Rugs to Riches Dusty Henson, Bonnie Henson, 2001 Disruptive Voices and the Singularity of Histories Regna

Darnell, Frederic W. Gleach, 2019-11-01 Histories of Anthropology Annual presents diverse perspectives on the discipline's history within a global context with a goal of increasing awareness and use of historical approaches in teaching learning and conducting anthropology The series includes critical comparative analytical and narrative studies involving all aspects and subfields of anthropology Volume 13 Disruptive Voices and the Singularity of Histories explores the interplay of identities and scholarship through the history of anthropology with a special section examining fieldwork predecessors and indigenous communities in Native North America Individual contributions explore the complexity of women's history indigenous history national traditions and oral histories to juxtapose what we understand of the past with its present continuities These contributions include Sharon Lindenburger's examination of Franz Boas and his navigation with Jewish identity Kathy M Closkey's documentation of Navajo weavers and their struggles with cultural identities and economic resources and demands and Mindy Morgan's use of the text of Ruth Underhill's Oodham study to capture the voices of three generations of women ethnographers Because this work bridges anthropology and history a richer and more varied view of the past emerges through the meticulous narratives of anthropologists and their unique fieldwork ultimately providing competing points of access to social dynamics This volume examines events at both macro and micro levels documenting the impact large scale historical events have had on particular individuals and challenging the uniqueness of a single interpretation of the same facts

Art and Sovereignty in Global Politics Douglas Howland, Elizabeth Lillehoj, Maximilian Mayer, 2016-12-01 This volume aims to question challenge supplement and revise current understandings of the relationship between aesthetic and political operations The authors transcend disciplinary boundaries and nurture a wide ranging sensibility about art and sovereignty two highly complex and interwoven dimensions of human experience that have rarely been explored by scholars in one conceptual space Several chapters consider the intertwining of modern philosophical currents and modernist artistic forms in particular those revealing formal abstraction stylistic experimentation self conscious expression and resistance to traditional definitions of Art Other chapters deal with currents that emerged as facets of art became increasingly commercialized merging with industrial design and popular entertainment industries Some contributors address Post Modernist art and theory highlighting power relations and providing sceptical critical commentary on repercussions of colonialism and notions of universal truths rooted in Western ideals By interfering with established dichotomies and unsettling stable debates related to art and sovereignty all contributors frame new perspectives on the co constitution of artworks and practices of sovereignty
