Rumble In Hong Kongdrunken Master:

Legacies of the Drunken Master Luke White,2020-04-30 In 1978 the films Snake in the Eagle's Shadow and Drunken Master both starring a young Jackie Chan caused a stir in the Hong Kong cinema industry and changed the landscape of martial arts cinema. Mixing virtuoso displays of acrobatic kung fu with knockabout humor to huge box office success they broke the mold of the tragic and heroic martial arts film and sparked not only a wave of imitations but also a much longer trend for kung fu comedies that continues to the present day. Legacies of the Drunken Master the first book length analysis of kung fu comedy interrogates the politics of the films and their representations of the performing body. It draws on an interdisciplinary engagement with popular culture and an interrogation of the critical literature on Hong Kong and martial arts cinema to offer original readings of key films. These readings pursue the genre in terms of its carnival aesthetic, the utopias of the body it envisions, its highly stylized depictions of violence, its images of masculinity and the registers of its hysterical laughter. The book's analyses are carried out amidst kung fu comedy's shifting historical contexts including the aftermath of the 1960s radical youth movements, the rapidly globalizing colonial enclave of Hong Kong and the emerging consciousness of its 1997 handover to China and the transnationalization of cinema audiences. It argues that through kung fu comedy's images of the body the genre articulated in complex and often contradictory ways political realities relevant to late twentieth century Hong Kong and the wider conditions of globalized capitalism. The kung fu comedy entwines us in a popular cultural history that stretches into the folk past and forward into utopian and dystopian possibilities. Theoretically rich and critical Legacies of the Drunken Master aims to be at the forefront of scholarship on martial arts cinema. It also addresses readers with a broader interest in Hong Kong culture and politics during the 1970s and 1980s, postcolonialism in East Asia and action and comedy films in a global context as well as those fascinated with the performing body in the martial arts.

Cities and Cinema Barbara Mennel,2019-05-13 The second edition of Cities and Cinema provides an updated survey of films about cities from their significance for modernity at the beginning of the twentieth century to the contemporary relationship between virtual reality and urban space. The book demonstrates the importance of the filmic depiction of capitals for national cinemas in the twentieth century and analyzes the transnational transfer of cinematic images surrounding global cities in the twenty first century. Cities and Cinema covers the different facets of the cinematic depiction of cities. It rehearses distinct methodologies and offers a survey of the history of the cinematic city. The book also deepens our understanding of tropes and narrative conventions that shape films about urban settings and that reflect the transformation of cities throughout the twentieth and twenty first centuries. Beginning with a discussion of the Weimar street film, it analyzes how the city film defined modernity. The book outlines the sociological context and the aesthetic features of so called film noir made in 1940s Hollywood and depicting Los Angeles. Paris became the site for the development of auteur cinema which repeatedly depicts characters moving through the city. Tokyo took up noir to signal modern crime. The volume delineates how filmic genres such as science fiction comment on the present by imagining future forms of urban living After analyzing how cinema captures the relationship between sexual identity and urban anonymity migration and urban space and marginalized ethnic and sexual identity in ghetto films the book emphasizes transnational dynamics and global cities in the twenty first century Its conclusion points to the increasing virtual mediation of cities with new media Cities and Cinema offers a historical overview of the development of films about cities and a theoretical approach to the intersection of urban studies and film studies This title is designed as a textbook primarily for second year undergraduate students in Film Media studies Urban studies as well as Geography and Planning Jackie Chan Dan Fox,2006 Mixing comedy and action is very hard to do Jackie Chan has made his name doing just that He is famous for using martial arts and dramatic stunts to make people laugh

Made in Hong Kong Leo Moser, 2000 Hong Kong Cinema and the 1997 Return of the Colony to Mainland China: The Tensions and the Consequences Mengyang Cui, 2007-09-25 In this paper I aimed to explore deeply the Hong Kong 1997 handover theme films by comparison and summary in order to discover the history and cultural meaning of this incident from a human perspective 1997 is a turning point for Hong Kong people society and the film industry The city confronted a historical turning point under an experimental one country two systems convention without precedent in history This led many Hong Kong people to lose confidence about their future In addition this historical incident brought a series of social issues to Hong Kong people such as confusion about their identity and uncertainty about the future Therefore I chose four films from two directors with different viewpoints reveal Hong Kong society and people's life and spirit Those films are Peter Chan's Comrades Almost a Love Story 1996 Golden Chicken 2000 and Fruit Chan's Made in Hong Kong 1997 The Longest Summer 1997 Also I will give a brief introduction about the aspects of the past of Hong Kong politically colonial rule economically and with respect of Hong Kong identity to understand its cinema and the possible effects of the 1997 handover

Fruit Chan's Durian Durian Wendy Gan, 2005-05-01 This book examines how Fruit Chan's Durian Durian sensitively portrays the unsettling seismic shifts affecting the inhabitants of both China and Hong Kong in a post 1997 context The study covers different aspects of Durian Durian its relation to the Hong Kong independent film sector and traditions of Hong Kong social realism its representations of mainland Chinese women and its representations of cross border relations and issues of post 1997 identity for both inhabitants of Hong Kong and China Gan argues that Durian Durian is an attempt to re think Hong Kong and China as a single entity a single imagined community in a post 1997 era The film is an exploration of one country two systems not just in political but in spatial and affective terms This is one of the first studies of Fruit Chan's work and presents him as one of Hong Kong's key filmmakers worthy of serious critical study Durian Durian is one of Chan's masterpieces and its study is of interest to anyone who is concerned with post 1997 realities in Hong Kong and China as visualized on film

Southern California and the World Eric J. Heikkila, Rafael Pizarro, 2002-10-30 As underscored by the emergence of the Los Angeles school of contemporary urban studies the Southern California experience its popular culture politics economics spatial structure ethnic diversity technologies and lifestyles has an impact and relevance well beyond its own immediate geographic setting This book explores the parallel and interlinked constructions of identities imaginations and activities in and between Southern California and the world beyond In particular the volume shows how the local and global are interfused with one another making it evident that the connections involve more than a process of globalization Approaching the subject from three perspectives the volume considers how the Southern Californian way of life as reflected through entertainment politics legal institutions technology cultural trends influences the lifestyles of other parts of the world how Southern California as a primary repository of peoples and cultures from throughout the world absorbs and transforms this living diaspora of foreign cultures into something that is uniquely Southern Californian and how Southern California functions as a major nexus within a global network of linked activities and the special roles of Southern California within the context of these global networks The book provides a panoramic and stimulating perspective on the multiplexed
