Moran,2013-01-06 Since the late 1990s when broadcasters began adapting such television shows as Big Brother Survivor and Who Wants to Be a Millionaire for markets around the world the global television industry has been struggling to come to grips with the prevalence of program franchising across international borders In TV Format Mogul Albert Moran traces the history of this phenomenon through the lens of Australian producer Reg Grundy s transnational career Program copycatting Moran shows began long before its most recent rise to prominence Indeed he reveals that the practice of cultural and commercial cloning from one place to another and one time to another has occurred since the early days of broadcasting Beginning in the late 1950s Grundy brought non Australian shows to Australian audiences becoming the first person to take local productions to an overseas market By following Grundy s career Moran shows how adaptation and remaking became the billion dollar business they are today An exciting new contribution from Australia s foremost scholar of television TV Format Mogul will be a definitive history of program franchising      Sit Down and Cheer Martin Kelner,2012-09-27

Television and sport is the ultimate marriage of convenience The two circled each other warily for a while sport anxious the sofa bound might spurn the live product TV reluctant in a limited channel world to hand over too much screen time to flannelled fools and muddied oafs But they got together and stayed together for the sake of the money and now you cannot imagine one without the other They are indivisible like an old couple sitting in a teashop finishing each other s sentences and there is little doubt which is the dominant partner You have only to think of the recent sports stars who have left their muddy fields to don sequins grab partners and tango their way across the stage in ultimate Saturday night television style to see how far the two have come on their journey together In Sit Down and Cheer Martin Kelner traces the development of this relationship from its humble origins in the 1960 Olympics by way of the first ever Match of the Day in 1964 through to the financial impact of Sky right up to the high tech gadgetry of our present day viewing Insightful and very funny this is an entertaining exploration of two major national pastimes and not to be missed
