Running With Angels:

Running with Angels Kevin M. Dill, 2009-10 This book is the plight of a very young woman who barely reached the age of twenty one before she had given birth to six children it is about the survival of a young boy who endured the wrath of her mental illness for nearly fifteen years before he ran away only to find himself years later sitting at the dinner table with the Vice President of the United States and mingling with former presidents and heads of state This is a story of survival forgiveness and love A story about a child crying out every night for someone to help him understand what was happening to his mother and why she wanted so desperately to kill him and why she never succeeded It is a reminder to us all never to give up A reminder that we have a God who loves us more than He loves Himself A God who would never leave nor forsake us
