Rupert Hart Davis Man Of Letters:

Rupert Hart-Davis Philip Ziegler, 2004 Full of character gossip and anecdote about literary and theatrical personalities this biography of publisher and man of letters Rupert Hart Davis is the story of literary life in the 20th century The Lyttelton-Hart-Davis Letters George Lyttelton, Lyttelton, 2001-03 This surprising survival has been welcomed by all who know that letters can be the best kind of travelling or bedside reading George Lyttelton was a retired schoolmaster who began to exchange letters with Rupert Hart Davis a London publisher one of Lyttelton's students at Eton The correspondence began in 1955 when Lyttelton was 72 and Hart Davis was 48 The Power of Chance Rupert Hart-Davis, 1991 This continues the author's autobiography from the age of nineteen A Man of Letters V.S. Pritchett, 2011-10-28 V S Pritchett is widely and justly regarded not only as one of the finest short story writers of this century but as a critic and essayist of astonishing range perception and originality Combining an unpretentious common sense with a rare genius for the illuminating insight into the familiar and the neglected alike his criticism is all the more valuable in an age in which the study of literature has become increasingly arid and arcane and unlike so many of his academic counterparts V S Pritchett has always had a remarkable ability to epitomise a writer's work and convey his own enthusiasm for it within the compass of a short and eminently accessible essay First published in 1985 A Man of Letters brings together a selection of his finest and most representative work from the past forty years ranging from Smollett and Peacock to Evelyn Waugh and Cyril Connolly from Henry James and Nathanael West to Stendhal and Proust from Nabokov and Machado de Assis to Manzoni and Dostoevsky This wise and sparkling collection is in itself a lasting tribute to one of the greatest Men of Letters of our time

Hugh Walpole Rupert Hart-Davis, 1952 Biografie van de Engelse schrijver Hugh Semour Walpole 1884 1941 Zuleika Dobson Max Beerbohm, 2014-05-10 Zuleika Dobson or an Oxford love story is the only novel by English essayist Max Beerbohm a satire of undergraduate life at Oxford published in 1911 It includes the famous line Death cancels all engagements and presents a corrosive view of Edwardian Oxford The all male campus of Oxford Beerbohm's alma mater is a place where aesthetics holds sway above all else and where witty intellectuals reign Things haven't changed for its privileged student body for years until the beguiling music hall prestidigitator Zuleika Dobson shows up The book's marvelous prose dances along the line between reality and the absurd as students and dons alike fall at Zuleika's feet and she cuts a wide swath across the campus until she encounters one young aristocrat for whom she is astonished to find she has feelings As Zuleika and her creator zero in on their targets the book takes some surprising and dark twists on its way to a truly startling ending an ending so striking that readers will understand why Virginia Woolf said that Mr Beerbohm in his way is perfect In 1998 the Modern Library ranked Zuleika Dobson 59th on its list of the 100 best English language novels of the 20th century
