Independent Television in Britain P. Bonner,L. Aston,1998-07-13 A stimulating treatment of an area of public life which is a subject of continuing debate and controversy This volume covers the years in which ITV faced more challenges than at any time in its history and its regulator the IBA was subject to political pressures so extreme that they brought about its abolition and rebirth as the Independent Television Commission The book gives detailed accounts based on documents not previously available and interviews with over sixty senior figures in the industry of the changes and controversies of the period

Highlights include the conflict with government over the programme Death on the Rock the battle with the BBC for possession of the rights to Dallas the financial crisis at ITN the impact of the Peacock Committee Report and the 1990 White Paper on Broadcasting as well as detailed accounts of the broadcasters and the regulator's battle with the government over the Broadcasting Bill and the subsequent auction of ITV licences

A Very Private Celebrity Hugh Purcell,2015-07-07

John Freeman was one of Britain's most extraordinary public figures for over half a century a renaissance man who constantly reinvented himself a household name who sought complete anonymity From advertising executive to war hero to MP tipped to be Prime Minister Freeman then changed direction to become a seminal television interviewer and editor of the New Statesman He subsequently remodelled himself yet again to become in turn an ambassador a TV mogul a university professor and finally in retirement a well known bowls player in south London Freeman packed nine lives into his ninety nine years but all he really wanted was to be forgotten The paradox of this private celebrity was captured by the very series that made him famous Face to Face While Freeman remorselessly interrogated the stars of his age he himself sat in the shadows his back to the camera He was the grand inquisitor exposing the personalities behind the public figures but never his own For ten years Hugh Purcell has been tracking Freeman's story trying to come face to face with this enigma who believed in changing his life and his wife every ten years Why did Freeman want to forget what most old men would be proud to remember Why did he try to erase himself from history And yet despite Freeman's best efforts to be ignored his death in 2014 was marked by an enormous outpouring of appreciation and admiration With his life now free from its shroud of inscrutability the true story of this incredibly multifaceted man can finally be told

ITV Cultures Catherine Johnson,Rob Turnock,2005-09-16 This exciting book goes to the heart of a creative commercial and public service culture it shows why ITV matters and how it was made to work so well A tremendous contribution Professor Jean Seaton University of Westminster This is a valuable addition to studies of ITV's history and programming Tom O Malley Professor of Media Studies University of

Wales Aberystwyth and Co Editor of Media History Since breaking the BBC's monopoly in 1955 ITV has been at the centre of the British television landscape To coincide with the fiftieth anniversary of the first ITV broadcast this accessible book offers a range of perspectives on the complex and multifaceted history of Britain's first commercial broadcaster The book explores key tensions and conflicts which have influenced the ITV service Chapters focus on particular institutions including London Weekend Television and ITN and programme forms including Who Wants to be a Millionaire Upstairs Downstairs and Trisha The contributors show that ITV has had to tread an uneasy line between public service and commercial imperatives between a pluralistic regional structure and a national network and between popular appeal and quality programming A timeline of key events in the history of ITV is also included ITV Cultures provides a timely intervention in debates on broadcasting and cultural history for academics and researchers and a lively introduction to the history of ITV for students and general readers Contributors Rod Allen City University Jonathan Bignell University of Reading John Ellis Royal Holloway University of London Jackie Harrison University of Sheffield Jamie Medhurst University of Wales Aberystwyth Matt Hills Cardiff University Steve Neale University of Exeter Helen Wheatley University of Reading Sherryl Wilson Bournemouth University
