

Advance praise for Scott Frost's
Run the Risk

"A riveting thriller, implacable in its intensity."
—Catherine Cook

"Alex Delillo is a single mother, an L.A. homicide detective, and one of the best main characters you'll ever meet. This is an absolutely heart-stopping debut, the kind of book that opens you to the end of the first chapter. If this is really Scott Frost's first novel, then he's clearly a writer to watch!"

—Steve Haskins, Edgar Award-winning author of Ice Run

"Scott Frost delivers everything a thriller reader wants—crisp prose, a page-turning plot, and a completely original voice. His protagonist, Alex Delillo, is one of the most sympathetic narrators I've come across in a long time. For readers, the only risk about Run the Risk would be missing this book. Don't!"

—Rich Korman, author of Southern

"One of the great pleasures of mystery bookwriting is to discover a great new talent, and Scott Frost is one. Frost does for Pasadena what Michael Connelly does for L.A. Angelenos. Frost's villain would make Hannibal Lecter proud."
—Danly McArthur, The Mystery Bookstore (L.A. Angelenos)
