Rural life in process ,1940      The Sociology of Rural Life Samantha Hillyard,2007-07-15 Foot and mouth disease and BSE have both had a devastating impact on rural society Alongside these devastating developments the rise of the organic food movement has helped to revitalize an already politicized rural population From fox hunting to farming the vigour with which rural activities and living are defended overturns received notions of a sleepy and complacent countryside Over the years rural life has been defined redefined and eventually fallen out of fashion as a sociological concept in contrast to urban studies which has flourished This much needed reappraisal calls for its reinterpretation in light of the profound changes affecting the countryside First providing an overview of rural sociology Hillyard goes on to offer contemporary case studies that clearly demonstrate the need for a reinvigorated rural sociology Tackling a range of contentious issues from fox hunting to organic farming this book offers a new model for rural sociology and reassesses its role in contemporary society

Images and Realities of Rural Life Henk de Haan,1997      Rural Life Charles Josiah Galpin,1918 The purpose of this book is to instigate observation of local conditions study of the community and confident self reliant action among and for country people Rural life has changed markedly and will continue to do so On farms and in farming towns human forces are striving for expression and human society needs active energetic participation to change successfully Country dwellers are no longer isolated from their urban fellows and as such can contribute much to solving the current problems of rural life colonial periods Drawing on oral archival and empirical data from eastern India it highlights the interconnected themes of inflection of identity the change of the Adivasis from historic agents to colonial subjects and their arcadia to a servile landscape and the indigenous notion of state It also initiates a dialogue between the past and present to bring into sharp relief ideas of village community indigeneity migration governance colonialism agency subjecthood rural change environment and ecology Redefining the study of rural sociology in South Asia this volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of modern Indian history politics development studies sociology social and cultural anthropology Adivasi and indigenous studies and South Asian studies      The Trajectories of Rural Life University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, Saskatchewan Institute of Public Policy, 2003 Rural communities have been profoundly affected by recent political economic demographic and cultural change In Canada the impacts of these changes are all about us in the absolute population declines in Saskatchewan and Newfoundland in the crises of the east and west coast fisheries in the farm crisis in serious ecological problems and in the reorientation of rural social services There is a tendency to view these problems in stark terms as part of a qualitatively new era in Canadian history triggered perhaps by the forces of globalization or urbanization or the rise of the service sector economy In important ways however the problems of rural Canada are not particularly new Rural migration pollution wildlife conservation and other matters have been long standing persistent concerns of rural Canadians This book attempts to both resist the seemingly persistent urge to romanticize and prognosticate about rural Canada and the people who live geographically outside the urban environment and suggest different ways of looking at rural life In this sense its goal is to build upon an increasingly strong base of research and writing on rural Canada to suggest different perspectives on the countryside the small town the environment and the landscape      COMUNIICA ,2006-07 COMUNIICA online is the technical journal of the Inter American Institute for Cooperation on Agriculture IICA It is published quarterly in Spanish and English all articles include an abstract in English or Spanish and in Portuguese and French      Land Policy Review ,1941-03      Rural Life in Process ...
