Colour-Coded Constance Backhouse, 1999-11-20 Historically Canadians have considered themselves to be more or less free of racial prejudice Although this conception has been challenged in recent years it has not been completely dispelled In Colour Coded Constance Backhouse illustrates the tenacious hold that white supremacy had on our legal system in the first half of this century and underscores the damaging legacy of inequality that continues today Backhouse presents detailed narratives of six court cases each giving evidence of blatant racism created and enforced through law The cases focus on Aboriginal Inuit Chinese Canadian and African Canadian individuals taking us from the criminal prosecution of traditional Aboriginal dance to the trial of members of the Ku Klux Klan of Canada From thousands of possibilities Backhouse has selected studies that constitute central moments in the legal history of race in Canada Her selection also considers a wide range of legal forums including administrative rulings by municipal councils criminal trials before police magistrates and criminal and civil cases heard by the highest courts in the provinces and by the Supreme Court of Canada The extensive and detailed documentation presented here leaves no doubt that the Canadian legal system played a dominant role in creating and preserving racial discrimination A central message of this book is that racism is deeply embedded in Canadian history despite Canada's reputation as a raceless society Winner of the Joseph Brant Award presented by the Ontario Historical Society

New Grub Street George Gissing, 2018-10-07 New Grub Street Large Print by George Gissing For many readers New Grub Street is Gissing's masterpiece If this is not accepted it remains beyond doubt one of his most interesting and most powerful novels As a realistic picture of the literary in late Victorian England New Grub Street has few rivals There is much of Gissing himself his idealism pride impracticality in Edwin Reardon the study of the creative artist oppressed by poverty bears the stamp of bitter experience Of the other characters pedantic Alfred Yule the humble scholar Biffen ambitious and worldly Jasper Milvain are still recognizable literary types New Grub Street is a sombre and moving story cynical in its conclusions but deriving from its close observation and deep integrity a lasting importance for students of character and period The Black Police A. The Strangest Man Graham Farmelo,2009-01-22 A monumental achievement one of the great scientific biographies Michael Frayn The Strangest Man is the Costa Biography Award winning account of Paul Dirac the famous physicist sometimes called the British Einstein He was one of the leading pioneers of the greatest revolution in twentieth century science quantum mechanics The youngest theoretician ever to win the Nobel Prize for Physics he was also pathologically reticent strangely literal minded and legendarily unable to communicate or empathize Through his greatest period of productivity his postcards home contained only remarks about the weather Based on a previously undiscovered archive of family papers Graham Farmelo celebrates Dirac s massive scientific achievement while drawing a compassionate portrait of his life and work Farmelo shows a man who while hopelessly socially inept could manage to love and sustain close friendship The Strangest Man is an extraordinary and moving human story as well as a study of one of the most exciting times in scientific history A wonderful book Moving sometimes comic sometimes infinitely sad and goes to the roots of what we mean by truth in science Lord Waldegrave Daily Telegraph Wandering in Northern China Harry Alverson Franck,1923
