Run Toward Fear New Poems And A Poets Handbook:

Run Toward Fear Haki R. Madhubuti, 2004 African American Literature Hans Ostrom, J. David Macey Jr., 2019-11-15

This essential volume provides an overview of and introduction to African American writers and literary periods from their beginnings through the 21st century. This compact encyclopedia aimed at students selects the most important authors, literary movements, and key topics for them to know. Entries cover the most influential and highly regarded African American writers, including novelists, playwrights, poets, and nonfiction writers. The book covers key periods of African American literature, such as the Harlem Renaissance, the Black Arts Movement, and the Civil Rights Era, and touches on the influence of the vernacular, including blues and hip hop. The volume provides historical context for critical viewpoints, including feminism, social class, and racial politics. Entries are organized A to Z and provide biographies that focus on the contributions of key literary figures, as well as overviews, background information, and definitions for key subjects.

Betrayal Houston A. Baker, 2010-03-05

Houston A. Baker Jr. condemns black intellectuals who he believes have turned their backs on the tradition of racial activism in America. In their literature, speeches, and academic and public behavior, Baker identifies a hungry generation eager for power, respect, and money. Critiquing his own impoverished childhood in the Little Africa section of Louisville, Kentucky, Baker seeks to understand the shaping of this new public figure. He also revisits classical sites of African American literary and historical criticism and critique and devotes chapters to the writing and thought of such black academic superstars as Cornel West, Michael Eric Dyson, and Henry Louis Gates Jr. Hoover Institution senior fellow Shelby Steele, Yale law professor Stephen Carter, and Manhattan Institute fellow John McWhorter. Baker's provocative investigation into the disingenuous posturing of these and other individuals exposes what he deems to be a tragic betrayal of the legacy of Martin Luther King Jr. He urges black intellectuals to reestablish both sacred and secular connections with local communities and rediscover the value of social responsibility. As Baker sees it, the mission of the black intellectual today is not to do great things but to do specific, racially based work that is in the interest of the black majority.

Masterplots Two Tyrone Williams, 2009

Williams, Xavier U. presents 367 three- to four-page essays, 101 commissioned new for this edition, on significant African American works of literature from Afrocentricity. The Theory of Social Change, a work of cultural criticism by Molefi K. Asante to Zami: A New Spelling of My Name, the biomythography of Audre Lorde. The works covered range from early colonial era writings through works of the beginning of the 21st century. Most of the essays address a single long work, while others review an author's work in a certain genre, such as short fiction, poetry, essays, or speeches. Each entry begins with information on title, subtitle, author's name, and birth/death dates, type of work, date of first publication, and production. For fiction, information is also presented on type of plot, setting, and principal characters. The essays then describe events or contents of the work and address broad themes and meanings connected to the work. Essays on fiction works include discussion of main character or characters, while nonfiction work includes sections on form and content and analysis. All essays end with discussion of critical context Also included with the essays are annotated bibliographies on secondary sources The final volume includes indexes organized by type of work title and authors Examples of works covered in addition to the two already mentioned include Ain't I a Woman by bell hooks The Autobiography of Malcolm X Babel 17 by Samuel R Delany The Black Muslims in America by C Eric Lincoln The Content of Our Character by Shelby Steele Kindred by Octavia E Butler Roots by Alex Haley The Signifying Monkey by Henry Louis Gates Up from Slavery by Booker T Washington and Walkin the Dog by Walter Mosley Annotation 2009 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com YellowBlack Haki R.
