phenomenal hit shows that have delighted millions of spectators and generated billions of pounds in revenue In Good Nights Out Aleks Sierz provides a thematic survey of such popular theatre shows that were enormous commercial successes over the past 75 years He argues that these outstanding hits have a lot to say about the collective cultural social and political attitudes and aspirations of the country and about how our national identity and theatre's role in creating it has evolved over the decades The book spans a range of work from almost forgotten plays such as R F Delderfield's Worm's Eye View and Hugh Hastings's Seagulls Over Sorrento to well known mega hits such as The Mousetrap and The Phantom of the Opera Such popular work has tended to be undervalued by some critics and commentators mainly because it has not been thought to be a suitable subject for inclusion in the canon of English Literature By contrast Sierz demonstrates that genres such as the British musical light comedy sex farce or murder mystery are worth appreciating not only for their intrinsic theatrical qualities but also as examples of the dream life of the British people The book challenges the idea that mega hits are merely escapist entertainments and instead shows how they contribute to the creation of powerful myths about our national life The analysis of such shows also points towards the possibility of creating an alternative history of postwar British theatre

May the Farce Be With You Roger Foss, 2012-06-27 It seems a long way from Moliere to Ray Cooney There are immense distances between the worlds of Aristophanes Plautus Georges Feydeau Ben Travers Joe Orton and Basil Fawlty But as one of the oldest genres in the history of the theatre farce bridges the gaps by generating gales of helpless belly laughter across the generations Inspired by John Mortimer's observation that farce is tragedy played at a thousand revolutions a minute theatre critic Roger Foss embarks on a lightning tour of the rib tickling world of confused characters absurd situations ruined reputations sexual innuendo and bravura comic acting and finds out if farce really is a force to be reckoned with in the 21st century The latest addition to the Oberon Masters series May The Farce Be With You celebrates the great creators and performers of farce notably master farceur Ray Cooney who celebrates his 80th birthday in 2012 in essays that will inform and entertain both the aficionado and anyone with a sense of humour
