Strangers Arrive Leonard Bell, 2017-11-17 None of us had the faintest idea where we were going but during 1938-39 the town Christchurch was made strangely interesting for anyone like myself with the scattered arrival of the refugees All at once there were people among us who were actually from Vienna or Chemnitz or Berlin who knew the work of Schoenberg and Gropius Anthony Alpers 1985 From the 1930s through the 1950s a substantial number of forced migrants refugees from Nazism displaced people after World War II and escapees from Communist countries arrived in New Zealand from Europe Among them were an extraordinary group of artists and writers photographers and architects whose European modernism radically reshaped the arts in this country In words and pictures Strangers Arrive tells their story Ranging across the arts from photographer Irene Koppel to art dealer and printmaker Kees Hos architect Imric Porsolt to writer Antigone Kefala Leonard Bell takes us inside New Zealand's bookstores and coffeehouses studios and galleries to introduce us to a compelling body of artistic work He asks key questions How were migrants received by New Zealanders How did displacement and settlement in New Zealand transform their work How did the arrival of European modernists intersect with the burgeoning nationalist movement in the arts in New Zealand Strangers Arrive introduces us to a talented group of aliens who were critical catalysts for change in New Zealand culture

Tony Fomison Mark Forman, 2025-03-13 he wanted to make room at the back of our heads From the introduction by the author In a career spanning three decades Tony Fomison 1939 activist archaeologist and scholar trickster addict and disrupter and above all else an artist who shed light on the human condition and reimaged life in Aotearoa In this compelling biography developed over more than a decade Mark Forman draws on archival material and interviews with more than 150 people including Fomison's family and close friends leading contemporary artists political activists and art professionals The result is a comprehensive yet lively and accessible biography that reveals the man and his art to a new generation of readers

Anne Perry and the Murder of the Century Peter Graham, 2013-03-20 On June 22 1954 teenage friends Juliet Hulme better known as bestselling mystery writer Anne Perry and Pauline Parker went for a walk in a New Zealand park with Pauline's mother Honora Half an hour later the girls returned alone claiming that Pauline's mother had had an accident But when Honora Parker was found in a pool of blood with the brick used to bludgeon her to death close at hand Juliet and Pauline were quickly arrested and later confessed to the killing Their motive A plan to escape to the United States to become writers and Honora's determination to keep them apart Their incredible story made shocking headlines around the world and would provide the subject for Peter Jackson's Academy Award nominated film Heavenly Creatures A sensational trial followed with speculations about the nature of the girls relationship and possible insanity playing a key role Among other things Parker and Hulme were suspected of lesbianism which was widely considered to be a mental illness at the time This mesmerizing book offers a brilliant account of the crime and ensuing trial and shares dramatic revelations about the fates of the young women after their release from prison With penetrating insight this thorough analysis applies modern psychology to analyze the shocking murder that remains one of the most interesting cases of all time

Trevor Moffitt Chris Ronayne,2006 Trevor Moffitt is a detailed and fascinating illustrated biography of a unique and successful New Zealand painter Born in 1936 to a poor Southland family where of necessity a hunter gatherer mentality prevailed young Trevor set his mind on art school and becoming an artist There were many hurdles to overcome His father told him to leave school at age fifteen and when Trevor refused his father didn t speak to him for years and left him to finance his own schooling clothing and other necessities He succeeded in attending the art school at Ilam and wanted to paint New Zealand but in his own way where people were as important as the landscape But to be producing figurative and narrative work when all around him were creating international modernism was considered by some to be missing the point Furthermore his bold direct expressionist style was considered almost primitive and this led to slow recognition of his talent Trevor Moffitt supported his family through the difficult early years by teaching secondary school art where he eventually headed a large department at Burnside High School in Christchurch and proved to be an excellent administrator While still not achieving wide acclaim he resigned from teaching in the 1980s and stuck doggedly to his task Trevor Moffitt became arguably New Zealand s leading narrative painter producing series such as the Gold Miners Mackenzie My Father s Life Stanley Graham and Hokonui Moonshine Very much a humanist he completed three Human Condition series He died in April 2006

Histoire Du Théâtre Au Canada, 1983

Hindu Mythology: Vedic and Puranic W. J. Wilkins, 1882-01-01 BEFORE speaking of the Vedic Deities it is necessary that something be said concerning the Vedas themselves the source of our information concerning them The root of the word is vid to know hence the term Veda signifies knowledge and as these books were not written for centuries after they were originally composed it signifies knowledge that was heard or orally communicated The Vedas are not the work of a single person but according to popular belief were communicated to a number of Rishis or saints who in their turn transmitted them to their disciples The Seer Vyasa is styled the arranger or as we should now say the editor of these works The instruction contained in these writings is said to have been breathed forth by God Himself Other writers teach that it issued from Him like smoke from fire Sometimes the Vedas are said to have sprung from the elements The accounts of their origin though differing in form agree in teaching that they were the direct gift of God to man and hence they are regarded with the greatest veneration They are the special property of the Brahmans As early as Manu the nominal author or compiler of a law book probably not more than two or three centuries later than the Vedas though some suppose it to have been no earlier than A D 500 it was regarded as a grave offence for a single word of these divinely given books to be heard by a man of a lower caste The Vedas are four in number of these the Rig Veda is the oldest next in order was the Yajur Veda then the Sama Veda and last of all the Atharva Veda Each of these Vedas consists of two main parts a Sanhita or collection of mantras or hymns and a Brahmana containing ritualistic precept and illustration which stands in somewhat the same relation to the Sanhita as the Talmud to the Law In these are found instructions to the priests who conduct the worship of the gods addressed in the hymns Attached to each Brahmana is an Upanishad containing secret or mystical doctrine These are regarded as of lesser authority than the Mantras and Brahmanas For whilst they are spoken of as Sruti i e heard the Upanishads are Smriti learned Though based on the older compositions if there is any discrepancy between them the teaching of the later ones is rejected The Sanhita and Brahmana are for the Brahmans generally the Upanishads for philosophical inquirers Yet strange to say whereas the older portions had until recent years been almost entirely neglected with some parts of the Upanishads there was considerable acquaintance amongst the learned pundits of Benares and other places In many parts of India not a man could be found able to read and interpret them Of the Sanhitas the Rig Veda Sanhita containing one thousand and seventeen hymns is by far the most important whilst the Atharva Veda Sanhita though generally held to be the most recent is perhaps the most interesting Moreover these are the only two Vedic hymn books worthy of being called separate original collections the others being almost entirely made up of extracts from the Rig Veda Between the time of the composition of the Rig Veda and that of the Atharva considerable changes in the religious faith of the people had come about The childlike trust of the earlier hymns has disappeared and the deities now seem more cruel and there is greater need of propitiatory offerings Probably the old religion of the people whom they had conquered had begun to tell on that of the Aryans

The Resurrection of Philip Clairmont Martin Edmond,1999 This mingling of biography autobiography and art history has at its centre the life and art of the painter Philip Clairmont a tortured figure who died by his own hand in 1984 Meeting those who were close to Clairmont and observing where he lived and what he left behind Martin Edmond makes his own journey But he also brings to light facts not previously known or understood about Clairmont s childhood and family his education and growth as an artist his ideas about art and the artistic vocation He explores his relationships with fellow artists and with mentors as well as his more personal roles as son husband and father Edmond is unswerving in his respect for the great Clairmont paintings and in his compassionate identification with the totality of his artistic commitment

Making Ends Meet Ian Wedde,2005 Passionate witty and erudite these essays by a radical curator describe how museums approach their sometimes conflicting missions to sponsor scholarship generate popular appeal and claim social significance This analysis includes discussions of art and ethnology the failure of late Modernist art history the construction of official culture the intellectual history of European exploration in the Pacific problems with cultural studies of the Pakeha Maori and the conservation of archives and narratives

Thirteen Satires of Juvenal Juvenal,1880 An Etymological Dictionary of the Latin Language Francis Edward Jackson Valpy,1828 An Etymological Dictionary of the Latin Language by Francis Edward Jackson Valpy first published in 1828 is a rare manuscript the original residing in one of the great libraries of the world This book is a reproduction of that original which has been scanned and cleaned by state of the art publishing tools for better readability and enhanced appreciation Restoration Editors mission is to bring long out of print manuscripts back to life Some smudges annotations or unclear text may still exist due to permanent damage to the original work We believe the literary significance of the text justifies offering this reproduction allowing a new generation to appreciate it
