AF Press Clips, 1988-07 A Complicated War William Finnegan, 1992-02-06 Among Africa's suffering is the little known war in Mozambique now in its second decade Finnegan traveled through the country in 1988 to assess the impact of a war waged by guerrillas who are armed and often directed by South Africa He tells a compelling story of rural misery caused by the war which in turn offers a fertile ground for its continuation Finnegan's narrative includes historical background and critical analysis of the Mozambique government whose policies have not created an inclusive framework for the nation Finnegan is drawn to the conclusion that Mozambique's peasants long have been denied the fruits of peace first under centuries of Portuguese colonialism and now as they are exposed to the current war that is destroying their future

Gaining from Trade in Southern Africa C. Jenkins, J. Leape, L. Thomas, 2000-07-31 Policy makers in Southern Africa are increasingly convinced that regional trade liberalization can improve growth performance and stimulate development throughout the region To succeed where previous attempts have failed however governments must address two key issues The first of these is policy coordination the broad range of domestic policies must be made compatible with the proposed trade reforms The second is institution building concerted attention must be devoted to strengthening weak institutions and infrastructure The contributors are among the leading authorities on regional integration in Africa

Urban Resettlements in the Global South Raffael Beier, Amandine Spire, Marie Bridonneau, 2021-09-09 Urban Resettlements in the Global South provides new perspectives on resettlement through an urban studies lens To date resettlement has been theorised through development studies and refugee studies but urban resettlement is also a major dimension of urban development in the Global South and may help to rethink contemporary urban dynamics between spectacular new town developments and rising incidences of eviction and displacement Conceptualising resettlement as a binding notion between production regeneration and destruction demolition of urban space helps to illuminate interdependencies and to underline significant ambiguities within affected people's perspectives towards resettlement projects This volume will offer an interesting selection of ten different case studies with rich empirical data from Latin America North and Sub Saharan Africa and Asia focused on each stage of resettlement before during after relocation through different timescales By offering a frame for analysing and rethinking resettlement within urban studies it will support any scholar or expert dealing with resettlement displacement and housing in an urban context seeking to improve housing and planning policies in and for the city

Compliance or Defiance? Mireia Tutusa, 2019-11-28 Whereas the global water community may have reached consensus on the need for water providers to operate on the basis of commercial principles staff of water utilities are faced with the challenge of implementing these principles in their everyday work In the everyday domain these principles appear to directly conflict with the mandate of water operators to provide water services to all Moreover the socio political economic and bio physical context in which these water operators may be ill suited to implement commercialization In pursuing commercialization these operators adapt reinterpret modify deflect alter or betray the original principles of commercialization during implementation This research takes inspiration from the rich literature on policy implementation and policy translation which argues that policy models need to be transformed and modified if they are to be successfully adopted or implemented This research analyzes the alterations visible in the daily implementation of commercial models of water provisioning and in doing so presents a better understanding of how water operators implement policy prescriptions of commercialization in practice Based on the analysis of the adaptations and re interpretations of the implemented model of commercialization in the different cases this thesis argues that a new way of speaking about commercialization should be developed Underdevelopment and the Transition to Socialism James H. Mittelman,2013-09-24 Underdevelopment and the Transition to Socialism Mozambique and Tanzania evaluates the promise and problems of socialism in the Third World by considering the political economies of Mozambique and Tanzania The aim is to provide a basic account for Marxists and non Marxists alike interested in alternative strategies of development in the Third World It offers a materialist political economy approach that should be useful to an interdisciplinary group of scholars and practitioners The book is organized into four parts Part I maps out purposes and procedures Part II on Mozambique is a factually grounded analysis of an initial conjuncture in the transition to socialism the capture of state power by workers and peasants Part III on Tanzania focuses on another vital step on the way to socialism the nationalization of leading financial institutions and the attempt to place them under the aegis of the immediate producers Part IV knits together the main strands of the foregoing analysis and ties them to the broad themes discussed at the beginning of this book *Country Reports on Human Rights Practices For 2006, Vol. 1, April 2008, 110-2 Joint Committee Print, S.
