Hater John Semley, 2018-10-23 A timely manifesto urging us to think critically form opinions and then argue them with gusto Hater begins from a simple premise that it's good to hate things Not people or groups or benign belief systems but things More to the point it's good to hate the things everyone seems to like Scan the click baiting headlines of your favorite news or pop culture website and you're likely to find that just about everything is supposedly what we need right now We are the victims of an unbridled unearned optimism And our world demands pessimism It's vital to be contrarian now as they say more than ever Because ours is an age of calcified consensus And we should all hate that In this scathing and funny rebuke of the status quo journalist John Semley illustrates that looking for and identifying nonsense isn't just a useful exercise for society it's also a lot of fun But Hater doesn't just skewer terrible TV shows and hit songs at its core it shows us how to meaningfully talk about and engage with culture and the world Ultimately Hater is what we actually need right now
