Not Who You Claim Evelyn Lau, 1994-03-16 Strong intimate disturbing and finally poignant Evelyn Laus poems are about people trapped and hurting behind their many masks of conformity Asian Canadian Writing Beyond Autoethnography Christl Verduyn, 2008-08-14 Asian Canadian Writing beyond Autoethnography explores some of the latest developments in the literary and cultural practices of Canadians of Asian heritage While earlier work by ethnic multicultural or minority writers in Canada was often concerned with immigration the moment of arrival issues of assimilation and conflicts between generations literary and cultural production in the new millennium no longer focuses solely on the conflict between the Old World and the New or the clashes between culture of origin and adopted culture No longer are minority authors identifying simply with their ethnic or racial cultural background in opposition to dominant culture. The essays in this collection explore ways in which Asian Canadian authors and artists have gone beyond what Francoise Lionnet calls autoethnography or ethnographic autobiography They demonstrate the ways representations of race and ethnicity particularly in works by Asian Canadians in the last decade have changed have become more playful untraditional aesthetically and ideologically transgressive and exciting Jacket Living the Changes Joan Turner, 1990-12-01 Living the Changes explores the nature and extent of women s changing realities The contributors include writers artists academics street kids and social workers and range in age from nine to seventy three Their topics reflect the diversity and complexity of the concerns of contemporary women birthing and aging body image culture drugs violence sexual abuse prostitution reproductive technology and Lunch With Jan Wong, 2011-12-14 Many people have predicted that she ll never eat lunch in this town again spirituality But as Lunch With proves each week there s always another unsuspecting celebrity ready to break bread with columnist Jan Wong Now s your chance to dine with her while she dishes disses and dissects the likes of Suzanne Somers Jeffrey Archer Margaret Trudeau Dr Ruth Preston Manning Atom Egoyan Don Cherry Margaret Atwood Mordecai Richler Bryan Adams Sarah Polley Eartha Kitt Helen Gurley Brown and many more in sixty of her funniest most trenchant often barbed and occasionally moving Lunch With columns With an introduction on the lunching phenomenon some appetizing background on arranging the interviews and for dessert some reactions from readers and guests this compilation is a deliciously wicked Ingratitude erin Khuê Ninh, 2011-03-28 2013 Winner of the Asian American Studies Association s treat from start to finish prize in Literary Studies Anger and bitterness tend to pervade narratives written by second generation Asian American daughters despite their largely unremarkable upbringings In Ingratitude erin Khu Ninh explores this apparent paradox locating in the origins of these women's maddeningly immaterial suffering not only racial hegemonies but also the structure of the immigrant family itself She argues that the filial debt of these women both demands and defies repayment all the better to produce the docile subjects of a model minority Through readings of Jade Snow Wong s Fifth Chinese Daughter Maxine Hong Kingston's The Woman Warrior Evelyn Lau's Runaway Diary of a Street Kid Catherine Liu's Oriental Girls Desire Romance and other texts Ninh offers not an empirical study of intergenerational conflict so much as an explication of the subjection and psyche of the Asian American daughter She connects common literary tropes to their theoretical underpinnings in power profit and subjection In so doing literary criticism crosses over into a kind of collective memoir of the Asian immigrants daughter as an analysis not of the daughter but for and by her The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Conchita Sugars, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields genres and periods in Canadian literary studies The essays in this volume written by prominent theorists in the field reflect the plurality of critical perspectives regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest including 1 attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism trauma and memory citizenship material culture literary prizes disability studies literature and history digital cultures globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism 2 interest in Indigenous literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole Transgressive Transcripts Bennett Yu-Hsiang Fu,2012 Transgressive Transcripts examines the construction of women's subjectivity and the textual production of Canadian female voices orchestrated in history culture ethnicity and sexuality The book stressing the dissemination and re inscription of femaleness and femininity in Chinese Canadian history employs critical models that defy the sexual textual imaginary of the Canadian literary scene Four fields of study are conjoined feminist theories of the body gender and sexuality studies women s writing and Asian North Amer ican studies Analysing four writers SKY Lee Larissa Lai Lydia Kwa and Evelyn Lau the book anchors its thematic and theoretical concern with female sexuality in the context of Chinese Canadian writing Feminist narratives and gender politics in contemporary Asian North American literature are highlighted via the trope of transgression
