The 'Social' as Metaphor and the Case of Cooperatives Marie L. Pellegrin-Rescia, 2019-01-15 Drawing on Polanyi Austin and Lacan Marie Pellegrin Rescia and Yair Levi offer a powerful critique of the language and categories of thought that dominate the contemporary intellectual and political landscape The general tendency to dichotomize concepts such as left and right social and economic globalization and anti globalization is they argue a consequence of our subservience to the primacy of the rational economic agent The authors offer a selection of case studies of co operatives which are shown to be paradoxical entities in a worldview in which the social exists only as a metaphor for a space concerned with the damage caused by the economic Through an analysis of experiences in achieving civil accord in South Africa and in establishing a new town in the mountains of Sicily they offer a new political orientation in a world of uncertainty In doing so they attempt an answer to one of the most intriguing questions of our time should we accept as a fait accompli the way our society is conceived and shaped or can we have a say in the matter and assume the ethical responsibility involved

Capitalist Colonial Matan Kaminer, 2024-11-26 For decades the agricultural settlements of Israel's arid Central Arabah prided themselves on their labor Zionist commitment to abstaining from hiring outside labor But beginning in the late 1980s the region's agrarian economy was rapidly transformed by the removal of state protections a shift to export oriented monoculture and an influx of disenfranchised ill paid migrants from northeast Thailand Isaan Capitalist Colonial Matan Kaminer s ethnography of the region and its people argues that the paid and unpaid labor of Thai migrants has been essential to resolving the clashing demands of the bottom line and Zionist ideology here as elsewhere in Israel s farm sector Kaminer s account mobilizes capitalism and colonialism as a combined analytical frame to comprehend the forms of domination prevailing in the Arabah Placing the findings of fieldwork as a farm laborer within the ecological economic and political histories of the Arabah and Isaan Kaminer draws surprising connections between the violent takeover of peripheral regions the imposition of agrarian commodity production and the emergence of transnational labor flows Insisting on the liberatory possibilities immanent in the interaction ideologies found among both migrant workers and settler employers and raising the question of the place of migrants who are neither Jewish nor Arab in visions of decolonization this book demonstrates anthropology s ongoing relevance to the struggle for local and global transformations
