by Jill Charlotte Stanford The Cowgirl's Cookbook: Keep Cookin' Cowgirl features the words of a wide range of Western women poets chosen for this collection by real ranching women and cowgirls across the West as the poets whose words most speak to them and the Western experience Cowboy Poetry Hal Cannon, 1985 This collection of poems was chosen from among 10 000 gathered from cowboy reciters, ranch poets and from a library of over 200 published works of cowboy verse. One third of the poems are classics that have proven their vitality by having lived in the hearts and minds of cowboys and ranchers for decades. The remaining two thirds are new, created within the last few years. Most cowboy poems speak of real events and people from bucking horses and cagey cows to old Stetson hats and long winter travels. Although they focus on the ordinary stuff of life, their truths seem no less eternal than those penned by William Shakespeare. Some cowboy poems are just a gut funny, a few are downright dirty, most carry an honest primitive power. Michael Riley, TIME Magazine The Cowboy in Country Music Don Cusic, 2011-07-29 This series of biographical profiles shines a spotlight on that special place where the West meets the Guitar. From Gene Autry and Roy Rogers to contemporary artists like Michael Murphy, Red Steagall, Don Edwards and Riders in the Sky, many entertainers have performed music of the West, a genre separate from mainstream country music and yet an important part of the country music heritage. Once called Country and Western, it is now described as Country or Western. Though much has been written about Country, very little has been written about Western until now. Featured are a number of photos of the top stars in Western music past and present. Also included is an extensive bibliography of works related to the Western music field American Cowboy, 1999-03 Published for devotees of the cowboy and the West, American Cowboy covers all aspects of the Western lifestyle, delivering the best in entertainment, personalities, travel, rodeo, action, human interest, art, poetry, fashion, food, horsemanship, history and every other facet of Western culture.
