Atlas of Oculoplastic and Orbital Surgery Thomas C. Spoor, 2009-12-04 Since its inception two generations ago oculoplastic surgery has constantly evolved. What was once dogma may now be passed. Procedures that were once passed may be resurrected and utilized again. Providing simplified solutions to complex problems, Atlas of Oculoplastic and Orbital Surgery is a practical problem-oriented guide to the management of common oculoplastic and orbital disorders. Based on Dr. Spoor's thirty years of practice, the book emphasizes the more common oculoplastic conditions likely to present to a busy ophthalmologist. The text covers upper and lower eyelid surgery and repair, orbital surgery, and the prevention and treatment of potential complications. The procedures are described with surgical photos and illustrations in a casual didactic fashion as a senior doctor would use in instructing a resident or fellow. The book is essential reading for ophthalmologists, oculoplastic surgeons, neuro-ophthalmologists, and plastic surgeons.

The end of the lake-dwellings in the Circum-Alpine region Francesco Menotti, 2015-07-30 After more than 3500 years of occupation in the Neolithic and Bronze Age, the many lake dwellings around the Circum-Alpine region suddenly came to an end. Throughout that period, alternating phases of occupation and abandonment illustrate how resilient lacustrine populations were against change cultural environmental factors might have forced them to relocate temporarily but they always returned to the lakes So why were the lake dwellings finally abandoned and what exactly happened towards the end of the Late Bronze Age that made the lake dwellers change their way of life so drastically The new research presented here draws upon the results of a four year long project dedicated to shedding light on this intriguing conundrum Placing a particular emphasis upon the Bronze Age a multidisciplinary team of researchers has studied the lake dwelling phenomenon inside out leaving no stones unturned enabling identification of all possible interactive socioeconomic and environmental factors that can be subsequently tested against each other to prove or disprove their validity By refitting the various pieces of the jigsaw a plausible but also rather unexpected picture emerges
