep with each other they argue about politics and the best way to negotiate their existence in a place where they don't really belong At the center is Esm a beautiful young woman of dazzling ironies and introspections who tells us her story in a voice both passionate and self deprecating Against a paradoxical backdrop of limitless physical freedom and escalating civil unrest Esm struggles to make sense of her own place in Africa and of her feelings for the two men there whom she loves Adam a second generation Kenyan who is the first to show her the wonders of her adopted land and Hunter a British journalist sickened by its horrors Rules of the Wild evokes the worlds of Isak Dinesen Beryl Markham and Ernest Hemingway It explores unforgettably our infinite desire for a perfect elsewhere for love and a place to call home It is an astonishing literary debut

The Other Language Francesca Marciano, 2014-04-08 Hailed by The New York Times as a natural born storyteller the acclaimed author of Rules of the Wild gives us nine incandescently smart stories funny elegant and poignant by turns that explore the power of change in relationships in geographies and across cultures to reveal unexpected aspects of ourselves Taking us to Venice during film festival season where a woman buys a Chanel dress she can barely afford to a sun drenched Greek village at the height of the summer holidays where a teenager encounters the shocks of first love and to a classical dance community in southern India where a couple gives in to the urge to wander these remarkable tales bring to life characters stepping outside their boundaries into new passions and destinies Enlivened by Francesca Marciano's wit clear eye and stunning evocations of people and places The Other Language is an enthralling tour de force rich with many pleasures This ebook edition includes a READING GROUP GUIDE

The Wild Geese Daniel Carney, 1978-01-01 Season of Rains Stephen Ellis, 2012-03-15 Africa is playing a more important role in world affairs than ever before Yet the most common images of Africa in the American mind are ones of poverty starvation and violent conflict But while these problems are real that does not mean that Africa is a lost cause Instead as Stephen Ellis explains in Season of Rains we need to rethink Africa's place in time if we are to understand it in all its complexity it is a region where growth and prosperity coexist with failed states This engaging accessible book by one of the world's foremost researchers on Africa captures the broad spectrum of political economic and social foundations that make Africa what it is today Ellis is careful not to position himself in the futile debate between Afro optimists and Afro pessimists The forty nine diverse nations that make up sub Saharan Africa are neither doomed to fail nor destined to succeed As he assesses the challenges of African sovereignties Ellis is not under the illusion that governments will suddenly become more benevolent and less corrupt Yet he sees great dynamism in recent technological and economic developments The proliferation of mobile phones alone has helped to overcome previous gaps in infrastructure African retail markets are becoming integrated and banking is expanding Businesses from China and emerging powers from the West are investing more than ever before in the still land rich region and globalization is offering possibilities of enormous economic change for the growing population of one billion Africans actively engaged in charting the future of their continent This highly readable survey of the continent today offers an indispensable guide to how money power and development are shaping Africa's future Running Wild John McNutt, Lesley Boggs, Hélène Heldring, Dave Hamman, 1996 Looks at wild dogs that roam the African savanna and their social behavior hunting techniques and how they raise their young The Wild Book Margarita Engle, 2012-03-20 Fefa struggles with words She has word blindness or dyslexia and the doctor says she will never read or write Every time she tries the letters jumble and spill off the page leaping and hopping away like bullfrogs How will she ever understand them But her mother has an idea She gives Fefa a blank book filled with clean white pages Think of it as a garden she says Soon Fefa starts to sprinkle words across the pages of her wild book She lets her words sprout like seedlings shaky at first then growing stronger and surer with each new day And when her family is threatened it is what Fefa has learned from her wild book that saves them Soul of a Lion Barbara Bennett, 2010-09-21 For animal lovers nature enthusiasts and the vast readership for gripping true life stories this African saga is a must read adventure It chronicles the unique Harnas Wildlife Foundation in Namibia where Marieta van der Merwe and her family former wealthy cattle farmers have sold land to buy and care for embattled wildlife We meet Sam the AIDS lion infected by mistake at a vet clinic Boerjke a baboon with epilepsy and Down syndrome Savanna the one eyed lioness And Marieta van der Merwe herself the inspiring proprietor of Harnas who shares her home with needy wild animals Survivor of an early life fraught with personal tragedy in the African Bush she now devotes herself as care giver and ambassador for wildlife and wildland Told with insight humor and thrilling immediacy by author and Harnas volunteer Barbara Bennett this story will captivate readers of all ages Rules of the Wild Francesca Marciano, 1999 Italienske Esm tager til Afrika hvor hun bliver betaget af b de naturen og en anden mand's hendes afrikanske liv bliver en balanceren mellem civilisationen naturen og to m nd Whatever You Do, Don't Run Peter Allison, 2007-10-01 A hilarious highly original collection of essays based on the Botswana truism only food runs In the tradition of Bill Bryson a new writer brings us the lively adventures and biting wit of an African safari guide Peter Allison gives us the guide's eye view of living in the bush confronting the world's fiercest terrain of wild animals and most challenging of all managing herds of gaping tourists Passionate for the animals of the Kalahari Allison works as a top safari guide in the wildlife rich Okavango Delta As he serves the whims of his wealthy clients he often has to stop the impulse to run as far away from them as he can as these tourists are sometimes more dangerous than a pride of lions No one could make up these outrageous but true tales the young woman who rejected the recommended safari friendly khaki to wear a more fashionable hot pink ensemble the lost tourist who happened to be drunk half naked and a member of the British royal family establishing a real friendship with the continent's most vicious animal the Japanese tourist who requested a repeat performance of Allison's being charged by a lion so he could videotape it and spending a crazy night in the wild after blowing a tire on a tour bus revealing that Allison has as much good natured scorn for himself The author's humor is exceeded only by his love and respect for the animals and his goal is to limit any negative exposure to humans by planning trips that are minimally invasive unfortunately it doesn't always work out that way Peter Allison is originally from Sydney Australia His safaris have been featured in National Geographic Conde Nast Traveler and on television programs such as Jack Hanna's Animal Adventures He travels frequently to speaking appearances and splits most of his time between Botswana Sydney and San Francisco
