Runner Of The Woods:

Once a Runner John L. Parker, 2009-04-07 The undisputed classic of running novels and one of the most beloved sports books ever published Once a Runner tells the story of an athlete's dreams amid the turmoil of the 60s and the Vietnam war Inspired by the author's experience as a collegiate champion the novel follows Quenton Cassidy a competitive runner at fictional Southeastern University whose lifelong dream is to run a four minute mile He is less than a second away when the turmoil of the Vietnam War era intrudes into the staid recesses of his school's athletic department After he becomes involved in an athlete's protest Cassidy is suspended from his track team Under the tutelage of his friend and mentor Bruce Denton a graduate student and former Olympic gold medalist Cassidy gives up his scholarship his girlfriend and possibly his future to withdraw to a monastic retreat in the countryside and begin training for the race of his life against the greatest miler in history A rare insider's account of the incredibly intense lives of elite distance runners Once a Runner is an inspiring funny and spot on tale of one individual's quest to become a champion

The Runner Markus Torgeby, 2020-01-14 The most beautiful book I ever read Rune Larsson ultra distance runner Markus Torgeby was just 20 years old when he headed off into the remote Swedish forest to live as a recluse and dedicate himself to his one true passion running He lived in a tent in the wilderness braving the harsh Swedish winters for four years This is his story A talented long distance runner in his teens Markus Torgeby excelled in training but often failed inexplicably in competition Pressurised by his coach and consumed by the suffering of his MS afflicted mother he chose to do something that most of us only dream of escape the modern world In his stripped back lifestyle in the woods surviving with the bare minimum of supplies and enduring extreme cold he found salvation and ultimately his true direction in life An international bestseller this extraordinary book is a powerful exploration of running resilience loss and self discovery

Masters of Disaster Gary Paulsen, 2011-08-09 Roped into wacky attempts to break world records imitate scenes from books and other inspired ideas Riley and Reed follow their fearless leader Henry into the wilderness the bull riding ring a haunted house cataclysmic collision with explosive life forms and off the roof of a house on a bike

Bush Runner Mark Bourrie, 2019-04-02 WINNER OF THE 2020 RBC TAYLOR PRIZE Readers might well wonder if Jonathan Swift at his edgiest has been at work RBC Taylor Prize Jury Citation A remarkable biography of an even more remarkable 17th century individual Beautifully written and endlessly thought provoking Maclean's Murderer Salesman Pirate Adventurer Cannibal Co founder of the Hudson's Bay Company Known to some as the first European to explore the upper Mississippi and widely as the namesake of ships and hotel chains Pierre Esprit Radisson is perhaps best described writes Mark Bourrie as an eager hustler with no known scruples Kidnapped by Mohawk warriors at the age of fifteen Radisson assimilated and was adopted by a powerful family only to escape to New York City after less than a year After being recaptured he defected from a raiding party to the Dutch and crossed the Atlantic to Holland thus beginning a lifetime of seized opportunities and frustrated ambitions A guest among First Nations communities French fur traders and royal courts

witness to London's Great Plague and Great Fire and unwitting agent of the Jesuits corporate espionage Radisson double crossed the English French Dutch and his adoptive Mohawk family alike found himself marooned by pirates in Spain and lived through shipwreck on the reefs of Venezuela His most lasting venture as an Arctic fur trader led to the founding of the Hudson's Bay Company which operates today 350 years later as North America's oldest corporation Sourced from Radisson's journals which are the best first hand accounts of 17th century Canada Bush Runner tells the extraordinary true story of this protean 17th century figure a man more trading partner than colonizer a peddler of goods and not worldview and with it offers a fresh perspective on the world in which he lived

Why We Run Bernd Heinrich, 2009-10-06 Each new page is more spellbinding than the one before this is surely one of the most interesting books I've ever read Elizabeth Marshall Thomas author of The Hidden Life of Dogs When Bernd Heinrich decided to write a memoir of his ultramarathon running experience he realized that the preparation for the race was as important if not more so than the race itself Considering the physiology and motivation of running from a scientific point of view he wondered what he could learn from other animals In Why We Run Heinrich considers the flight endurance of birds the antelope's running prowess and limitations and the ultra endurance of camels to understand how human physiology can or cannot replicate these adaptations With his characteristic blend of scientific inquiry and philosophical musings Heinrich offers an original and provocative work combining the rigors of science with the passion of running

The Incomplete Book of Running Peter Sagal, 2018-10-30 Peter Sagal the host of NPR's Wait Wait Don't Tell Me and a popular columnist for Runner's World shares commentary and reflection about running with a deeply felt personal story this book is winning smart honest and affecting Whether you are a runner or not it will move you Susan Orlean On the verge of turning forty Peter Sagal brainiac Harvard grad short bald Jew with a disposition towards heft and a sedentary star of public radio started running seriously And much to his own surprise he kept going faster and further running fourteen marathons and logging tens of thousands of miles on roads sidewalks paths and trails all over the United States and the world including the 2013 Boston Marathon where he crossed the finish line moments before the bombings In The Incomplete Book of Running Sagal reflects on the trails tracks and routes he's traveled from the humorous absurdity of running charity races in his underwear in St Louis in February or attempting to quiet his colon on runs around his neighborhood to the experience of running as a guide to visually impaired runners and the triumphant post bombing running of the Boston Marathon in 2014 With humor and humanity Sagal also writes about the emotional experience of running body image the similarities between endurance sports and sadomasochism the legacy of running as passed down from parent to child and the odd but extraordinary bonds created between strangers and friends The result is a brilliant book about running What Peter runs toward is strength understanding endurance acceptance faith hope and charity P J O'Rourke

Racing the Clock Bernd Heinrich, 2021-07-06 An award winning much loved biologist turns his gaze on himself using his long distance running to illuminate the changes to a human body over a lifetime Part memoir part scientific investigation Racing the Clock is the book biologist and natural historian Bernd Heinrich has been waiting his entire life to write A dedicated and accomplished marathon and ultra marathon runner who won his first marathon at age thirty nine Heinrich looks deeply at running aging and the body exploring the unresolved relationship between metabolism diet exercise and age Why do some bodies age differently than others How much control do we have over that process and what effect if any does being active have Bringing to bear research from his entire career and in the spirit of his classic Why We Run Heinrich probes the questions of how we use energy and continue to adapt to our mutable surroundings and circumstances Beyond that he examines how our bodies change while we age but also how we can work with if not overcome many of these changes and what all this tells us about evolution and the mechanisms of life health and happiness Racing the Clock offers fascinating and surprising conclusions all while bringing the reader along on Heinrich's compelling journey to what he says will be his final race a fifty kilometer race at age eighty Making the Voyageur

World Carolyn Podruchny, 2006-12-01 Through a detailed analysis of their unique occupational culture Making the Voyageur World reexamines the French Canadian workers who dominated the fur trade industry and became iconic images of North American lore Running to the Edge Matthew Futterman, 2019-06-04 Gripping the narrative is smooth and immediate almost effortless in its detail if occasionally breathless like a good fast run The New York Times Book Review Visionary American running coach Bob Larsen assembled a mismatched team of elite California runners the start of his decades long quest for championships Olympic glory and pursuit of the epic run In the dusty hills above San Diego Bob Larsen became America's greatest running coach Starting with a ragtag group of high school cross country and track runners Larsen set out on a decades long quest to find the secret of running impossibly fast for longer distances than anyone thought possible Himself a former farm boy who fell into his track career by accident Larsen worked through coaching high school junior college and college coaxing talented runners away from more traditional sports as the running craze was in its infancy in the 60's and 70's On the arid trails and windy roads of California Larsen relentlessly sought the secret sauce of speed and endurance that would catapult American running onto the national stage Running to the Edge is a riveting account of Larsen's journey and his quest to discover the unorthodox training secrets that would lead American runners elite and recreational to breakthroughs never imagined New York Times Deputy Sports Editor Matthew Futterman interweaves the dramatic stories of Larsen's runners with a fascinating discourse of the science behind human running as well as a personal running narrative that follows Futterman's own checkered love affair with the sport The result is a narrative that will speak to every runner a story of Larsen's triumphs from high school cross country meets to the founding of the cult favorite 70's running group the Jamul Toads from national championships to his long tenure as head coach at UCLA and from the secret training regimen of world champion athletes like Larsen's protégé American Meb Keflezighi to victories at the New York and Boston Marathons as well as the Olympics Running to the Edge is a page turner a relentless crusade to run faster farther Mr.
