That is until the doorbell rings. Standing on her front step is a young man who looks so much like Max same smile same eyes same age same adorable bump in his nose he could be Max's long lost relation. He introduces himself as Paolo an Italian editor of American coffee table books and shows Shelley some childhood photos. Paolo tells her that the man in the photos the bearded man who Paolo says is his grandfather though he never seems to age is Max. Her Max. And he is alive and well. As outrageous as Paolo's claims seem how could her husband be alive. And if he is why hasn't he looked her up. Shelley desperately wants to know the truth. She and Paolo jet across the globe to track Max down if it is really Max. Along the way Shelley recounts the European package tour where they had met. As she relives Max's stories of bloody Parisian barricades medieval Austrian kitchens and buried Roman bathhouses Shelley begins to piece together the story of who her husband was and what these new revelations mean for her happily ever after.
