Das Schweizer Buch, 1981      Bibliographie der deutschsprachigen Arabistik und Islamkunde: Bd. III.

Arabische Sprache. Philologie ; IV. Poesie und Prosa Fuat Sezgin, 2006 Addressing the development of literary criticism and theory within the cultural ideological historical and institutional parameters of their growth this volume provides simultaneously a stimulating introduction to theoretical engagement in the humanities while also offering lucidly written critical interventions into current theory and criticism Furthermore while remaining aware of the importance of various contexts within which criticism has grown the essays also concern themselves with the cross fertilization between the various academic and intellectual cultures under consideration With more than 100 essays from an internationally renowned body of scholars all of whom are recognized experts in their respective fields The Edinburgh Encyclopaedia of Modern Criticism and Theory offers student readers scholars and libraries a unique challenging and indispensable reference guide      Subject Catalog, 1982 Library of Congress, 1982      National Union Catalog, Includes entries for maps and atlases      Subject Catalog Library of Congress,      Bibliographie der Deutschsprachigen Arabistik und Islamkunde: Autoren I-L Fuat Sezgin, 1992      National Union Catalog, 1982, 1983      Bibliographie der deutschsprachigen Arabistik und Islamkunde: Bd. I-L, 1992      Deutsche Nationalbibliographie und Bibliographie des im Ausland erschienenen Deutschsprachigen Schrifttums, 1982      Deutsche Nationalbibliographie und Bibliographie des im Ausland erschienenen deutschsprachigen Schrifttums, 1982      Deutsche Bibliographie, 1987      Grammars of Identity/alterity Gerd Baumann, André Gingrich, 2004 Issues of the construction of Self and Other normally in the context of social exclusion of those perceived as different have assumed a new urgency This collection offers a fresh perspective on the ongoing debates on these questions in the social sciences and the humanities by focusing specifically on one theoretical proposition namely that the seemingly universal processes of identity formation and exclusion of the other can be differentiated according to three modalities All contributors directly engage with rigorous empirical testing and theoretical cross examination of this proposition Their results have direct implications not only for a more differentiated understanding of collective identities but also for a better understanding of extreme collective violence and genocide      The Blacksmith's Daughter Selim Özdoğan, 2022-01-05 A young girl navigates the joys and sorrows of rural life on the cusp of the modern world in mid twentieth century Turkey A close knit family is transformed forever when its matriarch tragically dies leaving behind a husband Timur the blacksmith and their three young daughters The Blacksmith's Daughter follows the life of the eldest daughter G l who is growing up in rural Turkey in the 1940s and 50s When Timur remarries the girl's new stepmother has none of their mother's warmth so G l feels compelled to take on the role of mother to her younger siblings Their village upbringing is full of simple pleasures summer evenings sat outside listening to the radio games played in the street But the world is evolving and with an emerging focus on economic growth and prosperity as modernity creeps in G l s future is unknown Through all the hardships and uncertainty what remains ever constant is the close bond she shares with her father who deeply respects and cherishes his first born The Blacksmith s Daughter is an enchanting glimpse into how a young girl navigates loss identity and altered family dynamics while her simple way of life is changing too G l is often frustratingly reticent like a character in a 19th century novel unwilling to say the very thing that will save her But because we readers see her in such detail and are aware of her every thought we feel everything she feels in this exceptionally fine beautifully translated novel Declan O Driscoll The Irish Times Reading it was like falling in love If everyone read this book the world would be a better place more considerate more liveable more tolerant Fatih Ak n director of the film The Edge of Heaven The Story of Jazz Joachim Ernst

Edgar,2016-04 The war in the Middle East is marked by a lack of cultural knowledge on the part of the western forces and this book deals with another widely ignored element of Islam the role of dreams in everyday life The practice of using night dreams to make important life decisions can be traced to Middle Eastern dream traditions and practices that preceded the emergence of Islam In this study the author explores some key aspects of Islamic dream theory and interpretation as well as the role and significance of night dreams for contemporary Muslims In his analysis of the Islamic debates surrounding the role of true dreams in historical and contemporary Islamic prophecy the author specifically addresses the significance of Al Qaeda and Taliban dream practices and ideology Dreams of heaven for example are often instrumental in determining Jihadist suicidal action and heavenly dreams are also evidenced within other contemporary human conflicts such as Israel Palestine and Kosovo Serbia By exploring patterns of dreams within this context a cross cultural psychological and experiential understanding of the role and significance of such contemporary critical political and personal imagery can be achieved Only Yesterday S. Y. Agnon, 2019-02-26 When Israeli Nobel Laureate S Y Agnon published the novel Only Yesterday in 1945 it quickly became recognized as a major work of world literature not only for its vivid historical reconstruction of Israel's founding society The book tells a seemingly simple tale about a man who immigrates to Palestine with the Second Aliya the several hundred idealists who returned between 1904 and 1914 to work the Hebrew soil as in Biblical times and revive Hebrew culture This epic novel also engages the reader in a fascinating network of meanings contradictions and paradoxes all leading to the question what if anything controls human existence Seduced by Zionist slogans young Isaac Kumer imagines the Land of Israel filled with the financial social and erotic opportunities that were denied him the son of an impoverished shopkeeper in Poland Once there he cannot find the agricultural work he anticipated Instead Isaac happens upon house painting jobs as he moves from secular Zionist Jaffa where the ideological fervor and sexual freedom are alien to him to ultra orthodox anti Zionist Jerusalem While some of his Zionist friends turn capitalist becoming successful merchants his own life remains adrift and impoverished in a land torn between idealism and practicality a place that is at once homeland and diaspora Eventually he marries a religious woman in Jerusalem after his worldly girlfriend in Jaffa rejects him Led astray by circumstances Isaac always ends up in the place opposite of where he wants to be but why The text soars to Surrealist Kafkaesque dimensions when in a playful mode Isaac drips paint on a stray dog writing Crazy Dog on his back Causing panic wherever he roams the dog takes over the story until after enduring persecution for so long without understanding why he really does go mad and bites Isaac The dog has been interpreted as everything from the embodiment of Exile to a daemonic force and becomes an unforgettable character in a book about the death of God the deception of discourse the power of suppressed eroticism and the destiny of a people depicted in all its darkness and promise
