The Mountain Rebecca Gurger, 2021-10-19 The bear knows exactly what the mountain looks like a forest The sheep octopus and ant also know the mountain It's a meadow It's surrounded by water The chamois and snow hare have their opinions too It seems the mountain looks different to every animal How can that be And whose point of view is right God Has a Name John Mark Comer, 2024-10-15 What you believe about God sets the foundation of the person you will become In God Has a Name pastor and New York Times bestselling author John Mark Comer invites you to rethink many of the prevalent myths and misconceptions about God and weigh them against what God actually tells us about himself After all what you believe about God will ultimately shape the type of person you become We all live at the mercy of our ideas and nowhere is this more true than our ideas about God The problem is many of our ideas about God are wrong Not all wrong but wrong enough to form our souls in detrimental and disheartening ways God Has a Name is a simple yet profound guide to understanding God in a new light focusing on what God says about himself in the Bible This one shift has the potential to radically alter how you relate to God not as a doctrine but as a relational being who responds to you in an elastic back and forth way John Mark Comer takes you line by line through Exodus 34 6 8 Yahweh s self revelation on Mount Sinai one of the most quoted passages in the Bible Along the way Comer addresses some of the most profound questions he came across as he studied these noted lines in Exodus including Why do we feel this gap between us and God Could it be that a lot of what we think about God is wrong Not all wrong but wrong enough to mess up how we relate to him What if our God is really a projection of our own identity ideas and desires What if the real God is different but far better than we could ever imagine No matter where you are in your spiritual journey God Has a Name invites you to step into a fresh and biblically rooted vision of who God is that has the potential to alter your life with God and shape who you become
