Running Amok An Historical Inquiry:

The Deadly Ethnic Riot Donald L. Horowitz, 2023-11-15 Donald L Horowitz's comprehensive consideration of the structure and dynamics of ethnic violence is the first full scale comparative study of what the author terms the deadly ethnic riot an intense sudden lethal attack by civilian members of one ethnic group on civilian members of another ethnic group Serious frequent and destabilizing these events result in large numbers of casualties Horowitz examines approximately 150 such riots in about fifty countries mainly in Asia Africa and the former Soviet Union as well as fifty control cases With its deep and thorough scholarship incisive analysis and profound insights The Deadly Ethnic Riot will become the definitive work on its subject Furious and sadistic the riot is nevertheless directed against a precisely specified class of targets and conducted with considerable circumspection Horowitz scrutinizes target choices participants and organization the timing and supporting conditions for the violence the nature of the events that precede the riot the prevalence of atrocities during the violence the location and diffusion of riots and the aims and effects of riot behavior He finds that the deadly ethnic riot is a highly patterned but emotional event that tends to occur during times of political uncertainty He also discusses the crucial role of rumor in triggering riots the surprisingly limited role of deliberate organization and the striking lack of remorse exhibited by participants Horowitz writes clearly and eloquently without compromising the complexity of his subject With impressive analytical skill he takes up the important challenge of explaining phenomena that are at once passionate and calculative Donald L Horowitz's comprehensive consideration of the structure and dynamics of ethnic violence is the first full scale comparative study of what the author terms the deadly ethnic riot an intense sudden lethal attack by civilian members of one ethn

Violence, Colonialism and Empire in the Modern World Philip Dwyer, Amanda Nettelbeck, 2017-10-17 This book explores the theme of violence repression and atrocity in imperial and colonial empires as well as its representations and memories from the late eighteenth through to the twentieth century It examines the wide variety of violent means by which colonies and empire were maintained in the modern era the politics of repression and the violent structures inherent in empire Bringing together scholars from around the world the book includes chapters on British French Dutch Italian and Japanese colonies and conquests It considers multiple experiences of colonial violence ranging from political dispute to the non lethal violence of everyday colonialism and the symbolic repression inherent in colonial practices and hierarchies These comparative case studies show how violence was used to assert and maintain control in the colonies contesting the long held view that the colonial project was of benefit to colonised peoples

The Lost Geopoetic Horizon of Li Jieren Kenny Kwok-kwan Ng, 2015-03-10 Engaged with the paradigms of cultural geography local history spatial politics and everyday life The Lost Geopoetic Horizon of Li Jieren unveils a Sichuan writer's lifelong quest an independent historical fiction writing project on Chengdu from the turn of the century through China's 1911 Revolution Kenny Kwok kwan Ng's study illuminates the crisis of writing home in a globalized age by rescuing Li Jieren's repeatedly revised but never finished river novel series written from Republican to Communist China struggling to liberate local memory from the national cum revolutionary currents The book undercuts official historiography and rewrites Chinese literary history from the ground up by highlighting Li s resilient geopoetics of writing that decenters the nation by adopting the place based view of a distant province

Emotions as Bio-cultural Processes Birgitt Röttger-Rössler,Hans Jürgen Markowitsch,2009-06-12 Emotions have emerged as a topic of interest across the disciplines yet studies and findings on emotions tend to fall into two camps body versus brain nature versus nurture Emotions as Bio cultural Processes offers a unique collaboration across the biological social divide from psychology and neuroscience to cultural anthropology and sociology as 15 noted researchers develop a common language theoretical basis and methodology for examining this most sociocognitive aspect of our lives Starting with our evolutionary past and continuing into our modern world of social classes and norms these multidisciplinary perspectives reveal the complex interplay of biological social cultural and personal factors at work in emotions with particular emphasis on the nuances involved in pride and shame A sampling of the topics 1 The roles of the brain in emotional processing 2 Emotional development milestones in childhood 3 Social feeling rules and the experience of loss 4 Emotions as commodities The management of feelings and the self help industry 5 Honor and dishonor societal and gender manifestations of pride and shame 6 Emotion regulation and youth culture 7 Pride and shame in the classroom A volume of such wide and integrative scope as Emotions as Bio cultural Processes should attract a large cohort of readers on both sides of the debate among them emotion researchers social and developmental psychologists sociologists social anthropologists and others who analyze the links between humans that on the one hand differentiate us as individuals but on the other hand tie us to our socio cultural worlds

The Romance of Gambling in the Eighteenth-Century British Novel Jessica Richard,2011-05-17 Gambling permeated the daily lives of eighteenth century Britons of all classes This book explicates the relationship between the rampant gambling in eighteenth century England the new forms of gambling inspired capitalism that transformed British society and novels that interrogate the new socio economy of long odds and lucky breaks Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1989 A Most Promising Weed Steven C. Rubert,1998 Thousands of African men women and children worked on European owned tobacco farms in colonial Zimbabwe from 1890 to 1945 Contrary to some commonly held notions these people were not mere bystanders as European capitalism penetrated into Zimbabwe but helped to shape the work and the living conditions they encountered as they entered wage employment Steven Rubert s fine study draws on a rich variety of sources to illuminate the lives of these workers The central focus of the study is the organization of workers compounds the social relationships there and the labor of women and children paid and unpaid Rubert s findings indicate the beginnings of a moral economy on the tobacco farms prior to 1945 Charting Thoughts

Low Sze Wee,Patrick Flores,2017-12-31 A constellation of thoughts by 25 established and emerging scholars who plot the indices of modernity and locate new coordinates within the shifting landscape of art These newly commissioned essays are accompanied by close to 200 full colour image plates Trials of Slavery Nigel Worden, Gerald Groenewald, 2005

Treatments for Anger in Specific Populations Ephrem Fernandez, 2013-08-15 Treatments for Anger in Specific Populations provides information and instruction on empirically supported interventions for anger in various clinical contexts including substance abuse PTSD the intellectually disabled borderline personality disorder children and adolescents and others Ancient Germanic Warriors Michael P. Speidel, 2004-08-02 Fully illustrated with over fifty photographs this book describes the ancient fighting styles and mythical self images of Germanic warriors from 200 BC AD 1000 and presents vivid and fascinating survey that adds a colourful new dimension to our understanding of the history of Europe Running Amok John C. Spores, 1988 Amok one of the few Malay words commonly appearing in English names a syndrome of unpredictable and indiscriminate homicidal behavior with suicidal intent In tracing the development of this behavioral pattern Spores examines historical data including frequently colorful colonialist accounts of such episodes from British Malaya and the Netherlands East Indies during the period 1800 1925 Spores presents a basic etiological distinction between reactive motivated and a spontaneous unmotivated amok the one an intentional act capable of establishing or restoring dignity and self respect the other a result of organic disturbance He also explores the social psychological dynamics of engagement in the two types of solitary amok and suggests possible behavioral chains Further his study demonstrates the impact of social forces and processes of the late nineteenth and early twentieth century which significantly altered factors in traditional Malay society important in generating expressions of solitary amok Running amok demonstrates the utility of bringing historical data to bear on the examination of specific social phenomena particularly suggesting that the understanding of some present day forms of mental disorder or other aberrant or deviant behavior can be facilitated and enriched through such analysis Exploring Islamic Social Work Hansjörg Schmid, Amir Sheikhzadegan, 2022-05-20 This open access book addresses for the first time Islamic social work as an emerging concept at the interface of Islamic thought and social sciences Applying a multidisciplinary approach it explores on the one hand the discourse that provides religious legitimisation to social work activities and on the other hand case studies of practical fields of Islamic social work including educational programmes family counselling and resettlement of prisoners Although in many cases these activities are oriented towards Muslim clients more often than not they go beyond the boundaries of Muslim communities to benefit society as a whole Muslim actors are also starting to professionalise their services and to negotiate the ways in which they can become fully recognised service providers within the welfare state At a more general level the volume also shows that in contrast to the widespread processes of secularisation of social work and its separation from religious communities newtypes of activities are now emerging which bring back to the public arena both an increased sensitivity to the religious identities of the beneficiaries and the religious motivations of the benefactors The edited volume will be of interest to researchers in

Islamic Studies Social and Political Sciences Social Work and Religious Studies This is an open access book Mutiny and Maritime Radicalism in the Age of Revolution Clare Anderson, Niklas Frykman, Lex Heerma van Voss, Marcus Rediker, 2013-12-19 This volume explores mutiny and maritime radicalism in its full geographic extent during the Age of Revolution Century of Genocide Samuel Totten, William S. Parsons, Israel W. Charny, 2004 The Rwandan government forces as well as Cambodia's Khmer Rouge and German Bosnian and U S governments have all been guilty of the destruction of their indigenous cultures This book analyses the major atrocities of our times including recent cases of genocide in Yugoslavia and Iraq Colony, Nation, and Globalisation Eddie Tay, 2010-06-01 The literature of Malaysia and Singapore the multicultural epicentre of Asia offers a rich body of source material for appreciating the intellectual heritage of colonial and postcolonial Southeast Asia Focusing on themes of home and belonging Eddie Tay illuminates many aspects of identity anxiety experienced in the region and helps construct a dialogue between postcolonial theory and the Anglophone literatures of Singapore and Malaysia A chronologically ordered selection of texts is examined including Swettenham Bird Maugham Burgess and Thumboo This genealogy of works includes colonial travel writings and sketches as well as contemporary diasporic novels by Malaysian and Singapore born authors based outside their countries of origin The premise is that home is a physical space as well as a symbolic terrain invested with social political and cultural meanings As discussions of politics and history augment close readings of literary works the book should appeal not only to scholars of literature but also to scholars of Southeast Asian politics and history Islam and the Heroic Image John Renard, 1999 Throughout the world and over many centuries the cultures in which Islam has been a major presence have created stories in word and picture to celebrate the men and women who best exemplify each culture's aspirations This is the story of how those heroic figures have both shaped and been shaped by the religious tradition called Islam Your Madness, Not Mine Juliana Makuchi Abbenyi-Nfah, 1999-02-28 Women's writing in Cameroon has so far been dominated by Francophone writers The short stories in this collection represent the yearnings and vision of an Anglophone woman who writes both as a Cameroonian and as a woman whose life has been shaped by the minority status her people occupy within the nation state The stories in Your Madness Not Mine are about postcolonial Cameroon but especially about Cameroonian women who probe their day to day experiences of survival and empowerment as they deal with gender oppression from patriarchal expectations to the malaise of maldevelopment unemployment and the attraction of the West for young Cameroonians Makuchi has given us powerful portraits of the people of postcolonial Africa in the so called global village who too often go unseen and unheard The ICD-10 Classification of Mental and Behavioural Disorders World Health Organization, 1993-11 The content of Diagnostic criteria for research DCR 10 is derived from chapter V F Mental and behavioural disorders of ICD 10 International Statistical Classification of Diseases and Related Health Problems tenth revision
