Citizenship, Identity and Social Movements in the New Hong Kong Wai-man Lam,Luke Cooper,2017-09-11 Hong

Hong Kong's Umbrella Revolution has been widely regarded as a watershed moment in the polity's post 1997 history. While public protest has long been a routine part of Hong Kong's political culture, the preparedness of large numbers of citizens to participate in civil disobedience represented a new moment for Hong Kong society, reflecting both a very high level of politicisation and a deteriorating relationship with Beijing. The transformative processes underpinning the dramatic events of autumn 2014 have a wide relevance to scholarly debates on Hong Kong, China, and the changing contours of world politics today. This book provides an accessible entry point into the political and social cleavages that underpinned and were expressed through the Umbrella Movement. A key focus is the societal context and issues that have led to growth in a Hong Kong identity and how this became highly politically charged during the Umbrella Movement. It is widely recognised that political and ethnic identity has become a key cleavage in Hong Kong society. But there is little agreement amongst citizens about what it means to be Hong Konger today or whether this identity is compatible or conflicting with being Chinese. The book locates these identity cleavages within their historical context and uses a range of theories to understand these processes, including theories of nationalism, social identity, ethnic conflict, nativism, and cosmopolitanism. This theoretical plurality allows the reader to see the new localism in its full diversity and complexity and to reflect on the evolving nature of Hong Kong's relationship with Mainland China.

More Brilliant than the Sun Kodwo Eshun, 2020-02-04. The classic work on the music of Afrofuturism from jazz to jungle. More Brilliant than the Sun: Adventures in Sonic Fiction is one of the most extraordinary books on music ever written. Part manifesto for a militant posthumanism, part journey through the unacknowledged traditions of diasporic science fiction, this book finds the future shock in Afrofuturist sounds from jazz, dub, and techno to funk, hip hop, and jungle. By exploring the music of such musical luminaries as Sun Ra, Alice Coltrane, Lee Perry, Dr Octagon, Parliament, and Underground Resistance, theorist and artist Kodwo Eshun mobilises their concepts in order to open the possibilities of sonic fiction, the hitherto unexplored intersections between science fiction and organised sound. Situated between electronic music history, media theory, science fiction, and Afrodiasporic studies, More Brilliant than the Sun is one of the key works to stake a claim for the generative possibilities of Afrofuturism. Much referenced since its original publication in 1998 but long unavailable, this new edition includes an introduction by Kodwo Eshun as well as texts by filmmaker John Akomfrah and producer Steve Goodman aka kode9.

The Psychotronic Video Guide To Film Michael Weldon, 1996. The bible of B movies is back and better than ever. From Abby Cadabby to Zontar, this book covers more than 9,000 amazing movies from the turn of the century right up to today's Golden Age of Video, all described with Michael Weldon's dry wit. More than 450 rare and wonderful illustrations round out this treasure trove of cinematic lore, an essential reference for every bad film fan.

Sudden Death Stephen Mertz, 1995.
