recent years it has not been completely dispelled In Colour Coded Constance Backhouse illustrates the tenacious hold that white supremacy had on our legal system in the first half of this century and underscores the damaging legacy of inequality that continues today Backhouse presents detailed narratives of six court cases each giving evidence of blatant racism created and enforced through law The cases focus on Aboriginal Inuit Chinese Canadian and African Canadian individuals taking us from the criminal prosecution of traditional Aboriginal dance to the trial of members of the Ku Klux Klan of Kanada From thousands of possibilities Backhouse has selected studies that constitute central moments in the legal history of race in Canada Her selection also considers a wide range of legal forums including administrative rulings by municipal councils criminal trials before police magistrates and criminal and civil cases heard by the highest courts in the provinces and by the Supreme Court of Canada The extensive and detailed documentation presented here leaves no doubt that the Canadian legal system played a dominant role in creating and preserving racial discrimination A central message of this book is that racism is deeply embedded in Canadian history despite Canada's reputation as a raceless society Winner of the Joseph Brant Award presented by the Ontario Historical Society

Family Films in Global Cinema Noel Brown, Bruce Babington, 2019 With the huge global success of Hollywood family film franchises such as Harry Potter it is unsurprising that there have been many attempts to emulate this success In recent years there has been an explosion in international production of films for both adults and children resulting in an erosion of the dominance of The Disney Company and the other major Hollywood Studios in family film production Family Films in Global Cinema is the first serious examination of films for child and family audiences in a global context Whereas most previous studies of children's films and family films have concerned themselves with Disney this book encompasses both live action and animated films from the Hollywood British Australian East German Russian Indian Japanese and Brazilian cinemas As well as examining international family films previously ignored by scholars the collection also presents a fresh perspective on familiar movies such as The Railway Children The Nightmare Before Christmas Babe and the Harry Potter series Provided by publisher How to Read Literature Like a Professor 3E Thomas C.
