Rudolf Steiner, Life and Work: 1923: The Burning of the Goetheanum Peter Selg, 2018-04-23 Try to become one with the world that will be the best and most important program It is something that cannot be contained in statutes but needs to burn in our hearts as a flame Rudolf Steiner In 1923 Central Europe was still in disarray and social chaos created by the polarizing events of World War I In volume 6 of his seven volume biography of Rudolf Steiner Peter Selg focuses on one of the most tragic years for the anthroposophical movement including especially the rise of nationalism and the seeds of hatred spawned by Adolf Hitler and his followers The very beginning of that pivotal year began with the destruction of the nearly finished Goetheanum building in Dornach Switzerland delivering a heavy blow to the Anthroposophical Society and to Rudolf Steiner both spiritually and on a personal level It was evident that the fire had been caused by arson and Steiner immediately expressed determination to rebuild and move forward despite the friction in the Anthroposophical Society and the movement as a whole Steiner noted It will not be viable if things continue as before suggesting that the Society needed to be suffused with the will to wake up because then it can inspire an awakening of the present civilization as a whole He devoted the remainder of 1923 indeed his life to that cause was to pave the way to Christ Indeed at the conclusion of these lectures Rudolf Steiner said It will come to be understood that Christianity is only beginning its influence and will fulfill its real mission only when it is understood in its true spiritual form The more these lectures are understood in this sense the better they will be understood as they were intended This volume is essential if one is to truly understand Rudolf Steiner's understanding of esoteric Christianity and its place in the world today and in the future This volume is a translation of Das Johannes Evangelium GA 103

Rudolf Steiner on His Book "The Philosophy of Freedom" Otto Palmer, 1975 Eternal becoming in thinking Every step a deepening Overcoming the surface Penetrating the depths Rudolf Steiner Much has been written by students of spiritual science on The Philosophy of Freedom but the advantage of discovering what the author himself had to say about this most important and seminal work should be obvious Not only were the words of the text chosen most carefully but also its very structure was intended to become a powerful inner experience for the careful reader In a sense all of the works that flowed from Rudolf Steiner in the following years were to elaborate on this great work At the age of twenty seven Rudolf Steiner was beset by questions related to outer human life whereas inner human nature had been revealing itself to him with increasing clarity as a world of reality In all his works Steiner had relied on contemplation of that inner world which led to writing The Philosophy of Freedom His intention was to join inner and outer so that true inner work would lead to fully incarnating as human beings The book that resulted became a pillar of anthroposophic practice and essential study for every student of inner development Otto Palmer has provided an invaluable service by extracting numerous references from the words of Rudolf Steiner providing keys to the deeper meanings behind the words of The Philosophy of Freedom making it more accessible and meaningful to readers

Biography Rudolf Steiner, 2009 The path of an individual human life our biography is a kind of mystery Despite the abundance of published biographies and autobiographies of celebrities and historical figures scientific study of human biography remains in its infancy with little understanding of the inherent laws in the path of an individual's life Yet as Rudolf Steiner shows here every biography regardless of one's place in life or a person's perceived importance or success is ruled by archetypal influences, patterns and laws. This broad-ranging anthology addresses critical and still unanswered questions: What are the effects of education, especially contrasting educational methods, on later life? How are the stages of one's life interrelated? Do the effects of events on the individual become immediately evident or is their true impact delayed, perhaps for decades? To what extent can we shape the stages of our individual biographies? How much freedom of choice do we have and how much of life is predetermined? Drawing on his capacity for higher knowledge through spiritual research, Steiner describes the human individuality as a being with a continuing existence both before birth and beyond death. Our eternal being experiences a myriad of conditions and situations, the effects of which may be observed in one's biography. This book addresses these and other issues such as freedom and destiny, the effects of heredity, illness and the impact of education, offering answers based on a profound knowledge of the human being.

Reincarnation and Immortality Rudolf Steiner, 1970. Rudolf Steiner's science of spirit, occult wisdom is presented here in a way that is readily understood by the modern reader through five lectures and one essay presented to the general public. In keeping with all of Steiner's writings, this book is in line with the Western esoteric tradition and the great esotericists of the West. With a short introduction on Steiner's life, the themes are developed in modern terms. Steiner shows that immortality is not just a continuation of life after death but also involves a continuation of life in the spiritual world through reincarnation in the physical world. He shows how we can begin to understand the mysteries of reincarnation and immortality by developing our higher faculties of imagination, inspiration and intuition. Steiner also explores the mysteries of the human being, human evolution, the nature of Anthroposophy and social issues. This small book is an excellent introduction to Anthroposophy and the Western concepts of reincarnation and karma.

The Philosophy of Spiritual Activity Rudolf Steiner, 2007-05. Dr. Ehrenfried Pfeiffer writes: "Research carried on since 1925 has shown that the formation and arrangement of crystals during the process of crystallization can under certain conditions be greatly influenced by the admixture of various substances. Hence from these alterations in form a priori conclusions can be drawn about the qualities and characteristics of the admixture itself. This is an essential element in his work of analyzing the health and qualities of human blood as an aid in the process of diagnoses."
