The Color of A Dog Running Away Richard Gwyn, 2007-03-20 When I opened the door of the flat there was a picture postcard lying in the hallway It showed a reproduction of a painting by Joan Mir I turned the card over Neatly written in green ink was what appeared to be a date and time 20 May 11 00 There was no explanatory message no indication of who had written the card The printed details told me that the reproduction was entitled Woman of the Night The painting could be found at the Mir Foundation May 20 was the next day Lucas a musician and translator living in Barcelona s Gothic Quarter comes home one day to find this cryptic invitation When he appears at the appointed time he sets in motion a series of bizarre seemingly interconnected events that disrupt his previously passive existence He meets the alluring Nuria and they begin an intense love affair He is approached by a band of Barcelona s mythic roof dwellers and has a run in with a fire eating prophet But when he and Nuria are kidnapped by a religious cult with roots stretching back to the thirteenth century Lucas realizes that his life is spinning out of control The cult s megalomaniac leader Pontneuf maintains that Nuria and Lucas are essential to his plan to revive the religion While Nuria is surprisingly open to Pontneuf and his theories Lucas is outraged and makes his escape Back in Barcelona Lucas wanders the streets in a drug and alcohol induced haze pining for Nuria and struggling to make sense of what happened to him He recounts his improbable adventures to his friends who are wholly entertained by the story and deeply dubious of its truth an understandable skepticism as Lucas fast becomes the quintessential unreliable narrator With the alluring and enchanting Barcelona as a vibrant backdrop The Color of a Dog Running Away is a love story tale of adventure and historical thriller all rolled into one unforgettable and mesmerizing package a novel that will beguile and disturb in equal measure
