Running with the Pack Mark Rowland, 2021-11-15 Most of the serious thinking I have done over the past twenty years has been done while running says philosophy professor Mark Rowlands who has run for most of his life

And for him running and philosophizing are inextricably connected In Running with the Pack he reveals the most significant runs of his life from the entire day he spent running as a boy in Wales to the runs along French beaches and up Irish mountains with his beloved wolf Brenin and through Florida swamps with his husky mix Nina Intertwined with this honest passionate and witty memoir are the fascinating meditations that those runs triggered from mortality midlife and the meaning of life A highly original and moving book that will make the philosophically inclined want to run and those who love running become intoxicated by the beauty of philosophy This Is Running for Your Life Michelle Orange, 2013-02-12

Michelle Orange uses the lens of pop culture to decode the defining characteristics of our media drenched times In This Is Running for Your Life Michelle Orange takes us from Beirut to Hawaii to her grandmother's retirement home in Canada in her quest to understand how people behave in a world increasingly mediated for better and for worse by images and interactivity Orange's essays range from the critical to the journalistic to the deeply personal she seamlessly combines stories from her own life with incisive analysis as she explores everything from the intimacies we develop with celebrities and movie characters to the troubled creation of the most recent edition of the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders With the insight of a young Joan Didion and the empathy of a John Jeremiah Sullivan Orange dives into popular culture and the status quo and emerges with a persuasive and provocative book about how we live now Her singular voice will resonate for years to come

Lives; Running David Renton, 2012 David Renton was in his mid teens a country standard middle distance runner He tells the story of how he began to run and of the influence over him of his father's own career as an international standard rower He portrays running as a step towards a world of freedom and describes his father's own attempts to find ideas that would guide his life

Outrunning the Demons Phil Hewitt, 2019-01-24 THE RUNNING AWARDS BEST CHRISTMAS BOOK an inspiring collection of stories about runners who have run through unimaginable adversity to find perspective resolution and ultimately peace within themselves and with the universe Dean Karnazes a really good book with fascinating stories BBC Radio Four Today Programme Hope through running Written by bestselling author Phil Hewitt Outrunning the Demons is an exploration of the transformative power of running and how it can be the key to unlocking resilience we never knew we had Running can take us to fantastic places Just as importantly it can also bring us back from terrible ones For people in times of crisis trauma and physical or mental illness when normality collapses running can put things back together again After bestselling author Phil Hewitt was viciously mugged stabbed and left for dead in 2016 he found himself suffering the acute symptoms of post traumatic stress disorder Unable to make sense of the horrific experience that had happened to him Phil found that dedicating himself to running was slowly but surely helping him heal Outrunning the Demons is an enriching and celebratory exploration of the transformative power of running and how it can be the key to unlocking resilience we never knew we had Told through 34 deeply affecting real life stories and covering such diverse themes as trauma bereavement addiction depression and anxiety this compelling book is an exposition of just why running can so often be the answer to everything when we find ourselves in extremis Running with the Giants John C. Maxwell, 2008-11-16 Motivational guru John C Maxwell finds inspiration and encouragement in the lives of Old Testament personalities

Running with the Antelope Melanie Carvell, 2014 A memoir of Melanie Carvell's journey from the agricultural village of Mott North Dakota population 732 to world duathlon and triathlon competitions then a splendid career as a physical therapist director of the Sanford Women's Health Center in Bismarck North Dakota and a widely sought after motivational speaker Melanie learned to run on the northern Great Plains where the winters are long and harsh and the wind tests the human spirit She attributes her national and international success to her agrarian roots and the challenge of biking running and swimming in one of the most formidable landscapes of America Her motivational philosophy is If I can do these things given the modesty of my upbringing and the harshness of the Dakota climate so can you Carvell encourages readers to begin a program of athletic training weight loss or general self improvement With loving anecdotes about Carvell's life as a top athlete and her work as a physical therapist Running with the Antelope is part self help book part prairie memoir and part song of love to North Dakota which is undergoing a rapid transformation from its agrarian past to a carbon extraction industrial future

Running for My Life, Winning for Cmt Christine Wodke, 2013-11 Imagine having to pay attention to every step as you run a race so you don't trip and fall Imagine wondering when the blisters and burning in your feet will start Imagine standing at the starting line of a race and wondering if you will have enough energy to finish the race Author Christine Wodke does not have to imagine As an athlete with Charcot Marie Tooth Disorder she faces these challenges every time she lines up to compete in marathons and triathlons Charcot Maire Tooth Disorder or CMT affects 1 in 2 500 Americans or 155 000 people across the nation It is the biggest disease no one has ever heard of When Wodke was diagnosed with CMT in 2010 she realized she was lucky to be running and doing triathlons at all Patients with CMT were once told to go home and rest It was thought exercise would accelerate the condition It didn t seem right to Chris Wodke that no one have ever heard of a disease affecting so many Americans She set the goal of running the Boston Marathon and other high profile events to change public awareness and perception of CMT This is the story of her journey

Running for My Life Warrick Dunn, Don Yaeger, 2009-09-08

Warrick Dunn was only eighteen when his mother a Baton Rouge police officer was shot and killed Yet somehow he managed to enroll at Florida State University and help his team to a national championship during his freshman year while also caring for his five brothers and sisters Despite his modest size Dunn went on to a storied NFL career with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Atlanta Falcons becoming one of only twenty three running backs in NFL history to exceed the 10 000 yard career rushing mark Off the field he created the Warrick Dunn Foundation and its Homes for the Holidays program helping single parents achieve first time home ownership But in his drive to help others the one person Dunn neglected was himself as the pain of his mother s loss led to a spiraling depression that went untreated for years Running for My Life details Dunn s struggle to confront his past and face the grief that consumed him for far too long Thought provoking and uplifting it is the story of an exceptional athlete s secret torment and inspiring courage
