Lenore Tawney Karen Patterson, 2019-10-04 Recent years have seen an enormous surge of interest in fiber arts with works made of thread on display in art museums around the world But this art form only began to transcend its origins as a humble craft in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and it wasn't until the 1950s and 1960s that artists used the fiber arts to build critical practices that challenged the definitions of painting drawing and sculpture One of those artists was Lenore Tawney 1907-2007 Raised and trained in Chicago before she moved to New York Tawney had a storied career She was known for employing an ancient Peruvian gauze weave technique to create a painterly effect that appeared to float in space rather than cling to the wall as well as for being one of the first artists to blend sculptural techniques with weaving practices and in the process pioneered a new direction in fiber art Despite her prominence on the New York art scene however she has only recently begun to receive her due from the greater art world Accompanying a retrospective at the John Michael Kohler Arts Center this catalog features a comprehensive biography of Tawney additional essays on her work and two hundred full color illustrations making it of interest to contemporary artists art historians and the growing audience for fiber art Copublished with the John Michael Kohler Arts Center     Rug Art - Rescued From Oblivion Suzanne Conrod,Suzanne And Hugh Conrod,2010-06 Rug Art RESCUED FROM OBLIVION is a delightful tale of discovery but a sad reflection on the lack of preservation of North America s most endangered art form that has literally and figuratively been tramped on for much too long Abandoned for more than half a century in the basement of a damp and mould filled former New Glasgow Nova Scotia rug pattern factory a determined research team found amazing pen and ink rug art created by an artist who is said to have studied in the same New York art class with noted folk artist Norman Rockwell Under a leaking sewage pipe in that same factory they unearthed amazing hand cut Mystery stencils that are now rewriting the arts heritage Their discovery heralds the oldest known commercial designs recovered in Canada and possibly in North America and a unique pattern printing system hitherto unknown The searchers found and rescued from imminent oblivion some 550 pieces of original pen and ink art created by the 1892 factory founder John Garrett and his son Frank In acquiring remnants of the oldest known rug pattern factory in the world 1892 they also unearthed three unique hand carved full size rug pattern blocks and a mass of records of early pattern designs from across North America An intriguing bonus was the salvaging of some 300 hand cut stencils created by a talented unknown artist Measuring only 3x5 in size each contained two rug pattern designs Designated the MYSTERY PATTERNS preliminary research indicates they are the oldest Canadian rug designs ever discovered and possibly the oldest in the world     Art Books ,1979 Including an international directory of museum permanent collection catalogs     Textile Conservator's Manual Sheila Landi,2012-10-12 This second edition of Textile Conservator s Manual now revised and available in paperback provides an in depth review of the current practice ethics and materials used in textile conservation Concentrating on decorative art objects from the major cultures the book gives practical instruction and a wide variety of case histories While the format has been simplified the text has been expanded and updated to include changes brought about by recent developments in the conservation of material This new information will increase the reader s ability to interpret signs of ageing and past activity on the object New case histories in Part Two represent major investigations into the technical history A basis is provided from which to develop practical skills taking into account the needs of the object its essential characteristics of appearance and above all its structure The book covers a wide range of decorative objects from a fragment of linen 4000 years old to a theatrical backcloth of the twentieth century This book is practical and thought provoking not only about what is being done and how but also why
