If Christopher Benfey, 2019-07-09 A New York Times Notable Book of 2019 A unique exploration of the life and work of Rudyard Kipling in Gilded Age America from a celebrated scholar of American literature At the turn of the twentieth century Rudyard Kipling towered over not just English literature but the entire literary world At the height of his fame in 1907 he was awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature becoming its youngest winner His influence on major figures including Freud and William James was pervasive and profound But in recent decades Kipling's reputation has suffered a strange eclipse Though his body of work still looms large and his monumental poem If is quoted and referenced by politicians athletes and ordinary readers alike his unabashed imperialist views have come under increased scrutiny In If scholar Christopher Benfey brings this fascinating and complex writer to life and for the first time gives full attention to Kipling's intense engagement with the United States a rarely discussed but critical piece of evidence in our understanding of this man and his enduring legacy Benfey traces the writer's deep involvement with America over one crucial decade from 1889 to 1899 when he lived for four years in Brattleboro Vermont and sought deliberately to turn himself into a specifically American writer It was his most prodigious and creative period as well as his happiest during which he wrote The Jungle Book and Captains Courageous Had a family dispute not forced his departure Kipling almost certainly would have stayed Leaving was the hardest thing he ever had to do Kipling said There are only two places in the world where I want to live he lamented Bombay and Brattleboro And I can't live in either In this fresh examination of Kipling Benfey hangs a provocative what if over Kipling's American years and maps the imprint Kipling left on his adopted country as well as the imprint the country left on him If proves there is relevance and magnificence to be found in Kipling's work      Rudyard Kipling in New England Howard Crosby Rice, 1951
