Musicophilia Oliver Sacks, 2010-02-05 What goes on in human beings when they make or listen to music What is it about music what gives it such peculiar power over us power delectable and beneficent for the most part but also capable of uncontrollable and sometimes destructive force Music has no concepts it lacks images it has no power of representation it has no relation to the world And yet it is evident in all of us we tap our feet we keep time hum sing conduct music mirror the melodic contours and feelings of what we hear in our movements and expressions In this book Oliver Sacks explores the power music wields over us a power that sometimes we control and at other times don't He explores in his inimitable fashion how it can provide access to otherwise unreachable emotional states how it can revivify neurological avenues that have been frozen evoke memories of earlier lost events or states or bring those with neurological disorders back to a time when the world was much richer This is a book that explores like no other the myriad dimensions of our experience of and with music
