During the early stages of Australian Music there was disagreement about what the idea itself ought to represent and indeed whether the idea ought to apply at all Michael Hooper considers various perspectives offered by such composers as Peter Sculthorpe Richard Meale and Nigel Butterley and analyzes some of the era's significant works to articulate a complex understanding of Australian Music at its inception Margaret Olley Margaret Olley, Meg Stewart, Kezia Geddes, 2006-01-01 Limited to an edition of 1000 numbered copies The Diaries of Donald Friend Donald Friend, 2001 Donald Friend's legendary years in Bali in the 1960s and 1970s and his subsequent final decade in Australia are revealed in detail in this fourth and final volume of The Diaries of Donald Friend In Bali he lives luxuriously like a lord even keeping his own gamelan orchestra and becomes an international celebrity artist He welcomes guests such as Mick Jagger and the Duke and Duchess of Bedford entertains numerous other visitors who want to buy his paintings and drawings and socialises freely with friends including many other artists He engages in significant building activity and property development while also producing superb illustrated manuscripts and books And despite increasing ill health Friend continues to revel in his life's drama and creativity remaining an eloquent often charming and sometimes irascible companion Including over 60 drawings from his diaries many of them in colour this volume confirms Friend's quicksilver creative brilliance and extraordinary insight He is perhaps Australia's most important twentieth century diarist Russell Drysdale Russell Drysdale, Art Gallery of New South Wales, 1960 Letter by Russell Drysdale to H.W.
